"Our big 'stock-taking' sale of second-hand pianos, organs and sewing machines has been the greatest success of any sale we've ever attempted. People purchased from Tignish and all the way down to Souris. Upon receipt of their purchases, one man wrote in: 'The values are better than you said.' Another wrote: 'Would have had the instrument before now if I ever dreamt of such values.' So, on it goes—enquiring and then buying. There's an end to everything, and this sale positively ends the last day of January. Now is your time—right now. Miller Bros., 123 Kent Street, Charlottetown. 1-25-dr-3-1.

ance will mark a new era in the history of the people's best liked form of entertainment. As Joshua Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead," Denman Thompson created a character which will live as long as the nation; his homely wit and tender pathos drew forth smiles and tears from three generations, and now at the zenith of his artistic standing none will deny him the mantle of the late Joseph Jefferson. Every lover of the true and the beautiful in life and in art must pay tribute to Denman Thompson, and his forthcoming performances should each end in a rousing ovation for the veteran historian.

Vaudeville is merciless in its demand for change at every angle, and that's why the remainder of the bill on which Mr. Thompson is the headliner calls for such novelty.

Andy Rice, the jestive Hebrew parodist and yarn manufacturer, will be the main reliance of the management, and the management's confidence will not be misplaced. A year ago, Rice was a wandering minstrel in obscure places, but his talents soon found him out, and today he enjoys a salary equal to that of the Mayor of New York City. Aptly termed, "A Sextette of Stylish Steppers," the Six American Dancers will contribute an original terpsichorean effort, while the three Keatons, Joe, Myra and Buster, will contribute much fun of the old Harrigan and Hart type. Entertainment will also be provided by Roboldillo, the famous slack wire comedian, who risks his life daily doing seemingly impossible feats in mid-air; La Petite Mignon, the pocket edition mimic, who wins all by the accuracy of her imitations; the Camille Trio, grotesque adepts on the horizontal bars; the Juggling Bannons, about the best in their line, and the new Keith and Proctor motion pictures.

KEITH & PROCTOR'S
FIFTH AVE. THEATRE
New York, Week of January 31st, 1910.

The event of the year in vaudeville occurs at the Fifth Avenue Theatre during the week of January 31st, when Messrs. Keith and Proctor proudly announce a week's engagement of "Denman Thompson in 'Joshua Whitcomb.'" The sketch is the one upon which "The Old Homestead" was founded, and was Thompson's first stepping stone to the glorious successes of his long career on the American stage. This grand old artist will appear only for a few weeks in vaudeville, but his appearance will be a great event.

ELECTION CARD
To the Electors of Charlottetown, Ladies and Gentlemen,—Yielding to the earnest solicitation of a large number of influential citizens, I have consented to nominate for the office of Mayor of Charlottetown. As I have served for six years as a City Councillor I feel that I am conversant with the conduct of civic affairs. I am, and always have been in favor of the progress and improvement of our city, by every possible means consistent with reasonable economy in expenditure and due regard for the rights and wishes of the taxpayers. I am a strong advocate of ballot voting in civic elections, and of such other progressive measures as the tax-payers may deem essential to placing our city in line with the most up-to-date communities.
I am a candidate for the Mayorality, not of my own initiative, but at the request of a large number of the influential tax-payers and if you do me the honor of electing me I shall devote such ability and energies I possess to the honest administration of this honorable and important trust, to the cause of good civic government and the advancement of our city. As the time is short it will be impossible for me to make a general personal canvass, I therefore take this opportunity to earnestly solicit your votes, and influence in the coming civic election.
Thanking you for past favors, and in the full confidence of receiving your hearty support, I remain,
Yours Faithfully,
CHARLES LYONS.
