IN MARCH

We commence to smell the Spring weather—makes a person think of building. During March and April we are going to try

Clean out the Bee Hive. We want to get clear of all our Lumber.

A Word to the Wise Lumber Buyer

PHONE 181. JAS. BARRETT, CONNOLLY'S WHARF.

THE WRECKED LABRADOR.

Description of the Ship and List of Officers.

The St. John Sun says:—The Labrador, which steamed into St. John harbor on Tuesday, December 6th last, on her first voyage to this port, had made two successful voyages hence to Liverpool, leaving here December 14 and January 16, and sailed on the third trip for Liverpool on February 19th.

She was a three-decked ship, and was built in 1891 by Harland & Wolff (Ltd) of Belfast. She was 401 feet long, 47.2 feet beam, hold 28.3 feet; gross tonnage, 4 737; register tons, 2, 998. Her engines were triple expansion, developing 4,500 horse power and giving a speed of 16 knots per hour. The Saloon in a deck house on the bridge deck was elegantly finished, the artistic panels and stained glass windows adding greatly to the appearance. A large number of the staterooms were located on the bridge deck, and instead of the ordinary port hole they were fitted with stained glass windows. The smoking room and ladies' room were also on this deck. On the upper deck was an auxiliary saloon seating thirty passengers. The staterooms on this deck were large and airy. The rooms accommodated two, three and four passengers, with one family room containing six berths. Lavatories and bathrooms were to be found on both decks. All the rooms were lighted by electricity. The second cabin was situated well amidship. Special attention had been given to light and ventilation, and the rooms were large and comfortable. The steerage was situated on the main deck. The rooms accommodated six and eight passengers. The whole steerage was bright and pleasant. Large deck space was also provided for stowage passengers. The boat had accommodations for 140 first-class passengers, 200 second class and 500 steerage.

She carried a crew of about 100 men and was officered as follows: Captain—T. W. Esquire. Chief Officer—Chas. Merrick. Second Officer—W. R. Evans. Third Officer—J. R. Jones. Fourth Officer—H. Harper. Chief Engineer—W. Evans and four others. Purser—Wm. Fisher. Chief Stewart—A. Maxwell. Stewardesses—Mrs. Bruce and two others.

The loss of the Labrador, will naturally be regretted. She was a good ship of her class, and had a valuable cargo.

It is not known on whom the chief loss will fall, but it will doubtless be shared among a number of underwriters, and the owners of the ship and cargo. The cargo alone was worth $130,000, of which $80,000 was Canadian and $50,000 goods from the United States. These goods would probably be pretty fully insured.

EXCEPTIONAL CASE.

"Now, sir," said the lawyer, looking sharply at the witness, "tell me whether you have contradicted yourself because of a defective memory or because you testified falsely in the first place."

"I guess it must be on account of my poor memory," replied the witness. "I never told a lie in my life. That's why father said I'd never make a lawyer."

"And so," replied the attorney, "because you couldn't lie well enough to be a lawyer and hadn't memory enough to learn any other occupation, he let you grow up to be just a common, everyday ass."

Inasmuch as this appears to be the first time in all history that a lawyer ever got the better of a witness the case deserves to go on record.
