At the Supreme Court in Charlottetown, this morning the case of the King vs. Ernest Davey, James O'Brien and Seymour Gregory was continued from yesterday afternoon. The court met at 10.30 a.m., a number of witnesses were examined and the case for the crown was concluded. The court met again at 2.30 p.m. and a number of witnesses for the defence were called.

There is no doubt now that the races at Moosepath for July 10, 11 and 12, will be one of the best meets put on here in recent years. All the classes have filled well and the great interest shown by outside horsemen indicates that St. John is coming back to its own as far as horse racing is concerned. Vesta Boy, 2.05¼, Summerside Speed Club, is among the entries in the Free-for-all, along with Frank Patch, 2.18¼, Gallagher, 2.03½, and others. Prince Louie, 2.15¼, of the Queen Hotel Stables, St. Stephen, N. B., formerly owned in Charlottetown, is an entry in the 2.12 trot and 2.15 pace.

Meadow Bank School, West River, held a very successful public examination on Friday afternoon, June 28th. Quite a number of the children's parents and other visitors Rere present. The pupils were examined by the teacher, Jno. Heartz, assisted by Rev. E. S. Weeks, of Mt. Stewart, and, also by several of the parents After the examination, the trustees and rate-payers present, expressed themselves, in very complimentary terms, regarding the splendid work done by Mr. Heartz, who will continue to teach for the coming year. A well rendered program by the children, followed by the usual candy treat, brought a very enjoyable afternoon to a close.

Among the outward passengers by the Northumberland this morning was Chas. and Mrs. Baldwin of Bathurst, N. B. Mr. Baldwin, known as "Professor," is a unique specimen of manhood, claiming to be the shortest man in the world. He has no arms, no knees and is possessed of only four toes to each foot. But the toes are very useful, for with them Mr. Baldwin can hold a pen and produce a good example of penmanship. He is broad shouldered and of very sturdy build and his countenance is of good appearance. He is 48 years of age During the past winter Mr. Baldwin has been at Wilmot Valley, where he entertained the residents with songs, ventriloquism and exhibitions of himself.

J. H. Reddin, Stipendiary Magistrate for King's County, returned to Charlottetown by the Murray Harbor train this morning.

Of interest to P. E. I. agriculturists is the statement of T. G. Raynor in the Montreal Star, Mr. Raynon, referring to prospects for clover seed this year, states that the seed will be scarcer than last year and consequently higher priced. This is based on his observations throughout Ontario.

The races at Riverside Park on July 13th should prove very attractive judging by the excellent programme viz. Free for all, 2.35 pace and 2.40 trot. These are classes which should fill well and give great contests as they include the best horses at present in training. A large crowd of ladies and gentlemen from Charlottetown are reserving July 13th for a trip to beautiful Riverside.

The death took place at his home in Inkerman, Lot. 29, on Sunday morning, June the 23rd, 1912, of Dan. P. McLennan, aged 24 years. The deceased had been ailing for over a year, and notwithstanding all that medical aid, and tender care could do, proved fruitless, and on Sunday morning his spirit winged its flight to God who gave it, as he assured his friends in his last days that death would be the happy change for him. His funeral took place on Thursday the 25th to the Hartsville cemetery, and was the largest seen in that part of the country for sometime. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor the Rev. John Gillis and at the grave by Bunyan L. L. Lodge Rose Valley, of which the deceased was a valued member. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing father, and mother, two sisters, and one brother, who have the sympathy of the community in their sore bereavement. The pallbearers were, his brother Orangemen—Alex Matheson, Hubert Reeves, Dan Buchannan, J.D. Matheson, Rodk. Nicholson and Dan D. McDonald.—Com.

Coun. T. Campbell, Charlottetown, was a passenger west this morning.

Miss Grace Dutcher, Charlottetown, left yesterday to visit friends in Crapaud.

The schooner Polar Star, Capt. Hemphill, has arrived in Charlottetown with another cargo of coal from Pictou.

A painting of Daniel Hodgson, father of the late Mr. Justice Hodgson, Charlottetown, and who was Prothonotary and Clerk of the Crown from 1829 until 1883, has been hung in the Prothonotary's office in the Court House. This portrait, pronounced a splendid likeness and tastefully framed, was the property of the deceased Master of the Rolls.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Perham, daughter of John and Mrs. Perham of North Sydney, and Angus Lamont of Sydney took place Thursday night in the Methodist Church, North Sydney. Rev. Mr. Phalen officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Lamont left on the morning train for the "Garden of the Gulf" there to spend their honeymoon.—Sydney Exc.

A Forest Hill correspondent writes that the energetic and capable Road Master, Malcolm MacDonald, J. P., by his honest division of labor, energy and thorough knowledge of repairing roads, has not only put the roads of his district in good repair, but has been proved to the satisfaction of his men that the road act is under competent supervision, the best that could be devised in the interests of the farmers and the making of good roads. Mr. MacDonald has had more work done in this district this year than has been done since it was a road.
