

THREE DOSES RELIEVE 33 YEAR OLD COUGH

It just looks as if BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE took a special pride in "knocking the stuffing" out of tough old coughs that have successfully defied other cough remedies for years and years.

"For 33 years I have had a chronic cough and when I catch cold I cough something terrible. I always had to have a Doctor to break it up, but I was told to try BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE, and it sure does the trick. About three doses gives me relief."

CHAPTER 28 A TWINGE OF CONSCIENCE When Barstow had gone away to permit Jeanne to dress for the ride down to his family's country...

"I shall be delighted," Jeanne accepted, rather puzzled by the girl's friendly overture. Could she, like Adele Parkinson, think it the part of discretion to ally herself with the enemy?

She had always been cold. From her earliest girlhood, she had ridden her ambition mercilessly. The attainment of wealth and is accompanying luxury was the god to which she made her oblation.

When Barstow arrived, Jeanne went forward smilingly to greet him. He took her carefully by her bare shoulders so as not to crush her gown and drew her under the lamp.

"You beautiful creature!" he murmured. "I can't believe that you are really going to be mine. Tell me I'm not dreaming, Jeanne!"

"Thank Heaven for that!" she replied lightly. "I can't fancy anything that would bore me more than a husband with a spotless past!"

Spain's Diplomats Learn Spain's group of candidates for diplomatic posts which were sent to European cities and to Geneva to get first hand information, have been in Geneva where they studied the League of Nations.

The maid came in answer to her summons and began immediately on her hair while Jeanne's slim fingers went swiftly among the fragrant appointments of her dressing table. Powder, a mere touch of lip rouge, perfume, a bit of polish to her nails.

It was Vera Dayton, the far-away voice explained. She was talking from her home. She had been so sorry to leave the Forbes' in that breathless fashion the day before without adequate farewell.

THAT THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

(A column of interest to all recording accepted facts and worthy opinions regarding the place of alcoholic beverages in modern life; as well as news of the progress of the campaign for a "dry" world.)

W. C. T. U. Notes

He stood upon the world's broad threshold; wide The din of battle and of slaughter rose; He saw God stand upon the weaker side

Why did the two Carolinas vote to keep prohibition? Raleigh, N.C.—Howdy, Jim. Goin' to town?

It was a custom of the Spartans to occasionally send a drunken slave (not a free citizen) through the city streets to give the young men an object lesson in the disgusting shamefulness and social degradation of intemperance.

The Man-Trap "All my life I have lived in the presence of fine and beautiful men going to their death because of alcohol. I call it the greatest trap that life has set for the feet of genius; and I record my opinion that the prohibition amendment is the greatest step in progress taken by America since the freeing of the slave."

Life-Saving There seems to be no reason why the dry should not note the tremendous drop in the death rate during the prohibition period as compared with earlier years, amounting to well over 300 points on the death rate, and indicating a reduction in deaths considerably over two million.

Clear reason knows what road to choose, Though appetite may lead to Boos.

NARCOTICS—STUMBLING BLOCK There is a verse in Matthew 16, the words of Christ Himself, which reads thus—"Who shall offend one of these little ones who believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depths of the sea."

stumbling block. As one interested in athletics and a member of a basketball team, I see this habit has grown among young people to alarming proportions.

It is stated that if all the cigarettes smoked by the boys of America last year, were placed end to end, they would reach around the world twice and from San Francisco to New York and back again.

I know W.C.T.U. women do not place these stumbling blocks in the way of our boys and girls, but if we know the danger and do not sound the warning, I feel we are as guilty as those who set the example.

EDNA F. GRANT, Prov. Supt. of Anti-Narcotics

While a very small percentage of United Church ministers are known to use cigarettes or tobacco in any form, most of the congregation are said to be decidedly adverse to pastors with this 'objected-to' habit and will decline to accept or retain the leadership of ministers who use the noxious weed.

DRYS SEND LETTER TO MRS. ROOSEVELT Chattanooga, Ten., Dec. 29.—(A.P.)—Mrs. Minnie Allison Welsh, president of the Tennessee W.C.T.U., said recently the organization had approved a letter sent to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt by a number of girls of Chattanooga regarding a recent statement of Mrs. Roosevelt's views about prohibition.

The letter said in part that "we are wholly unable to understand how there can be a 'proper quantity' of whiskey or gin or any other alcoholic beverage which citizens of the United States may drink without committing to violate the organic and statutory laws of our nation."
