QUALITY—IS THE KEYNOTE

• Canadians accept well-established brand names and trademarks as protection in value-buying. This is especially wise in wartime, when the goods you buy must wear for a long time.

WARRANTED HIGH GRADE PENMANS KNIT-GOODS

Today, as always, the famous Penmans trademark—the Pen-Angle—is a guarantee of the quality you know and trust in Knit Wear . . . Underwear, Hosiery, Outerwear. Buy carefully. Conserve what you buy.

You will probably find the quantity, styles and patterns of Penmans knit wear somewhat limited, for purposes of wartime economy. However, deliveries of available supply will be maintained as fairly as possible through dealers to consumers.

THE GOVT. AND LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Sir, — On Sept. 12th., during the sessions of the General Council of the United Church of Canada, a delegation of six members was sent to Ottawa to interview the Government with reference to wartime restrictions on the liquor traffic. The deputation was introduced by very Rev. J. W. Woodside of Ottawa and was courteously, even cordially received by the Prime Minister and Hon. T. A. Crerar and Hon. J. T. Thorson, Dr. John Coburn was appointed to present the resolutions of the council and to outline the argument in their support which was as follows:

The Prime Minister was reminded that on two occasions in July, 1940, and in October, 1941, representatives of the leading churches in Canada, Protestant and Roman Catholic, had appeared before the Government and urged as a wartime measure that certain restrictions be placed upon the use of intoxicating beverages. The Government had replied, refusing the request, and giving two main reasons for such refusal, namely, provincial rights and the absence of any emergency so serious as to warrant interference by the Dominion Government. The Prime Minister was frankly told that this reply was wholly inadequate and unsatisfactory. It was submitted that the numerous ways in which the Dominion Government, under the War Measures Act, had invaded provincial jurisdiction made the plea of provincial rights in this matter no longer tenable. As to the existence and seriousness of a National emergency the following facts were cited.

(1) The enormous waste of money needed for war purposes. Canada's liquor bill in 1942 is expected to be not less than $290,000,000.

(2) The waste of large quantities of materials used in the manufacture of liquor much of which could

Voice Warm Appreciation of ADC Efforts

The following appreciative letter is self explanatory:

Office of
The Air Officer Commanding
Eastern Air Command R.C.A.F.
Halifax, N.S., October 10th, 1942.

Mr. G. T. Hardie,
ADC Regional Director,
Charlottetown, P.E.I.
Dear Mr. Hardie:—

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the very valuable assistance rendered by the Charlottetown Post of the Aircraft Detection Corps to the Grumman Goose aircraft conveying Major-General J. Knox of the A.T.S., and staff, from Charlottetown to Halifax, when it forced landed in Charlottetown Harbour with engine trouble.

The Commanding Officer, R.A.F. Station, Charlottetown, has forwarded a report in which he speaks in the highest terms of the rapidity and efficiency with which your observers took the matter in hand. It is felt that this action on the part of your post gave the assistance necessary in time to prevent damage to the aircraft and possible injury and inconvenience to the passengers.

The manner in which this action was undertaken indicates a high standard of organization and great keenness on the part of the members of your post.

Yours sincerely,
..(signed) A. A. L. CUFFE
Air Vice-Marshal.

Plans For Ceremonial Are Complete

A mammoth parade of two sections—military and civilian, headed by a bearer with the Commando dagger will march to the accompaniment of a squadron of Royal Air Force planes to the Charlottetown Forum on Sunday afternoon where the ceremonial inaugurating the third Victory Loan campaign will be held. Close to 1500 persons will take part in the parade and it is expected thousands of citizens will be present in the Forum to witness the ceremony.

Arrangements were completed at a meeting in City Hall last night.

A feature of the parade will be the appearance of an Artillery half-section from Halifax. This will be a mobile unit and will be included in the military section. It will consist of an officer, a sergeant, ten gunners and some mechanized equipment. There will also be two Bren Gun carriers in the parade.

One of the highlights on the program in the Forum will be an address by Flt.-Sgt. Hinson A. MacLeod, R.A.F., formerly of O'Leary, who returned recently from overseas. He was shot down over the Bay of Biscay losing most of his right hand but managed to get safely back to England. Now he is to be attached to the Ferry Command. He was a divinity student before his enlistment and is a son of Rev. A. MacLeod of O'Leary. He will arrive here from Ottawa on Saturday.

The time for those taking part in the parade to assemble, civilians at the Market Square and military at the Armouries, has been advanced 15 minutes. Civilians are requested to be at Market Square at 2 p.m. and the military at the Armouries at 2 p.m. also. Both parades will move off at 2.15 and will join at City Hall. Those taking part are requested to note this change in time.

Four bands will accompany the parade. These are: the combined R.C.N.V.R. bugle band and Sea Cadet band, and the R.A.F. pipe band with the military section of the parade; the No. 62 C.A.B.T.C. band, and the Charlottetown Girl's band with the civilian section.

Units included in the military part of the parade, which will be led by Lt.-Col. F. I. Andrew, M.M., are: Charlottetown Sea Cadet Corps "Kent"; 17th Reserve Armoured Regiment, P.E.I. Light Horse; 204th Field Artillery (Reserve), R.C.A.; No. 6 District Signals, R.C.C.S.; Royal Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force; No. 60 Squadron, Air Cadets of Canada; Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve; Guard of Honour from R.C.N.V.R., which will be with the Commando dagger; St. Dunstan's Canadian Officers Training Corps, and a detachment from No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Corps.

Organizations to form the civilian section, to be led by Mr. J. F. Leightezer, are: Canadian Legion; Canadian Red Cross Corps; Girl Guides; Charlottetown Fire Department; A.R.P. including the medical service section under Dr J.A. McMillan.

Planes Circling City

Group Captain E.A. Blake, O.B.E., M.M., Officer Commanding No. 31 General Reconnaisance School, Charlottetown Airport, has arranged to have 12 Anson bombers of the R.A.F. circling the city in formations of three when the parade is in progress.

The program at the Forum will get underway at three o'clock. A very impressive program has been prepared for the occasion. The highlight of it will be the presentation of the Commando dagger to His Worship, Mayor B. Roy Holman by an Officer of the R.C.N.V.R. Guard of Honour who will have previously received it from Deputy Mayor James T. McKee on the steps of City Hall.

His Honor, Lieutenant Governor B.W. LePage is scheduled to arrive at the Forum at three o'clock. He will be the first to leave the building at the conclusion of program and will take the salute on the steps of City Hall when the parade passes on the return march.

Program

The program includes: Prayer for His Majesty by Capt., the Rev. Canon E.M. Malone; address by Governor LePage; Hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," by the Crusaders Chorus of 80 voices; address by Flt.-Sgt. Hinson MacLeod; band selection by No. 62 C.A.B.T.C. band; Hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" by chorus; address by a representative of the Provincial Government; address by Hon. Dr. W.J.P. McMillan, and the recitation of the Victory Loan pledge by Mayor Holman.

The public may enter and leave by the main entrance or the side entrance of the building. The parade will wait until everybody has left the Forum before it comes out for the return march. Smoking is absolutely prohibited in the Forum.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police in their scarlet tunics will be on duty in the Forum while the City Police will patrol the route of march to and from the building.

At the close of the meeting the vice-chairman, Lt.-Col. D.A. MacKinnon, D.S.O., spoke briefly expressing thanks to the members of the committee in charge of the arrangements for their splendid co-operation.

It was announced that a rehearsel of the ceremony would take place Saturday morning for the members of the committee in charge of the arrangements.

His Worship Mayor B. Roy Holman presided.

HEALTH REPORT — There were two cases of infantile paralysis reported in Charlottetown in September, Dr. B.C. Keeping, Deputy Minister of Health revealed in a report given to the City Council Wednesday night. In a section dealing with venereal diseases the report indicated seven new cases had been reported during September. A total of 32 cases were treated. The vital statistics report indicated 68 births, 20 deaths and 22 marriages in Charlottetown in September.

POLICE REPORT — Chief of Police A. Birtwistle said in a report to the City Council for the month of September his force had made 28 arrests. Fifteen were drunks, one was insane and four were vagrants. There were five prosecutions under the Prohibition Act for unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor and one under the Excise Act for unlawful possession of spirits. Prohibition fines collected amounted to $355 while Excise fines were $103. Other fines and costs totalled $159.

SPENT SUMMER HERE —Mr. Samuel Coffing, who has spent the summer at his old home at Savage Harbour, P. E. Island, returned to Boston yesterday. He was accompanied to Moncton by his two daughters, Mrs. Pickard of Savage Harbour and Mrs. Elsie Lindberg of Boston. Mr. Coffing who is 95 years old, sprucely boarded the T.C.A. plane at Moncton with Mrs. Lindberg with whom he resides. Mrs. Lindburg owns and operates a fine hospital on Summit Ave., Brookline, Mass.

PARTRIDGE SEASON OPENS—Sportsmen in all parts of the province were out yesterday gunning for the partridge as the 1942 season opened. Both the Hungarian and native partridge were menaced by the hunters as the two-week season got underway. However, according to reports in the city last night most of the sportsmen returned home with little to show for their day's work. Some failed to shoot a single bird while a few got one or two after traversing much of the countryside. Most of those who tried yesterday are comforted with the thought that there is still plenty of time for bagging a few partridge before the season ends, however.

DIED IN CHARLOTTETOWN.— The death occurred in Charlottetown, P. E. I., on Oct. 10th of Mrs. Amanda Jones, widow of Theodore Jones, of Burden, N. B., aged 84 years. Deceased lived at Burden for years and also with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Garriety, South Devon, for many years and she made many friends there. When Mrs. Garrity removed to Prince Edward Island her mother accompanied her and made her home with her until she died on Saturday. She made many friends in Charlottetown who regret her death. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Garrity. The body arrived here Monday night and was taken to the home of Mrs. Charles Morgan, 321 Church street, where it rested until this afternoon when service was conducted by Rev. A. B. Gibson and internment made in Burden Cemetery.— Fredrecton Gleaner.

SERVICE HELD— The Autumn thank offering service of the Women's Missionary Aid Society of the Baptist Church was held in the school room on Wednesday evening of this week with the President Mrs. T. G. Ives in the chair. After the reading of suitable scripture selections and comments by the leader, Mrs. I. J. Levy led in prayer. The address was given by Miss MacDougall, deaconess of Trinity United Church, who brought to the meeting a very helpful and inspiring message. The music included two vocal solos, very acceptably rendered by Mrs. Roy Cudmore and Mrs. Hector Collier accompanied on the piano by Prof. John Inch. A reading was also given by Mrs. A. K. McPhee. There was a good attendance and a substantial offering was taken for missions.

Hospital Bazaar In Full Swing

Another large crowd, bolstered by members of the Armed Forces as guests, attended the fourth night of the annual Charlottetown Hospital bazaar in the Sporting Club last night. The entertainment is in full swing now and will wind up on Saturday night when $650 will be given away in prizes.

Mr. George Gormley, 30 Union Street, City, was the lucky winner of the door prize last night which was a pair of gent's shoes donated by Howard McInnis Shoe Store. The chicken dinner, lottered each evening, went to Mrs. Albert E. Wilson, City. Miss Marjorie Gallant was the winner of the quilt which was given away.

Once again those in attendance were treated to a program of music and singing. Mr. A. L. MacDonald, the genial master of ceremonies, was in charge of the program which featured the singing of Charlie Chamberlain and the music of Don Messer.

Bingo, wheels of fortune, dart games and other amusements provided entertainment for the customers. Those present also had an opportunity of buying some fancy work and home-made cooking which was a credit to the ladies who prepared the work.

103 Soldiers Leave Prov.

Before leaving they were presented with cigarettes by the Provincial Government through the Carry On Canada Corps. The presentations were looked after by a representative of the Canadian Legion War Services.

Evidence Concluded In Hit-Run Case

Evidence was concluded yesterday in the case of Clarence Sanderson, charged with hit and run driving, when the defendant took the stand in his own behalf. The hearing was before Stipendiary Magistrate G.J. Tweedy.

The case was further adjourned until Monday afternoon when argument will be heard and judgment given.

Sanderson testified that he heard a "scraping" noise when he passed the bus at Southport. When Doran Hynes, another passenger told witness, who was driving the car that the bus was moving, he thought everything was all right and kept going. The rest of his evidence about his movements on the night in question were the same as given by previous witnesses.

The case arose out of an accident several weeks ago in which Mrs. Stella Duffy received two broken legs when struck by a car as she was waiting for a bus at Southport.

Mr. Lester O'Donnell appeared for the defendant while Sgt. W.H. Engel, R.C.M.P. handled the case for the prosecution.

These Six Words Describe a Wartime Duty That Every Good Citizen is Glad to Face

The fact remains and cannot be dodged, that we as civilians can help win the war by buying only when it is necessary and then buying only longer-lasting products. For the longer an article lasts the less often it needs to be replaced, resulting in a saving of our country's raw materials—a saving in factory facilities and labour. Also remember that buying for longer service is an economy.
