THE RECENT STORM IN ST. JOHN, N.B.

ST. JOHN, Nov. 1.—The big storm of Tuesday night did an immense amount of damage around the city, principally along the water front, where a number of the wharves had the top planking lifted and in many cases carried away altogether. The Ballast wharf owned by the Dominion Government suffered the most as it was right in the path of the wind and acted as a breakwater for those further up in the harbor. The wind and waves together lifted the big timbers and flung some of them into the Kennedy slip between that wharf and the sugar refinery. Three of the cars standing on the rails were completely wrecked, the big timbers from the wharf lifting them off the tracks and overturning them while five other cars were derailed. The harbor end of this wharf was practically all washed away and it will be a big job to put it in shape again. The track around the shore of Courtenay Bay was in many places badly twisted by the waves and it will be impossible to send cars around this branch for a few days.

The residents of Navy Island felt the full force of the storm. The waves washed clear over it and carried away everything that was loose. A large shed owned by A. Lamoreaux in which was stored a lot of gear broke away and went out with the tide and has not been recovered. The damage done will probably reach an amount between fifty and seventy-five thousand dollars. The Dominion Government was the heaviest loser as their loss will reach into the vicinity of $50,000. On the West Side the loss at the Bufferyn Breastworks will be about $15,000. Negrotown Light House about $1,000, shed at No. 15 berth $500, Partridge Island Wharf, $1,000; at Courtenay Bay about $300 damage was done to the breakwater; at the Ballast Wharf the damage to the wharf itself will be between $10,000 and $20,000, damage to the track and cars will probably be $1,000 and damage to the track around Courtenay Bay will very likely reach $5,000.

The city loss will very likely reach $10,000. Among the heaviest private losses are: Leonard Fisheries, $1,000; H. P. Robertson, $1,000 and George Dick, between $500 and $1,000.

WASHINGTON NOW ON WATER WAGGON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—At midnight Wednesday the national capital went dry. Among the establishments going out of business, under the terms of the Sheppard prohibition law, are several which served during a historic existence of more than half a century as familiar meeting places for prominent political figures of past generations. Washington is planning a farewell celebration, and the usual carnival scenes probably will be enacted as the closing hour approaches.

ONT. LIBERALS SHOW RIGHT SPIRIT

HAMILTON, Ont. Nov. 3.—Ontario Liberalism as represented in the remarkable convention of men and women held here today, stands positively and enthusiastically for Canadian co-operation of political parties in the supreme national obligation of placing all the resources of the Dominion behind patriotic determination to fight for humanity the war is won. It demands the conscription of manpower, of money-power, of the entire energies, abilities and resources of the nation. When in turn, General S. C. Meuburn, Hon. Frank Carvell and Hon. N. W. Rowell were escorted to the platform, the convention rose and cheered again and again. Each of the new ministers, Messrs. Meuburn, Carvell and Rowell, speaking in turn, had his message. Each was greeted with enthusiasm. "Fighting Frank" Carvell was introduced by "chairman G. G. S. Lindsay" as "the hero of a hundred fights" and it was minutes actual minutes, before he could proceed. But the ministers, like their audience, were serious and earnest. Meuburn spoke first, making his maiden political speech. But it was not politics. It was straight plain talk. He did not hesitate to condemn certain acts in the war administration of his immediate predecessors. He believed that "grave mistakes had been made from the outset in the way of our recruiting."

HATS AND HAIR.

Keep your hat off as much as possible. Hair cannot lie too easily or too loosely for its own well being and that of the nerves of the head. Anything like pressure, heat or strain about the head inflicts injury on the brain and the finest part of the nervous system. Pulling the hair up too tightly from the back of the head and the ears will cause the glands of the neck to swell in an ugly and uncomfortable manner. Notice what a relief it is to take all the hairpins out and let the hair hang loosely for a few hours. With an easy, artistic and natural hair dressing, nervousness will disappear and headaches will become unknown. It is not only beneficial to the growth of the hair but, also, to the nerves of the head, to wear the hair tied with a ribbon at the nape of the neck, free of hair pins, whenever you are studying or writing or using your brain more than ordinarily.

ISLANDERS IN MESOPOTAMIA

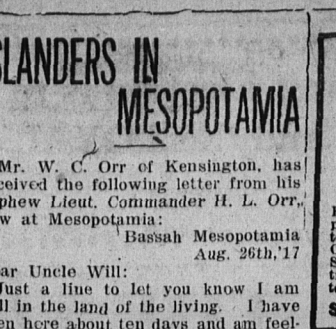

—Mr. W. C. Orr of Kensington, has received the following letter from his nephew Lieut. Commander H. L. Orr, now at Mesopotamia: Bassah Mesopotamia, Aug. 26th, 1917. Dear Uncle Will: Just a line to let you know I am still in the land of the living. I have been here about ten days and am feeling fine, though the weather is very hot, both day and night. 125 in the shade is quite common. I may say that the day we anchored at the head of the Persian Gulf, seven men died from the heat, and they were buried in the sea, so that they were buried in the sea, what a hot country this is. Well, I have made a short trip up the river to a place called Kurma, supposed to be the original site of the Garden of Eden. It is where the Tigris and Euphrates rivers flow into the Shatt-al-Arab. I took a walk through the garden and to me it is just the same as any other place on the river. I did not see any trace of Adam or Eve, but I firmly believe they were black people, as this is no white man's country, and the customs of the people here have not changed since the days of Moses, or even before him, but I will see more as time goes on. The steamer I am on is a large side-paddle wheeler and was captured from the Turks in the last advance and she was full of wounded and prisoners, a most terrible sight. I am told there are plenty of shot holes on her at any rate. Now Uncle, I will not write any more just now, but hope you are all well, and remember me to all the old friends. Write soon, from your loving nephew, H. L. ORR, Lieut.-Commander, I.W.V.R.E.

CLEAR PROOF.

He wanted to borrow a hundred of me. He said he was broke, but the fact that he wanted to borrow a hundred for me is proof that the fellow was cracked. 1034-11-6Mts69.
