Enjoyable Entertainment by Altar And Choir Boys

The League of the Cross Hall was filled Friday night by an audience that thoroughly enjoyed an excellent program by the Choir and Altar Boys of St. Dunstan's Cathedral.

Two sketches were the main features of the program interspersed with choruses and vocal solos. After the opening chorus by the members of the choir, the first sketch was an exceptionally well rendered.

The comedy sketch "Dizzy's Dilemmas" kept the audience laughing throughout. Messrs. W. McIntyre and Frank O'Neill occupied the stage during the entire sketch and made a good impression. Arthur Reardon also made a hit in his dual role and in his female make up bids fair to rival George Pearson in "Dumbells". Arthur Moran as the Chinaman kept the audience during the sketch in a state of constant laughter. He made up and Chinese dialect left nothing to be desired. He also contributed a Chinese "Washer" song in the sketch. Arthur Reardon also contributed a vocal selection in this act.

The second sketch, another comedy, "The Great Exit" was more elaborate, with a larger cast. The leading character in this, the Doctor, was taken by Billy Brown, who although having been cast for quite a lengthy part gave a good account of himself. The other members of the cast were also much enjoyed. The sketch was very prettily arranged, a colored spot light operated by Walter Perry lending added charm. This spot light was used throughout the evening on the different choruses with pleasing effect.

The Patriotic Drill, England and her Colonies was a number that caused much favorable comment. The program concluded with a chorus "Good Bye" followed by the National Anthem.

Miss Bessie Blanchard was the accompanist for all the numbers. A great credit is due Rev. P. Walsh under whose direction the performance was staged, for the success of the affair and it is to be hoped that before long, concert goers will have an opportunity of witnessing such another.

The drawing in connection with the lottery took place immediately after the entertainment and resulted as follows:

First Prize—Table Scarf—L. B. McMillan
Second—Comforter—Percy Walsh
Third—Half dozen silver spoons—Mrs. P. Clarkin, King St.
Hand Bag—E. Gaudet, Provincial Bank.

Fear Expressed for Schooner's Safety; Week Overdue

(Canadian Press)

NEW YORK, May 28.—The schooner Etie M. Morrissey of the American Museum of Natural History's Greenland Expedition is a week overdue from Brigus, Newfoundland and fear is expressed for her safety. The Morrissey sailed from Brigus May 11, and was due in New York May 21. She is commanded by Capt. Robert W. Bartlett, skipper of previous Polar expeditions who was with Peary in all but the final day of his trip to the North Pole.

The one hundred foot schooner is not equipped with wireless, and George Halmer Putnam, director of the expedition expressed the fear that she had met with a mishap and been unable to summon assistance.

Capt. Bartlett was bringing her to Newfoundland for the installation of a wireless outfit previous to her Greenland departure early in June. The number of men in her present crew is not known here.

Walled City Unearthed in Southern Palestine

JERUSALEM, May 29.—Excavation on the site of the buried city of Kirjath Sopher, in Southern Palestine, has revealed one of the most complete and well preserved cities of Canaanite and Israelite walled cities.

The discovery, which is regarded as most unusual in Palestine exploration, was made by the archaeological expedition headed by Dr. Melville G. Kyle, President of the Xenia Theological Seminary of St. Louis in cooperation with the American School of Oriental Research at Jerusalem.

The uncovered walls are 40 feet high and 10 to 14 feet thick. They contain complicated gates with towers and buttresses. The ruins reveal that the history of the city went back possibly 2,000 years before Christ. An extensive system of galleries and rooms for storing grain and water supplies also was discovered.

Bible students and archeologists here are greatly interested in reports from Jerusalem that discoveries made in Southern Palestine confirm the Book of Joshua in recording the Conquest of Kirjath-Sopher.

Excavations on the site of the buried city of Kirjath-Sopher have revealed one of the most complete and well preserved of Canaanite and Israelite walled cities, according to a cablegram from the Holy Land to the Sunday School Times, in which it was stated the Joshua Version of the taking of the ancient city was confirmed and the city "fully identified."

The expedition which made the discoveries, in cooperation with the American School of Archeology Research at Jerusalem, set out to excavate Tell Mersin, near Hebron, identified in 1924 as the Site of Kirjath-Sopher by Director Albright of the American School at Jerusalem. Dr. Albright is director of field operations in the expedition.

Kirjath-Sopher has been undisturbed since Nebuchadnezzar destroyed it 2,500 years ago. But 800 years earlier than that, about 1400 B.C., it was a flourishing city as Joshua led the children of Israel into Canaan and began the conquest of that land.

The apparent corroboration of early old Testament history is regarded as one of the greatest archeological discoveries in recent times. The cablegram received by the Sunday School Times is as follows:

"Joshua 15: 13-19 confirmed. Field and springs found. Kirjath-Sopher fully identified. Remarkable finds far exceeding expectations. Walls originally thirty-five to forty-feet high. Great complicated gateway showing five pools of building three Canaanite, two Israelite. Gruesome layers of ashes show city burned three times; by unknown, about 1700 B.C., by Othniel at Conquest of Canaan by Joshua; and by Nebuchadnezzar. Evidence of terrific fighting. Mysteries and unique system of shrines in rooms, probably a Canaanite Temple. Remarkable plumbing system."

The Bible story of the Conquest of Kirjath-Sopher, which won a wife for Othniel, who captured it, is related in Chapter 15 of Joshua.

The Late Mrs. Fred H. Trainor. -Funeral Largely Attended.

The grave closed yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Trainor, wife of our esteemed citizen, Grafton St. The very many floral and other tributes to her memory were evidence of the high regard in which Mrs. Trainor was held in the community, and the large attendance of mourners testified to the respect in which she and her sorely bereaved husband are held. Mrs. Trainor, who was just on the threshold of what promised to be a long and useful life, was stricken with an internal complaint over a year ago, and all that medical skill could do was tried in order to restore her health. For some time she was a patient of one of the leading hospitals in Boston, and while there she was in the hands of skilled physicians and nurses, but all in vain; the Dread Reaper claimed her as his own, to the sorrow and grief of her sorely bereaved husband and two children.

Mrs. Trainor, notwithstanding her trouble, was of a lively and cheerful disposition, always putting the best face on things, and no one who was not in the secret would have known the suffering she was almost constantly undergoing. She will be sorely missed by her friends, and by those in trouble for she was an ever present help in the time of need.

The funeral took place from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where service was conducted by Rev. A. L. Sinnott and those in the Cathedral Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. George DeBois, E. A. Foster, Dr. J. S. Jenkins, Charles Moran, Mandy Gallant and Frank McDonald.

Another Successful Islander in Can. Merchant Marine

The many friends of Captain J. A. McKenna, of this city and now a valued officer in the service of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, will be pleased to learn that he has received an appointment on the S.S. Canadian Volunteer which is at present in Montreal. He leaves tomorrow afternoon to join his ship after being granted a well earned leave of absence. The Volunteer is one of the largest in the fleet and plies between Windward Islands, Leeward Islands and British Guiana.

The above mentioned young officer, who by the way is only 28 years of age has had a wide, varied and an eventful career on the sea, and his rise from an able-bodied seaman to the high office of ship commander is only typical of the pluck, integrity, perseverance and ability of the many successful Islanders who made good through that hard school of experience coupled with an ambition that has at last merited its reward.

It may be remembered by those who knew "Jack" some fourteen years back when he worked on the Northumberland, his first ship; that was in 1912. After serving a season on this boat, he transferred to the S.S. Halifax running between here and Boston. That was in 1913. The sea called him and he could not resist. In 1914 he shipped on the S.S. Evangeline. In 1915 his worth as a seaman was soon realized with the result that one promotion followed another, but deep water called and in 1923 he was appointed to the S.S. Canadian Miller and after serving some time aboard this ship he was promoted to third officer. The Miller was then sailing between Montreal, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania and New York. He was later transferred to the S.S. Canadian Commander with the same rank and later promoted to second officer.

He transferred some time later to the "Otter" where he received the well earned rank of chief officer. He was also on the Canadian Settler as chief officer running between London and Antwerp. With an eye to the "business" in hand Jack left the above mentioned ship at Halifax on February 6th, 1926 and proceeded to Montreal where he attended the Nautical College and on April 29th, same year he was examined for a Master's seagoing certificate and passed with honors.

Capt. McKenna is a son of John McKenna of this city who has two brothers and one sister residing here namely Peter and Patrick and Mrs. Peter Le Clair. He is also a nephew of Mrs. Thomas McAllister of Moncton, N.B.
