THURSDAY
—PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Miss Eliza Gay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Gay of Summerside, met with a very painful accident last Saturday afternoon. She was climbing a cherry tree in Mr. H. H. Lefurgey's garden when a limb broke and she fell several feet to the ground, dislocating her shoulder and also breaking the bone of the arm above the elbow.

SUCCESSFUL P. E. I. BOY.—“Pleasant Hours,” a young people's periodical published in Toronto, recently offered prizes for the first, second and third best essays on “Our Canadian trees and their uses.” The issue of July 20th publishes the result of the competition together with the prize winning essays. The third prize was won by Master Russell Leard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Leard, Souris. His essay is a very creditable one and compares very favorably with those which captured the first and second prizes. He is only 14 years of age. The Guardian heartily congratulates him on his very excellent essay.

On Tuesday July 4th, at his home at Black Pond, P. E. I. there passed peacefully away to his eternal reward, Stewart S. Ching, dearly beloved son of Mrs. Eliza Ching, at the early age of 25 years and six months. The deceased had been sick for several months and bore his illness patiently. Despite all that loving hands could do to restore to health their loved one, he gently fell asleep to awake in the likeness of Him in that land where there is no night. Stewart was a young man possessed of an exceptionally kind and cheerful disposition which gained for him a large circle of friends and acquaintance. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing mother, four brothers and one sister.

In the absence of his pastor the funeral service was conducted by Rev. A. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Souris. The remains were conveyed to South Lake Cemetery where all that was mortal of one loved by all was laid to rest. (Patriot please copy.)

FRIDAY
HORSE NOTE.—Mr. John A. Boates, Gtne Valley, reports an exceptionally pretty filly sired by the standard bred trotting stallion Bottom. The dam of this filly is by French Alright and is 26 years and 4 months old. This filly is not large, but or style she is in a class by herself.

DIED IN WINNIPEG.—Mr. Samuel Mcnavon, of this city received a telegram Wednesday from Winnipeg conveying the sad news of the somewhat sudden death in that city of his daughter Victoria, Mrs. Earl Doty. It is six years ago since she left Charlottetown. Her mother was with her at the time of her death. Besides her husband and parents she leaves two children to mourn.

WILTSHIRE WHISPERS.—A correspondent writes from North Wiltshire:—A trip by auto from Charlottetown to North Wiltshire Station and vicinity at this season of the year is all that any “sport” can desire. The crops of all kinds are looking splendid and all indications are for a good harvest.—The potato bug, the horn fly and summer tourists are also here but not in such large numbers as former years.—Eldon Campbell of the P. E. I. Railway, Borden is spending a few weeks of a well earned vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, Darlington. He owns a brand new Chevrolet car. How sweet the girls do glance and smile at Eldon these days.—Mrs. Neil Campbell and daughter Lucy M., are staying at Mr. D. E. Campbell's, Darlington for a few days.—Mr. Neil Campbell, city, passed through North Wiltshire on his way to Halifax, N. S.—Mr. Charles Clow from St. Vincent, Minn., is visiting friends at North Wiltshire.—Mr. J. Russell Clarke, wife and two children from Swift Current are also here. Mr. Clarke is a hustling energetic young man and has made good in the West, his numerous friends are glad to see him and learn of his success.—I had the great pleasure of a hearty shake hands with the Hon. John Balderston, now in his 88th year. The venerable gentleman, is still hale and hearty and in the enjoyment of good health and vigor.

FRECKLES
 Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With Othine—Double Strength

This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

RETURNED SOLDIERS ARE RE-MEMBERED DAILY.—Arrangements have been completed with the Railway authorities by which transportation for Returned Soldiers attending the celebration on next Monday the 5th, will be provided them free of cost. Any returned soldiers wishing to take advantage of this can get a ticket at any booking station or from the conductor on the train by presenting his identification papers. Returned Soldiers having uniforms are asked to come in in uniforms. They will be met at the station by a Committee of the Great War Veterans and the Army and Navy Associations.

FARM SOLD.—Mrs. Annie McLeod, Darlington, has disposed of her farm to Mr. John Whelan of the same place for the sum of $2400. This is a very choice property being the old home of the late and lamented Rev. A. B. McLeod. All the stock sold at a high figure. Mrs. McLeod has decided to reside in Charlottetown. The auctioneer at this sale was Mr. D. E. Campbell and proved as efficient as ever although he has seen that yonder summer sun twice forty times return.

SOLDIERS ENTERTAINED.—The St. Dunstan's Choral Club accompanied by the League of the Cross Band left the city at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening in autos for the Dalton Sanatorium where they entertained the returned heroes. The band discoursed sweet music for about an hour on the lawn, then all assembled in the Hall. Here the boys and a very large audience from the surrounding country were most enjoyably entertained. The soloists of the evening being Miss Lucy Blanchard, Georgie Kelly, Amy Byrne and Rose Ryan. Rev. Fr. Cullen an old Island boy, who accompanied the Club, spoke a few words, praising the boys for the sacrifices they had made and thanking the young ladies and members of the band for their kindness in providing such a pleasant and profitable evening. Ice cream and cake furnished by the young ladies was then served. The National Anthem brought to a close one of the most enjoyable evenings yet spent at the Sanatorium.

Chicago papers just to hand all give big prominence to the arrival there from Charlottetown of the Columbus caravel, Santa Maria. Interesting pictures are shown of the old ship and extended reports of her wanderings since leaving Chicago. The Chicago Post says:—“The determining factor in bringing the boat back,” said Mr. O'Shaughnessy, today, “was the personal interest taken by President Wilson. Upon being informed of the facts through Secretary Lansing, he took the matter up with the Canadian government, to insure its co-operation in our enterprise. That co-operation has been most hearty.”

MARRIAGE.—St. Dunstan's Cathedral was the scene of an interesting event Wednesday morning, when Miss Sara Harriet Edmonds, daughter of the late Mr. Henry Edmonds, was united in marriage to Mr. James Dalton of the city, by the Rev. Maurice McDonald. The bride was attended by Miss Bessie Sullivan, and the groom by Mr. George McQuaid, of Souris. The bride received many beautiful presents from home and abroad. After the ceremony the happy couple left on the morning express for the Mainland. A host of friends wish them many years of happiness.

President Van Buskirk president at the monthly dinner of the Rotary Club in the Kozey Korner last evening. The President expressed the thanks of the Club to Past President W. H. Tidmarsh for the gift of a handsome silver mounted gavel to the Club. Rotarian Welner presented the Club with a “Big Ben” clock to act as a mechanical “closure” to the luncheon hour. The thanks of the Club were accorded to Rotarian Welner for his thoughtfulness and generosity. A discussion took place on the educational policy of Rotary, and a proposal on the part of headquarters to engage travelling secretaries to visit clubs was approved, on the motion of Vice President Inman seconded by Rotarian Jenkins.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the Navy League intimating that Dr. Hall, organizer of the League expected to be in Charlottetown on August 10 and would be in consultation with the directors of the local branch for the purpose of organization work.

It was arranged to hold the annual picnic at Dalvey on Wednesday next, and committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements.
