WHY NOT TRY MULGRAVE.

Sir,—As I observe you are very much interested in continuous steam communication with the outside world, and as our winter port, Pictou, is blockaded and no chance for raising the siege, is it not time for trying some other port.

Angus N. McDonald's condition was somewhat improved yesterday and strong hopes of his recovery are entertained.

The second train to arrive from Tignish for the last seventeen days reached here yesterday at 11.55 a. m. It was subsequently decided to leave on return west at 1 p. m. Several passengers detained here boarded the train at the station, but just about starting time another storm came up and the train was cancelled.

BEDEQUE NEWS:—Frank and Mrs. McCallum have gone to the Northwest with a view of settling there. Bedeque has its full share of snow and the grip.—Mrs. Chas. Muttart who has been ill for the last fortnight is, it is pleasing to learn, better and able to be up again.—Miss Ella Leard, Augustine Cove is visiting at Louis Leard's.—The ice between here and Summerside is hardly fit to travel on owing to so much snow on it.

FACIAL PARALYSIS

Mr. W. J. BURNHAM, Western Hill, St. Catharines, Ont., writes: "My face was all twisted out of shape with facial paralysis, and five doctors failed to cure or even relieve. By the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I have been entirely cured and have returned to work strong and well. I have gained in weight and feel that I have a new lease of life."

JUDGE FITZGERALD'S LECTURE

Judge Fitzgerald's lecture to have been given at St. Dunstons last night is postponed for a week.

In connection with the oyster market, the following paragraph from the Fishing Gazette is of interest: A firm in Missouri has lately been inquiring in the New York market for "Malpeque" oysters, said to be used in the Waldorf-Astoria.

AMHERST NEWS:—The pluck shown by the Abegweits in coming to Amherst almost entitles them to victory. They left Charlottetown last Friday morning and owing to the blockade on the railway were compelled to drive thirty-two miles to Cape Traverse. From Cape Traverse to Cape Tormentine a distance of about thirteen miles, they walked part of the distance. When Cape Tormentine was reached they found there was no train connections and had to hire teams to drive to Port Elgin, a distance of twenty miles in a raging snow storm. They left Port Elgin about 11 o'clock Saturday night and reached Amherst at five Sunday morning.

THE prize shoot of the Montgomery Rifle Association of Murray Harbor South took place at their range on the 15th inst. The day being fine, a good attendance was present. The competition for first place was very keen, but the greatest excitement prevailed when those who were tied had to shoot over again to decide which was to have the prize. The results were as follows:

- 1 Prize, Fletcher Jordan; 2 " John Davey; 3 " Reuben Penny; 4 " Eben Jackson; 5 " Colin White; 6 " James McNeill; 7 " Percy White; 8 " Horace Hyde; 9 " Montford Herring; 10 " William Ritzhard; 11 " Willie Harris; 12 " Wallace White; 13 " Fred Davey.

After the shoot the competitors returned to their homes well pleased with their day's sport.

—Prince Edward Council Royal Arcanum will meet tonight in K. P. Hall, Brock Block at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

—The plan for the Gibson Pictures in the Opera House on March 3rd opens Tuesday morning next. The pictures which will be represented by well known ladies and gentlemen, will be interspersed by an unusually interesting program.
