How to make 97 delicious Jams and Jellies!

Here is Your Recipe Booklet Under the Label of Every Certo Bottle

WITH Certo, anyone, even the most inexperienced, can make perfect jams and jellies every time—with only a few minutes' boiling. Famous cooking experts recommend this Certo "short-boil" method. Home Economics Departments of universities and colleges teach it. Always use the Certo Recipe Booklet. You'll find it under the label of every bottle of Certo. It gives 97 recipes for delicious, perfect jams and jellies, including many kinds you have never made before. Follow directions carefully. You'll be sure of success.

CERTO

—"INSTITUTE WORK"—The regular monthly meeting of the Rosemeath Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. McQuarrie, on Sept. 16th. Seven members and one visitor were present. Meeting opened with singing of the Ode, Committee appointed to visit the school, Mrs. J. Donahoe and Mrs. E. Munn. A new book case and library are being installed in the school. After further business, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Meeting closed by singing God Save the King. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. E. Bulpitt.—

—"INSTITUTE NEWS"—On Sept. 15th, the members of the Gaspereau Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Arch Reynolds for their monthly meeting, with eleven members and seven visitors present. Meeting opened with singing of the "Maple Leaf," accompanied by the organ. Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted. No new work was undertaken, as all the members were unable to be present, owing to the unfavorable condition of the weather. Mrs. Milton Reynolds invited the members to her home for their next meeting, on Oct. 20th. Meeting closed by singing God Save the King. A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess, which was very much enjoyed. The remainder of the evening passed pleasantly in music and singing. The members join in thanking Mrs. and Miss Reynolds for their kind entertainment.—

—"WHIST DRIVES"—The whist parties held each Thursday night in Sturgeon Hall, under the auspices of the C.Y.M.L. are becoming more and more successful each week as is evidenced by the increasing attendance and the great enthusiasm which prevails among those competing for the prizes. On Thursday night, Sept. 18th, the winner among the ladies was Mrs. Maurice Daley, and the gentleman's prize went to Mr. James Lanigan an adept at the game. Mr. Phillip Creed proved his ability as a player of forty-fives by winning in the "Freeze-out." At the conclusion of play, the inner man was appeased by delectable eats served by Mrs. Wm. Farrell, Mrs. Edward Mahar and Miss Margaret Kearney.—

MACAULAY-MCQUAID NUPTIALS

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Convent, Souris, on the morning of August 20th, when Miss Mary Matilda MacAulay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. MacAulay, became the bride of Mr. Herbert McQuaid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McQuaid, St. Terras. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Pastor, Rev. Father McLean, V.G., and during the Nuptial Mass, various selections appropriate to the occasion were rendered by the girls choir. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen MacAulay and the groom by her brother, Mr. Basil McQuaid, Charlottetown. The bride looked very winsome in a gown of white satin, bridal veil caught with brilliants, and carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was prettily gowned in powder blue, hat and shoes to match and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. After the wedding ceremony, the happy couple, accompanied by the immediate relatives, motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous breakfast was served to over eighty guests, the most prominent being, Rev. Father Sinnott, Rollo Bay; Rev. Father Ronald MacDonald, East Point; Rev. Father Finley Mullaly, Charlottetown; Rev. Father Basil Croken, Souris; Rev. Father Reginald McDonald. In the afternoon the bridal party motored to Charlottetown, making a call at the home of the groom's parents, and left next morning on a trip to Annapolis Royal and other interesting points enroute. The bride travelled in a mid fawn ensemble, brim fox fur hat and shoes to match. They received many beautiful gifts, testifying to their popularity. The bride is a successful school teacher, and the groom a valued employee of the C. N. R. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of happy wedded bliss.
