PRIDE OF THE RIO GRANDE.

You may shout hurrah for "gay Paree," You may sing of grand New York, Of the charming Bay of Naples, Of the beauties of old Cork; But fairer far is a spot I know, 'Tis the diadem of a land, And I'll sing of St. George's fair Pride of the Rio Grande.

No minarets or temples rise— And tower into her skies; No paintings grand adorn her walls, She knows no pauper's cries. She knows no blatant millionaires, She knows no prisons grand, Yet I will sing in praise of her, Pride of the Rio Grande.

No lords pride o'er her people, She feels no despot's heel; Marsdhip to her is all unknown, Her knowledge is of weal; Her architect is nature's God, Her songsters from the band That plays the National Anthem By the charming Rio Grande.

The moon it lights her streets at night, The stars dance o'er her head; The dew it falls in gentle drops Upon her flowering beds. Such charms as these I look upon, As there I take my stand On a hill of fair St. George's, Pride of the Rio Grande.

The Wonderful Medicine Is a Marvellous Health Builder.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Tired and Trusted Remedy in Thousands of Canadian Homes

Its Cures are Speedy and Permanent.

Users of Paine's Celery Compound soon recognize the important fact that the great medicine quickly regulates the bowels, clears the complexion and brightens eyes that before had a dull and jaundiced look. Another proof of the stimulating and invigorating power of Paine's Celery Compound, is its immediate effect on the pulse, which becomes firm, regular and full instead of uncertain and feeble.

Paine's Celery Compound liberally feeds the nerves, the tissues and brain with the proper elements of nutrition, and thus saves countless men and women from chronic neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, insomnia and falling mental power. No remedy in the world is so rich in flesh-forming and energy-producing virtues as Paine's Celery Compound. Mr. C. B. Holman, 262 King Street, Hamilton, Ont., says: "Being troubled with a cough, debility and general depression of spirits, I used a number of medicines but received no benefit from them. I was then advised to use Paine's Celery Compound. I procured the preparation and began to use it with wonderful benefit. I am now convinced, after using several bottles of this unequalled medicine, that no other can compare can compare with it in any respect. I am now a changed man; my health is renewed, depression of spirits gone, my appetite is good, and I can sleep well."

ONE WORD.

Wallace Bence. "Write me an epic," the warrior said—"Victory, valor, and glory wed." "Prithee, a ballad," exclaimed the knight—"Prowess, adventure, and faith unite." "An ode to freedom," the patriot cried—"Liberty won and wrong defied." "Give me a drama," the scholar asked—"The inner world in the outer masked." Frame me sonnet," the artist prayed—"Power and passion in harmony played." "Sing me a lyric," the maiden sighed—"A lark-note waking the morning wide." "Nay, all too long," said the busy age, "Write me a line instead of a page." The swift years spoke, the poet heard. "Your poem write in a single word."

He looked in the maiden's glowing eyes, A moment glanced at the star lit skies; From the lights below to the lights above, And wrote the one-word poem—Love.
