On Friday last R. S. and Mrs. Bowness moved into their handsome home on Central St., Summerside. This handsome building is built in colonial cottage style of Island Ruble stone, the first residence of this material built in the Province. Interiorly the building has been faultlessly designed and no expense has been spared to make it an ideal dwelling. The lower floors and stairways are hardwood, the woodwork grained and beautifully finished. A feature of the layout of this dwelling is the fact that in the living rooms and principal bedrooms, the windows facing east, south and west thus getting the full benefit of the sunlight throughout the day. The dwelling is fitted with all modern conveniences, including electric lights, and connection with the water and sewerage system. The plumbing is of the most modern design, a special feature being an adjustable connection between the bath room radiator, and the kitchen by which the former can be heated independently of the general heating system. The building throughout is heated by hot water. This beautiful dwelling was built by M. F. Schurman & Co., the painting of it was done by W. C. Crozier, the plumbing by Thos. Johnston, the plastering by Hedley Brehaut and the mason work by F. G. Bizzard. Mr. and Mrs. Bowness are to be congratulated on their beautiful and cosy residence.
