Grim and determined are the men As Sphinx-like they sit and ride, Awaiting the finish they know full well Will be lost or won by a stride.

Past the quarter and round the turn The flying pacers come, Their hoofbeats echoing on the air Like the roll of a muffled drum;

On to Charlottetown! From all points in the Maritimes race horses are on the way with drivers and attendants. They are coming by motor trucks, motor vans, trailers and railroad cars.

are over 160 entries, which means that even last year's great entry list has been exceeded. In the over half century since the Charlottetown track was built its stretches have echoed to the hoof beats of thousands of gallant steeds.

—feel again the thrill of close finishes—see the finest trotters and pacers in the Maritimes battling for honors—see also the juvenile trotters and pacers win their spurs—hear the shouts of the drivers as they enter the stretch—hear the cheers of the Grand Stands as their favorites show in front—don't miss it!
