ACUTE NERVOUS EXHAUSTION

All Treatments Proved Useless Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. JAS. S. DELGATY.

R.R. No. 4, Gilbert Plains, Man. "In the year 1910, I had Nervous Prostration in its worst form; was reduced in weight from 170 pounds to 115 pounds.

The doctors had no hope of my recovery, and every medicine I tried proved useless until a friend induced me to take "Fruit-a-tives".

I began to mend almost at once; and after using this fruit medicine for 3 or 4 months, I was back to my normal state of health.

I never had such good health for twenty years as I have enjoyed the past six years. We are never without a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in the house".

JAS. S. DELGATY. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE HOLY SPIRIT OF OUR HELPER.

(Topic for April 27.)

(Acts 2:1-8; 14:18. John 16:7-15.) "If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?"—Luke 11:13.—Golden Text.

Our lesson text forms part of Christ's last discussion with His disciples after the supper partaken in the upper room, before He went forth into the Garden of Gethsemane. The disciples were sorrowful because Jesus had told them He was about to leave them. To comfort them He told them of the Comforter that in His stead He would send. The visible Christ, present among them would be withdrawn, but the Holy Spirit, the continued life and presence of Christ was to come and dwell in their hearts. "But tarry ye in the city until ye be clothed with power from on high." These were the last words of Christ to His disciples which Luke records in his gospel. After He was parted from them the disciples obediently returned to Jerusalem, where they, "with great joy," waited for the promised blessing. For ten days they waited, and at Pentecost the promise was fulfilled.

"The Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, I shall testify of all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said unto you." This is the work of the Spirit of Christ, whom the Father sends in Christ's name.

"There is no God, but only God who revealed Himself to us, and deals with us in three ways so different that we call Him by three different names. When we think of God as the Maker and Maintainer of the universe, according to whose power all things have their being, we are thinking of Him as the Father. When we think of God as manifesting Himself to us in the life of Christ, we are thinking still of the same one God, but as the Son. When we think of God as revealing His will in our conscience, and thereby teaching us how to do better, and at the same time to attain the betterment which is thus revealed, we are thinking again of the same God, whom we called first Father and then Son, and whom we now call the Holy Spirit."

You want to follow Jesus and do His will in all things. But sometimes it is very hard to do this. Then there are times when you know you ought to follow Him, but you lack the wish or the will to do so. How helpful it would be if you had a friend always with you, one who loved and understood you, one who would help you to be what you want to be and ought to be! That friend you have in the Holy Spirit. You cannot see him, but you know and feel him. You can't see the wind, but you know it exists and you can feel it, too. One day a friend was talking with Coleridge's five-year-old son Hartley, and spoke about a little girl with whom Hartley used to walk to and from school every day. "Oh!" said the friend, "is Annie an acquaintance of yours, Hartley?" "No," said the boy, and pressing his hand on his heart he added fervently, "she is an in-quaintance."

The Rev. Stuart Robertson recalls his pretty story and writes: "Think over the people you know, boys and girls, and put them into their right sort and degree of 'acquaintance; the people you know, yet whose lives just such yours now and again—'ac-quaintances; the people you know who are much 'with' you, helping you, on your side—'con-quaintance ('con' is the Latin for 'with'); and those who are 'in' your heart, 'in' your thoughts, 'in' your prayers, who live 'in' you—'in-quaintances."

"But I want to ask you one question, and it is this: What sort of acquaintance is Jesus Christ? He becomes an ac-quaintance with us all when we are children. We read about him in a book, we learn about Him—what He said, what He did, how He died. We know about Him as we know about other great souls in the far-away past. He is in the past; He is in a book; He is nearly twenty centuries away. We nod to Him over the years, but He is only an ac-quaintance."

"Then one day—has it come?—it dawns on us that He is living now; not shut in a book, not centuries away. Now, in the lives of men, in the world about us, Jesus is living and working now, teaching people to love, helping people to live, redeeming them out of evil ways. In our own homes He lives and works; and most of the things that make us happy there are His doing. That is better. He is near us. He is with us, on the side of the good in us. 'I am with you always.' He said, 'even to the end of the world.' Jesus is a con-quaintance."

"But that is not enough. Christ with us makes our life happy; Christ 'in' us makes our life glorious. Christ in us, our hope of glory," says St. Paul, and his life was a glorious life because he was able to say, 'Christ liveth in me.' "When are you going to be able to say that? When are you going to open your heart to Christ so frankly and widely that He can enter in and live there, so that you will look up at God with Christ's eyes of faith,

This word was symbolized and interpreted aright by the French people prior to and after the War of 1870-71. Every nation which was engaged in the World War must learn the lesson of THRIFT and practice it from now on, and none more so than the Canadians.

Every dollar saved is a dollar added to the country's financial strength, and the country's revenues are thereby increased.

and on this world with Christ's eyes of gladness, and on men and women with Christ's eyes of love?

"When will you be able to give to the question 'Is Jesus an acquaintance of yours?' that best answer, which it matters all the world that you should give, and give it with a true hand on a true heart: 'No! he is an 'in-quaintance'; 'Christ liveth 'in' me.'"

The Fruits of the Spirit—"If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us walk," counsels Paul. What does he mean by living by the Spirit? "A little child is sulky and cross, and the mother takes the child up in her lap, and talks with it, and reasons with it. By and by, the pouting lips begin to be drawn into a pleasanter expression, and the child brushes the tears from its eyes, and the frown is smoothed from the brow, and the little child jumps down and runs away, playing. Whose spirit is in the child—mother's, or child's? Both. The mother's spirit is in the child. The soldiers are fleeing away in a panic, and Sheridan meets them, halts them, and bids them turn the other way. They gather up their thrown down muskets, and follow after him, and pluck victory out of defeat. Whose spirit makes this possible? Sheridan's? Yes. But Sheridan could not do it unless Sheridan's spirit was in the soldiers. They got his spirit, and it is his spirit that wins the victory." In like manner it is God's Spirit in us that wins the victory with us, and living by the Spirit, we walk by the Spirit, doing those things which are pleasing to God.

What are some of the things which are pleasing to God the things which are the fruits of the Spirit, the results of the Unseen Helper's power and guidance? Paul enumerates some of them in his letter to the Galatians.

The Holy Spirit who does all these things is given in answer to prayer (Lk. 11:13); and we must remind ourselves that in Christ's conception we have not to storm a closed gate, but to enter an open one. There is a point in connection with prayer where asking must cease, and we must take that which we ask. We may pray to be filled with the Spirit, and never realize these wonderful things Christ has taught, unless by simple faith we stretch out the empty hand and "take the Gift of Pentecost, to fill us to the uttermost."

The whole of his teaching is comprehended in three propositions. He shall "abide 'with' you for ever." He shall be 'in' you." "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come 'upon' you." "With' you"—revealing Christ, standing by our side. "In' you"—the sanctifying Spirit. "Upon you"—as an endowment empowering us for service, and making us living witnesses.
