In doing so he struck one of his limbs on the end of the spindle, with the result that some of the blood vessels of the leg were ruptured.

Another very sudden death has occurred at Morell and the entire community were deeply greived yesterday to learn that Edward Jardine, son of the late Doctor Jardine, had peacefully passed away during Wednesday night, aged 63 years. Mr. Jardine, worked in the field all day Wednesday with his team and retired in apparently good health, although very tired at nine o'clock in the evening. Yesterday morning not have arisen at the usual hour his sister went to his room to call him, and was shocked to find that he had passed away during the night death being due to heart trouble. Mr. Jardine, resided with his two unmarried sisters on the homestead and was one of the formost farmers in his section. Being a thorough business man he was president of the Morell Cheese Board, a useful neighbor and a noble christian worker, doing everything at all times to further the interests of the church. He leaves a large circle of relatives to mourn besides three sisters and one brother. Mrs. Dr. Henderson of Milton is a cousin.

Another exciting game of baseball took place at Victoria Park yesterday afternoon. The teams were the Orlebars and Mic Macs of the Junior League of this City. It was a well played, clean game, and the score was four to three in the fourth innings. The Orlebars then shut their opponents out until the eight innings when errors allowed two runners to cross the plate, while they scored nine runs making the total 13-5. In the ninth innings there was no scoring done. Some plays that drew applause from the spectators were a fine catch of a line drive by McLellan and also one by Musgrave in the ninth innings. This is the third game the Orlebars have won from the Mic Macs, which, as W. K. School has droped out, gives them the trophy donated by L. B. Miller, of this City.

The line up was as follows:

ORLEBARS
C. Milford—catcher
C. Musgrave—pitcher.
C. VanIderstine—1st base.
W. Gillespie (capt.) 2nd base.

The funeral of the late George D. Longworth of this City took place yesterday afternoon. There was a large procession of mourners and acquaintances. The body was taken to St. Pauls Church where Ven. Archdeacon Reagh read the burial service. The pallbearers were: S. W. Crabbe, Percy Pope, Jude Fitzgerald, F. W. Hyndman, W. H. Aitken and A. E. Ings. The interment was at the Peoples Cemetery.

Reference was made a few days ago to the arrest in New York of Hedley J. Gardiner, a former Charlottetown man, on the charge of having stolen 13,200 shares of the Bay State Gas Company's stock. Gardiner has been taken to Boston for trial and appeared in the municipal court there to answer the charge made against him. He was held for the grand jury in bail of $1,500. A Boston paper has the following paragraph: When asked by the court if he wished to be examined on the charge he ljectedly dejectedly shook his head, and tears sprang from his eyes. While his frame shook with sobs, he was led away to the county jail. Gardiner's own story to the police was most pathetic. A graduate from Harvard in 1887, he was at one time the assistant manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, with a rosy future before him. Drink, he says, lost him his position, and brought about his downfall. The larceny of the stock in question, he claims, was a drunken prank. He is being closely watched for fear that he may attempt suicide.

EMBROIDERIES.

The embroidery sale to-day. The selling begins at 9 o'clock this morning. It is not necessary for us to go into detail regarding this sale. It is a well-known fact that when we have an embroidery sale it is an offering of unusual and unpproached values, and this will not be an exception to the rule. You are not so much interested as to how these extraordinary values are possible, suffice it to say that awaiting your choosing this morning are beautiful, new, crisp edgings and insertions in the most attractive and dainty designs, the very embroideries you want for spring sewing, at considerably less than half their real worth. They are up to 4½ in. and range in width from 2 to 4½ in. The prices of these embroideries at other times is from 8 to 18c. a yard. At to-day's price of 5 to 8c. a yard, we believe you will agree with us when we say this is one of the greatest embroidery offers of the season. Jas Paton & Co. 6—5drtf.
