UNITED STATES WINS MATCH

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, June 20.—Beating Great Britain by 41 points, United States has won the international shooting match just completed. The scores made public to-day were United States 24,511, Great Britain 24,510. Last year Great Britain took the match with a score of 24,548 against 24,291 for United States. This year's rules called for 50 men on each side using 22 calibre rifles at 75 feet, the size of the bull's eye being half an inch.

among friends, but as challenges to compete in a rough game where failure is a humiliation and where success can be won only by pluck and strength. That kind of fighting, of course, is the greatest joy of an able man or an ambitious man. Now, in choosing your equipment for this struggle, I congratulate you upon having selected a business education to begin with. Your training here will give you admittance into the world of business, or it will be a personal benefit to you in case you take up teaching or the law, or medicine, or the ministry. You will be started, to find, if you mingle among professional men that as business men have found shorthand and typewriting a valuable means toward success.

He also congratulated them upon having demonstrated their perseverance and intelligence and on having acquired a skill which would give them entrance into the innermost councils of wise and successful men and would be of service and convenience to them in almost any line of occupation they chose to enter as well as in their private life, but he hoped they would not regard that as an end in itself; for while it would gain them splendid opportunities, if rightly used, it would not in itself lift them into success. A business training was an excellent weapon toward great achievements, but it was only a small part of the whole armory which they needed. In this day and age they needed a liberal education as a matter of course, but more essential than education, however, if not more important, was experience coupled with thought. This was the era of the man with ideas, and the value of the idealist was never more appreciated.

At whatever they were working they would find it would pay them to have visions for betterment. By having such purposes they would find their work of continual interest. He did not mean to decry hard work. Ideas seldom furnished quick success unless they were preceded by and followed by a great deal of steady pecking away.

In conclusion, Mr. Frost touched upon the question of women as office workers and said there could be no doubt but that because of their precision, and patience, and resourcefulness, women gave splendid help in an office. But he would remind all the young men within his hearing to remember that however fine a woman was in a counting-house or an office, the same qualities made her tenfold finer and more of a blessing in a home of her own.

His Honor the Governor then made a few remarks to the graduates. He said that he thought there was too great a trend towards the city but no doubt the inducements of the commercial field were very enticing and it was a good and remunerative field to enter. He congratulated the students and the Principal and his staff on their excellent showing.

Principal Moran, in acknowledgment, intimated an increased attendance at college and said that this was the greatest year in its history. He also pointed out the fact that students had come all the way from Western Canada to receive instruction at this institution. The proceedings were terminated with the singing of the National Anthem.

LOOKING OVER CAR FERRY TERMINALS

(Special to the Guardian) CAPE TRAVERSE, June 20.—Professor Kirkpatrick, who was put in charge of the car ferry survey one year ago, together with Mr. MacKie visited Carleton Point today and spent the day looking over the situation.

Mr. MacKie is the gentleman who has the contract for the car ferry terminal at Cape Tormentine. It is no secret that Mr. MacKie is after the Carleton Point contract which he would push to completion at the earliest possible moment.

Professor Kirkpatrick contemplates that much work will be done at Carleton yet this season all things being equal.

Mr. MacKie advocates the connection of Carleton Point by rail-way immediately, otherwise the contractor for this great work will bring all his supplies from New Brunswick. Island merchants should take this matter up with the minister at once and see to it that the money spent remains in this province to which it belongs. Work is progressing splendidly at Tormentine.

TWO WOMEN WERE DROWNED

(Canadian Press) BANFF, June 20.—Eva Ballens and Lilly Sutherland, each 25 years of age and employed at Banff Springs Hotel, were drowned when a raft they were on careened over the rapids of Spray Falls. Two girls and five men companions, employed in the hotel were on a raft tied to the embankment at the confluence of Bow and Spray rivers. The fastenings broke and the raft rushed out into whirlpools. Four men leaped overboard and made for shore leaving the women to their fate. The other man attempted to run the raft to safety but failed. He was later rescued in an exhausted condition.

ANNUAL CAMP OF MILITIA

This is a busy, withal an interesting, period for the militia men of this province, as it embraces their annual camp-out for special training. The greater portion of the force will be encamped in Charlottetown on the Exhibition ground, the individual units with their respective commanders being the Abergwe Light Infantry, under Colonel Allen; the Charlottetown Light Horse, Major A. E. Ings; the Army Medical Corps, Major I. Yeo; the Signalling Corps, Lieut. K. Rogers; and Corps of Guides, Major W. A. Weeks. The total strength of this force will be about 700, of which the Light Infantry will represent nearly 500. The Field Battery from Montague and Souris, which will be under the command of Major A. T. McKay, will not as has been the case formerly, go into camp with above units but will camp at Aldershot, whither they will proceed next week. They will pass through Charlottetown on their way to Aldershot on Monday next, coming here by special train, which will be necessary for the transport of their 60 odd horses, their guns and munitions. They will then tranship to the Northumberland the same morning and go over in her being due to reach Aldershot by night. They will be in camp there about 12 days towards the end of which they will send a firing detachment to Petawawa.

With regard to the Fourth Regiment, the Charlottetown Artillery, they will go for their camp to Petawawa as usual, leaving the city for that place on the 13th July. The two batteries, each of 40 men strong, will be under the command of Lieut. Colonel Peake, with whom there will be associated about a dozen other officers.

BURGLARY SCHOOL IN NEW YORK

Professor Betrayed by a Favorite Pupil Made a Confession Rivaling Anything in Criminal History.

(Canadian Press) NEW YORK, June 20.—Isador Rador, Professor of Burglary, made a confession to-night to Judge Swann that rivals anything ever told in the criminal history of New York. In the back of a pool room on the lower east side Rador said he had for several years held daily classes in stealing and crime. His pupils and alumni of whom he mentions many names have stolen half a million dollars worth of horses and merchandise he estimates. Also, he says, they paid scores of detectives, plain clothes men and headquarters policemen thousands of dollars to avert arrest. A dozen or more thieves have told detectives of Rador's school but he has managed to evade arrest and keep on teaching his trades. He was finally landed when a favorite pupil squealed to the police. He sent word to Judge Swann that he wanted to confess. Seven closely written typewritten pages of a docket in the Judge's desk contain his story. Tim and again Rador declared, giving names and dates, paid officials of police department to let him remain free. One time he paid $500 when caught while stealing a truckload of merchandise worth $10,000. The only time he was stung was when a detective refused to divide with him a reward of $500 for the recovery of stolen goods. Rador stole the goods and being unable to sell them, turned them over to a detective to get the reward and divide it.

BURNED TO DEATH AT GLACE BAY BROTHERS GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

(Special to the Guardian) HALIFAX, June 20.—The trial of Graves brothers, the three men charged with the murder of Kenneth Lee in June last year was concluded at Bridgetown, N. S., to-day and the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter. They were convicted of murder last year and sentenced to death but their counsel succeeded in securing a second trial for them. They will be sentenced to-morrow.

FIRST THINGS

The first permanent settlement of the English in America was founded at Jamestown, Va., in 1607 by Capt. John Smith, the immortal hero of the Pocahontas episode, who died in London 282 years ago today, June 21, 1631. Smith, the son of a tenant farmer, was also born on the twenty-first of June, in 1579. The remains of the founder of Virginia lie buried in St. Sepulchre's Church, Snow Hill, London. That Smith had in him the elements of real leadership, and is entitled to rank in history as the founder of Virginia, there is little doubt, but the iconoclastic historians of the present allege that he was a confirmed romancer, not to say a monumental liar, and that most of the adventures he described never happened, or did not occur in the romantic way in which he set them down for posterity. At the time of his death, which occurred on his fifty-second birthday, Smith was contemplating a "History of the Sea," in which work his romantic genius would doubtless have found much to revel in.

CHANGES IN U. S. TARIFF

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, June 20.—Important reductions in the Underwood tariff rates on iron, steel and other metal products; the addition of cattle, wheat, pig iron, angora wool and articles for the free list; increased rates in many classes of cotton goods and some silk products are the chief features in the revised tariff bill, as laid before the Senate Democrats to-day by the chairman of the Finance Committee.

After a week's work in which every item of the bill was scrutinized the re-drafted measure was brought in to-day and discussed in private and explained to members before the bill was made public.

Experts at once commenced work on the summary of changes.

The President's desire as to free sugar in 1916, and free wool at once is evident through the whole bill.

To the list of market basket reductions which the Underwood bill contained the committee added many important items. In the general level of rates the new bill presents a heavier cut than did the bill as passed in the House some time ago.
