SPECIAL SUNDAY TRIPS OF CARFERRY MAY 25TH—Owing to the fact that the May 24th Holiday this year comes on Saturday and that a great many enquiries were made regarding a Sunday trip of the S.S. Charlottetown on May 25th The Canadian National Railways have decided to make four special trips of the Ferry on Sunday. Word to this effect was received yesterday by B. Graham Rogers, Supervisor of the Prince Edward Island Travel Bureau and Mr. Wallace Higgins, Secretary of the Charlottetown Board of Trade. Mr. Rogers states that the Travel Bureau Office here has also received a great many inquiries regarding this Sunday trip. This will now provide a splendid opportunity for persons on the mainland to spend Saturday and Sunday on Prince Edward Island, and it is expected that many people here will invite their friends over for this holiday period. Schedule cards, maps, and other literature regarding all three Maritime Provinces are available at the Travel Bureau office. The schedule also appears in an advertisement of the Travel Bureau in today's paper. This special Sunday trip was arranged through the efforts of Messrs E. W. MacKinnon, Superintendent of the C.N.R. and D. B. Bishop. District Freight and Passenger agent

FRIDAY

A FINE CATCH — Mr. S. C. Moore, caught a beautiful seatrout Wednesday night at Fortune wharf. The trout was 18 inches long, weighed 2 lbs. 10 oz., and had the clear silvery sheen of the unmistakable sea-trout.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE—At the music festival held in New Glasgow, N.S., last Monday and Tuesday, Miss Pearl Burns of this city was among the successful candidates. Miss Burns secured first prize in a contralto solo, (Oratorio) open, scoring 82 points.

Minimum butter prices in this Province would be those announced recently by Agriculture Minister Gardiner, it was learned yesterday from Mr. W. L. Brenton, dairy superintendent. Mr. Brenton said no butter board had been established here, similar to the one set up recently in New Brunswick. The question had been discussed, however, but no action taken.

PRINCE NOVA IN MONTREAL —Elsewhere in this issue reference is made to the Wood Islands car ferry's expected arrival in this province. It was stated that Mr. R. E. Mutch, President of the Northumberland Ferries, Ltd. expected that the boat was on the drydock in Montreal. Late last night Mr. Mutch received a wire stating that the ferry was due in Montreal at 10 p. m. It is expected that the boat will be in the drydock for 24 hours before proceeding on her journey

A delegation from the Prince Edward Island Federation of Agriculture waited on the executive council of the Provincial Government yesterday. They asked the Government for a grant to enable them to stage a Livestock Field Day this summer. The president of the Federation, Capt. J. L. Read of Borden, was present as well as members of the executive and others interested in livestock advancement. The Government made no decision in the matter as Premier Campbell is at present in Ottawa.

Rev. Theodore Ross was the speaker at Cape Traverse United Church last Sunday afternoon. He took as his text Galatians 6, verse 2, Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfil the law of Christ and verse 5. Every man shall bear his own burden. He spoke of the necessity for each one to bear his share of the burden of assistance to the Mother Country in her great struggle for the freedom of mankind. The church must build Christ's kingdom for after the war. It is the church's responsibility to build a Christian Canada. A pleasing feature of the service was a solo, Mother's Voice, Sweetly sung by Miss Mary Muttart.

MEETING OF PRESBYTERIAL EXECUTIVE—An executive meeting of the P. E. I. Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society, United Church of Canada, was held in Heartz Hall, Charlottetown on Tuesday of this week. The members attended the worship service of the Presbytery in the morning then adjourned to the east parlor where the President, Mrs. A. J. Mathieson, O'Leary, conducted the business session. Twelve officers from different parts of the Island and two visitors were present. Encouraging reports were given by the different departments and several matters discussed. At the afternoon session arrangements were made for summer rally to be held at various places, two officers having charge of such rallies. It is hoped that all the officers will attend Conference Branch which is to be held in Sackville, N. B, on June 17-18-19. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

SURVEY TO BE COMPLETED —The Geophysical survey of Prince Edward Island, which was started last year by the Seismograph Service Corporation of Tulsa, Oklahoma, will be completed this summer. The Seismograph Corporation will arrive here in the near future to finish the job. The survey is being made for the Cities Service Oil Company of New York and its purpose is to determine if the rock structure of the Island is favorable to the production of oil. The oil rights of the whole Island have been leased by the Provincial Government to Mr. Hugh MacKay of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, who in turn has leased them to the Cities Service Oil Company. Last year the Oil Company was represented by Dr. L. C. Snider of New York but since then he has received a Chair of Geology and it is not known if he will be here this summer. In charge of the work for the Seismograph Company, was Mr. W. B. Perry. It is understood that the latter is now serving in the United States Army and will not be here this year. The Hillsborough Bay area, a section around Souris and points in Prince County were surveyed last summer.

The funeral of the late Angus Sutherland was held from his old home in Cardigan on April 9, 1941 the services being conducted at the house and grave by his Pastor the Rev. T. Owen Hughes of the Presbyterian Church, Cardigan. The remains were layed to rest beside his wife who predeceased him four years ago, and a son Paige Stewart who passed away in 1928.

Mr. Sutherland who had passed the advanced age of 87 years had been remarkably well and active until a few months ago, when his health began to fail him, and he never seemed to gain much strength but was able to be up and around and taking a short walk each day until a few days previous to his death when he gradually began to weaken, and on Monday morning April 7th., he passed to his Eternal rest. He leaves to mourn six sons, Everett in Winnipeg, Man., Wallace and Leigh in Michigan; Gordon in Waterbury, Vt., George and Arthur on the homestead, and two daughters Lillian-Mrs. George MacLean, Winnipeg, Man., and May, Mrs. Guild, who nursed her father through his illness. There are also two sisters Mrs. Barbara Shaw, Toronto, Ont., and Mrs. Annie Norton, Charlottetown P. E. I. Pallbearers Messrs Oliver Dockerty, Hugh McEachern, Earl Macdonald, John Sullivan John Webster and Walter Myres. Herse Driver —George McEachern.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of the late William Brent Hastings, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hastings was held from the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon, when services were conducted by the Rev. Donald Boothroyd. Interment West Devon Cemetery, the Rev. George Gough officiating at the grave.

CASE IN SUPREME COURT OF CANADA — The case of MacKay v Clow and ano. which was an appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court en banc to the Supreme Court of Canada was heard at Ottawa yesterday. This is a chancery case to set aside a deed of land. Mr. J.J. Johnston, K.C. counsel for the appellant and Mr. R.R. Bell counsel for the defendant did not appear but retained counsel in Ottawa to argue the case.

TENDERED FAREWELL — Over 80 friends of Keith Acorn, of Charlottetown, gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Acorn last night to tender him a farewell party. The popular young Charlottetown boy, better known to his friends as "Chevie", leaves next week for military duty on the mainland. Employees of the Central Creameries were there in a body to say Godspeed to their fellow worker as he leaves to serve his country. He was presented with a well filled purse. The presentation was made by Mr. Raymond Archer and the address read by Mr. William Cutcliffe. He was also presented with a lovely wrist watch by his parents. The evening was spent in dancing, singing and other amusements. Keith was well known in hockey circles throughout the province, having campaigned with the Abbies.
