

MR. J. FRANK ARNETT, Conservative Candidate for Prince

One of the most forceful and engaging personalities in politics today is Mr. J. Frank Arnett, Conservative Candidate for Prince. He has been a very successful business man, and yet has had time to devote to public affairs both in the town of Summerside and in the county. He has been an energetic member of the Town Council and a most popular mayor; and in all good work and matters of public interest he has borne more than an ordinary share. When the Conservative Convention offered him the nomination for the county he accepted the honor and responsibility fully realizing that it entailed great sacrifices and much arduous work on his part; and since then has nobly thrown himself into the conflict, with such zest and effectiveness, that his opponent has had to work as even he never worked before to avoid being completely mowed under.

POWNAI

On the afternoon of Saturday, July 12th, a very delightful picnic was held at Stewart's shore, Bellview. Despite the rather threatening nature of the weather and the postponement, a large crowd gathered from Cornwall, York, Dunstaffnage, Charlottetown, Pownal, Georgetown, and different other centres. One hundred young people, young in spirit, gathered for an afternoon of social intercourse. It was a happy time, old acquaintances were renewed and new ones made and a spirit of goodwill prevailed throughout.

A lively game of baseball, refereed by Rev. H. E. Campbell, and made lively by the fair sex batters who showed the boys how to hit the leather covered sphere proved quite interesting.

About six-thirty the cloths were spread on the grass and a bountiful supper partaken of by all. A sandwich shower donated by a lady from Suffock was novel and humorous.

After all had been cleared away a platform was erected and decorated and graced by the following: Rev. H. E. Campbell, chairman for the debate, Resolved That Modern Amusements are beneficial to young people. The first speaker James MacConnell, of Georgetown opened the debate with a splendid introduction and a fitting tribute to Lot 49, of which she is well deserving. That Mr. MacConnell is a shining light in the field of oratory for which he received first place was quite evident and voiced by many. Miss Catherine MacLean of Charlottetown, followed and stood shoulder to shoulder with her opponent. Her speech was clear cut, well finished, teeming with subject matter delivered in well chosen English in a pleasing voice.

Waldron Levers, of Georgetown, followed this lady speaker and caused everyone to sit up and listen as he told us modern amusements are bringing a fearful ending. That Georgetown has boys that can talk is quite evident. We would like to hear from you again boys.

Miss Emily Platts, of Charlottetown was the next speaker. Miss

Platts with her calm and dignified manner delivered a timely speech on the negative side of the question and right here we are going to say to the boys you will have to work to keep ahead of the girls.

Mr. Edison Smith of Pownal, followed for the affirmative, with a well coached speech, containing many splendid arguments in defence of modern amusements.

Mr. Wylie Gibson, of Marshfield, was the last but not least speaker, he was well received as he opened his remarks with a mixture of humor and reason which caused the starless atmosphere to evaporate and those present to listen with rapt attention to this well thought out speech in which the speaker deplored the amusements of the present day via, prize fights, the movies and those others. The judges were Mrs. J. A. Andrew, Marshfield, Mr. C. Laverne, Montreal and J. A. Moore city. After a few moments hesitation gave the decision fifty-fifty. P.
