SOUTH BEDEQUE W. I.

The March meeting of the South Bedeque Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur MacFarlane with the President Mrs. Forbes in charge. Meeting opened with the Institute Ode and after the minutes were read the Roll Call was answered by many witty Irish jokes. Eighteen members and three visitors were present. Six committees reported three boxes of fruit sent and school committees reported that Lower Bedeque School had been cleaned and supplementary readers bought for Fernwood School. Correspondence consisted of thank you letters. One of these was from a man in Hamburg, Germany, to whom a box had been sent and who was most grateful.

The program consisted of a debate on the question "Should we encourage our children to remain on the farm?" The speakers on the Pro side were Mrs. Charles MacFarlane, Mrs. Charles Henderson, Mrs. George Henderson and Mrs. Harrison MacFarlane. Speaking for the Con side were Mrs. Clayton MacClure, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Archie Montgomery and Mrs. Daniel MacClure. Each one spoke three minutes and this was followed by a lively five-minute rebuttal. The men present constituted the judges and they unanimously agreed in favor of the Con side and it was decided that farmers receive so little recompense for their hard work, especially considering the length of their working hours that there is little encouragement for a child to stay on the farm.

A sale of candy netted over four dollars and after a delicious lunch the meeting dispersed. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edwin MacFarlane, if roads are favorable.

LAKEVIEW W. I.

The February meeting of Lakeview Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lyman Rose, with ten members and one visitor present. Meeting was opened with Institute Ode and Creed, followed by roll call and reading of minutes of last meeting. Ten dollars was donated to U.E.F.B. fund. It was decided to make two quilts for Red Cross.

Programme consisted of: Joke, Mrs. Francis Rose; riddles by Mrs. Irving Baker, Mrs. Lloyd Rose; reading, Mrs. Lyman Rose, Mrs. William Baker, and Miss Mabel Rose; contest, Mrs. L. D. Rose. Meeting closed with National Anthem. Next meeting is invited to the home of Mrs. J. E. Dingwell, roll call to be answered by an Irish joke.

LOWER FREETOWN W. I.

The March meeting of the Lower Freetown Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Allison Profit on the afternoon of the 16th, with fifteen members and one visitor present. The president opened the meeting with the Ode and the Creed and the members answered the roll call with "a housecleaning hint."

It was moved that we get several story books for the junior grades to make their work more interesting. Mrs. Redverse Hamill was appointed to see about getting a woman to clean the school. An auction of pieces of print cotton which had been donated to the Institute took place and a tidy sum was realized.

Two very interesting contests were put on by Mrs. Howard Cairns, while next day's program committee is Mrs. F. L. Cairns and Mrs. Elton Cairns.

After singing "The King," the hostess served very delicious refreshments and a pleasant hour was enjoyed chatting over the tea cups. Next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Redverse Hamill, when roll call will be answered by a joke.

WHERE THE SOUTHWEST RIVER GENTLY WENDS ITS WAY

There's a beauty spot that haunts me, the I travel far and wide, And see the sunset crown each closing day. Still, in fancy, there I see, the twilight can'ty nestle down, Where the Southwest River gently wends its way.

There as children, little children, once we played the games we loved, And heard the stories told of Injun braves; And we there unearthed an arrow-head with which these Injuns strove, Where the Southwest River gently wends its way.

O, the scent of pines and spruces like an incense follow me, The whisper of the poplars seems to say, "Tho' the pathways are deserted or by younger feet are trod, Still the Southwest River gently wends its way." As I lay me down to slumber and the clouds go drifting by, The moon recalls the dear old scenes of yore; And I hear our childish laughter as we laughed in days gone by, Where the Southwest River gently laps the shore.

There's a longing, distant longing in my heart this very hour, And I'm looking forward to the one great day When our our earthly cares are over and we'll be at home with God. Where a wider, purer, river wends its way.

— B.M. Wheeler.

(The Southwest River flows into New London Bay).

Is it your breakfast that's wrong?

GALS EVERYWHERE—look this message over. It's built on plain but important facts. Something for your good. How your folks can benefit.

Why Breakfast is Specially Important to YOU

A good breakfast gets you off to a good start for the day. Hard work ahead? At home? At business? Take the nutritionist's tip. (They know.) For mental alertness, getting things done, that first meal of the day is important. Why? Because, for those who eat no breakfast or a poor one, results are fatigue, irritability, lessened efficiency.

Why Grape-Nuts is a Special Breakfast Cereal

Just two tablespoons of delicious Grape-Nuts provide the cereal share of a good breakfast. Golden kernels of whole wheat and malted barley ... good ... good ... good. Fine food values too, because of useful quantities of carbohydrates, proteins, minerals you need. Grand flavour-lift with milk or cream. Grape-Nuts help you to healthful, economical breakfasts.

Galt Gal says "Mighty Handy" "I find Post's Grape-Nuts mighty handy" writes a young lady from Galt, "not only for breakfast, but in all kinds of blen-manges and as toppings for cream pies."
