HOCKEY The newly organized "Bearcats" of Tryon played the opening game of their career on their home rink at North Trfon, Thursday evening, Jan. 27th. Their opponents being the famed "St. Pats" of Albany. The game got away at 8.45, with Lloyd Howatt of the "Arrows" on the whistle. From the very start it showed promise of being the snappiest game of the season. After about thirteen minutes fast play Saunders the fast centre of the "St. Pats" with a wicked shot from the right wing got the rubber past Dawson and bagged the Bearcats net for the opening goal. The game continued to be fast and played ranged from end to end of the rink, with the "Bearcats" working hard to even the tally. About three minutes before the bell, Thomson of the Bearcats nabbed the rubber and in a spectacular end to end rush eluded the St. Pats defense, and the period ended 1-1.

The second period showed some good hockey, but although the "Bearcats" were continually on the offensive, the "St. Pats" defense proved too strong, and this period ended without any change.

They got away for the third with a rush and a bang, both teams working hard to secure a lead. Saunders finally finding the "Bearcats" net with a snappy wing shot. About two minutes later "Rory" with a nifty shot from centre ice evened up the score once more, and excitement on the promenade now became intense. How would it go? Who knows? And many other expressions were heard. The fans roared louder and louder; Saunders went his limit, and had many brilliant rushes to his credit but alas, to no avail, and just one and one half minutes before the final bell Campbell secured the rubber and with a classy play landed it in the Bearcat net, and the game ended 3-2 in favor of the "St. Pats."

NOTES Mabeey in the net, with "Handy Andy" The Oil King proved just one too many for the Bearcats.

Saunders, Mabeey and Noonan are hard men to handle.

Bell is a new man in the game, but a real Bearcat. Rory fought a good fight.

The ice was fine, Cairns knows how to put ice on a rink.

Dawson in the Tryon net fooled the false prophet.

The proprietors of the North Tryon Rink are to be congratulated on the fine open air rink erected by them. It is without doubt the finest in the province. Good ice, warm cosy dressing rooms, and a well stocked refreshment counter all add to the attractiveness of this large and spacious rink.—Wandering Scribe.

IN MEMORIAM JOHN WHITE People in the vicinity of Pownal were surprised on Sunday evening, January 16th, when it was known that the doctor said John White, who had been in failing health could live only a few hours.

His pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan was summoned, who administered to him the sacrament of the church, and shortly after midnight his soul took its departure.

COVEHEAD SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT The annual Sunday school Christmas Tree concert was held in St. James United Church at West Covehead for the two Sunday schools of Covehead and West Covehead on Thursday evening December 16, 1926. The Church, which was being refurbished since last Christmas with new coverings on the seats, painting and decorating etc. looked very well indeed with new Christmas decorations and the usual fine Christmas Tree. The new lights and Pulpit furniture, both gifts during the year to the United Church, added effectively to the fitting appearance of this fine old Church.

A very fine Christmas programme was well rendered by the Sunday school scholars, at the close of which the Good Old Saint himself visited us and distributed presents and candy to the children. He also presented the organist, Mrs. Ina Cary, with a gasoline lamp and a generous remembrance to Rev. Thos. A. and Mrs. Wilson.

The programme was as follows: Christmas Hymn, "Joy to the World," by the choir. Recitation, "Welcome" by Jean MacMillan. Recitation, "The Announcement" by Jean MacMillan. Recitation, "The Xmas Stocking" by Dorothy MacMillan. Christmas Anthem, "The Old Story" by the choir. Recitation, "Tom's Christmas Surprise" by Walter Auld. Recitation, "Baby Santa Claus" by Cyril MacMillan. Recitation, "Advice to Santa" by Erith Hughes. Recitation, "A wish" by Eric MacMillan. Christmas Anthem, "Children's Happy Voices, Junior Choir. Recitation, "Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus" by Erma MacMillan. Recitation, "Charity" by Florence MacMillan. Christmas Anthem, "Zion Bells" by the choir. Recitation, "My First Attempt" by Miriam Hughes. Recitation, "Seen if Not Heard" by Thelma Mearns. Recitation, "A Stitch in Time" by Ivy Hughes. Recitation, "The Three Kings" by Margaret Bearisto. Recitation, "When I Was A Little Boy" by Benson Auld. Recitation, "A Brief Speech" by Allison MacMillan. Recitation, "Why We Hang Our Stockings Up" by Eric Wilson. Solo, "The Guiding Star, Rev. J. A. Wils on. Recitation, "Another Road", by Ella MacMillan. Recitation, "A Christmas Carol" by Nan Auld. Recitation, "Mike's Prayer" by May Hughes. Christmas Anthem, "Bells of Hope" by the choir. Collection and distribution of Candy. Santa Claus and presents. Christmas Hymn, "O Come All Ye Faithful" by All.

NEW DIRECTOR OF THE BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

Mr. Sydney T. Smith, Winnipeg who was elected a Director of the Bank of Nova Scotia at the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders on Wednesday, the 26th. This election is in line with the Banks policy of having resident Directors in the important centres of Canada. Mr. Smith is President, Smith, Murphy & Co., Ltd., Grain Dealers and Exporters, Winnipeg, Man.; President, Reliance Terminal Elevator Co., Ltd., Port William, Ont.; President, Province Elevator Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Man.; President, Smith, Murphy & Co., Inc., New York; Director, Ogdive Flour Mills Co., Ltd., Montreal, etc.

There was laid to rest on December 30th in the Presbyterian cemetery, the remains of Mr. James Ramsay, one of the oldest residents of Tyne Valley. He belonged to a very old family which came from Scotland as far back as 1770. The original pioneers of the Ramsay stock were John Ramsay and his wife who belongs to Argyleshire, Scotland, and who in coming to Canada, settled in the vicinity of Malpeque, where some of the same family still reside. Alexander, son of the above John Ramsay and father of the deceased was a devoted elder of the Tyne Valley Presbyterian Church for many years. He was ever ready to assist in every good object. James, his son, inherited his Scottish loyalty to the Church of his father's, being one of the late managers of the home Church, for many years and took an active part in all that concerned the welfare of his beloved Church. For some years past, owing to failing health he was unable to be in attendance on the church services, but this fact did not seem to loosen his interest in the general welfare of the Church. He was true to all his inherent Scottish training in the Church of his fathers.

He disliked everything that savoured of indifference to sound doctrine. The fashion of the hour had little attraction for him. His strong nature rebelled against a wavering and careless attitude in things spiritual. He joined the Presbyterian church when a young man and throughout his long life, for he was past eighty-two years of age, he maintained his strong allegiance to the Presbyterian church until the end. He was the last of the old Ramsay stock save for the only surviving member, his sister, who is Mrs. Elizabeth Fraser of Belmont, P. E. I.

In politics, Mr. James Ramsay was a staunch Conservative, always following the adventures of his party with keen interest. He was a good churchman, a faithful husband, an affectionate father, and a kind friend. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. A. Brown, M.A., B.D., who spoke in terms of the deceased's work and worth. There was a large representative of the Ramsay family, together with the citizens of Tyne Valley and surrounding districts.

This has passed one of the oldest citizens of Tyne Valley and a link has therefore been broken which binds the true Scottish ties with this Dominion across the seas. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow and the following members of his family, Mr. Alfred Ramsay, N.H., U. S. A.; Spurgeon Ramsay, Tyne Valley; Edmund on the homestead, Tyne Valley; Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Tyne Valley; Mrs. Margaret McNeil, Roxbury, Mass.; Mrs. D. I. McAusland, Marysville, N. B.; Pearl Ramsay, Tyron; Eleanor Ramsay, Boston, Mass.

The following hymns were used at the service: "Nearer My God to Thee"; "The Lord's my Shepherd"; "Peace Perfect Peace."

BANQUET AND PRESENTATION The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bulman, Stanley Bridge, was the scene of a pleasant gathering during the festive season, when the leaders of Stirling Institute gave a banquet to their husbands and friends, as well as to do honour to one of their officers in the person of Mrs. J. R. Stewart, Past President. The gathering was called to order by the President who after a few brief remarks extended on behalf of the members a hearty welcome to all. The programme opened with the singing of the Ode and "It's a good time to get Acquainted", then the following address was read and presentation made to Mrs. Stewart of an ebony brush and comb, to which she very graciously replied. Programme as follows: Solo by Mrs. Clarence Reid, accompanied by Mrs. Leander Reid, (encored). Instrumental music by Mrs. Quinn accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Leander Reid, (encored). Reading by Mrs. Pendergast, (encored). Recitation by Miss Gertrude Clark, (encored). Solo by D'Arcy Fleming, (encored). Instrumental music by Mrs. J. M. Quinn, (encored). Solo by Robert Lamont Lochangar, (encored). Solo by Evelyn Anderson accompanied by C. Horton, (encored). Recitation by Miss Gertrude Clark, Singing "Old Folks at Home", Recitation by Robert Lamont, Ben Pirrie, (encored). Recitation by a murderer, Duet by Robert Lamont and Joseph Reid, "You'll Miss Me When I'm Gone", instrumental music by Mrs. Quinn and Mrs. Leander Reid. Much credit must be given Mr. Robert Lamont our veteran performer who helped so much toward the evening's entertainment. The music on the harmonica by John Folland was a treat as also the accompaniment by Joseph Gallant on the trombones. After a hearty vote of thanks being presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bulman for their kind hospitality to the Stirling Institute in the giving of their home so many times for their entertainments to which Mr. Bulman on behalf of himself and Mrs. Bulman fittingly replied, and after which was pronounced. The singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King brought to a close a very pleasant evening.

The Address read as follows: Dear Mrs. Stewart At this time of the year, when friends throughout the land are wishing each other the compliments of the season, we the members of Stirling Institute, think it fitting to extend to you that greeting in a particular manner, as past president of our Institute, and, at the same time add a few words of appreciation.

Besides presiding at our meetings so efficiently, you have done every thing possible to make them pleasant, as well as profitable. In any work undertaken and when our efforts were successful it was mainly due to your zeal and co-operation. Here we might mention the work of the "Dental Clinic", in which you took such a deep and active interest, giving much of your time, that all children in the districts might receive treatment.

As a companion, we found you genial, kind and hospitable. It was those feelings, that we as members, felt you were deserving of an expression of our appreciation, therefore, Mrs. Stewart, we would ask you to kindly accept this small token of remembrance from the members of Stirling Women's Institute, for the good work accomplished during the two years you were our esteemed President.

As the months pass by, the years roll on. And times are changing ever. The friends, who present this gift are true, and changes never. Now in conclusion, we extend to you, Mr. Stewart and family, the very best wishes for a happy 1927. Signed on behalf of the members of Stirling Institute, Mrs. Walter Simpson, Hon. Pres. Mrs. Thomas Bolger, Pres. Jan. 11th, 1927.

Mr. 'BENJAMIN WOOD. The death occurred, after a brief illness, Thursday evening, Jan. 20th 1927, at his home in Alexandria, of Mr. Benjamin Wood, in his 58 year. For some time Mr. Wood had not been in the best of health, although able to be about. On the 12th of January he was confined to bed, pneumonia developed and in spite of all that medical skill, the faithful attendance of nurse MacKenzie and the love and devotion of his loved ones he fell asleep peacefully in Jesus his Saviour, in Whom, over thirty nine years ago he placed his trust and the keeping of his soul for him and eternity.

The funeral service took place on Sunday, January 23rd, Rev. R. W. Lindsay officiated. A brief service was held at the late residence and was continued in the Alexandra Baptist Church, of which Mr. Wood was a valuable and faithful member, having been baptised and received into membership by Rev. Charles Baker, in 1888.

A very large number of friends gathered to pay tribute to one whom they highly respected and also to express their sincere sympathy for the sorrowing hearts.

"Pastor Lindsay took for his text Isa. 25th Chapter and 10th verse expressing first his sincere and hearty sympathy for the bereaved family and commending them to the God of all Grace and Comfort. He then endeavoured to show from the text what the Redeeming Love of Christ could do for the travellers to eternity, namely, to understand the peace that passeth all understanding to the believing soul it can impart an abiding trust and confidence in God through all the varied experiences of life. And lastly the Redeeming of Christ brings to the sorrowing heart the joy of the forward look. We sorrow not as those who have no hope.

And with the morn those angel faces smile which I have loved long since and lost a while. For in a little while we too are going home, and God shall wipe away all tears from our faces.

THE Hymns sung were, Nearer My God to Thee, Lead Kindly Light, In the Sweet Bye Bye, The Summer Land (Sung by Mr. Lindsay), Shall We Meet Beyond The River.

The pall bearers were Messrs Seymour MacLennan, Lemuel Wood, M. W. Wood, W. W. MacNeil, Nelson Carver, W. Smith, Floral Tributes. Pillow, The family, Wreath, Brothers and Sisters, Star, Alexandra Baptist Church, Wreath, Mr and Mrs. Jenkins.

As a companion, we found you genial, kind and hospitable. It was those feelings, that we as members, felt you were deserving of an expression of our appreciation, therefore, Mrs. Stewart, we would ask you to kindly accept this small token of remembrance from the members of Stirling Women's Institute, for the good work accomplished during the two years you were our esteemed President.

As the months pass by, the years roll on. And times are changing ever. The friends, who present this gift are true, and changes never. Now in conclusion, we extend to you, Mr. Stewart and family, the very best wishes for a happy 1927. Signed on behalf of the members of Stirling Institute, Mrs. Walter Simpson, Hon. Pres. Mrs. Thomas Bolger, Pres. Jan. 11th, 1927.

Mr. 'BENJAMIN WOOD. The death occurred, after a brief illness, Thursday evening, Jan. 20th 1927, at his home in Alexandria, of Mr. Benjamin Wood, in his 58 year. For some time Mr. Wood had not been in the best of health, although able to be about. On the 12th of January he was confined to bed, pneumonia developed and in spite of all that medical skill, the faithful attendance of nurse MacKenzie and the love and devotion of his loved ones he fell asleep peacefully in Jesus his Saviour, in Whom, over thirty nine years ago he placed his trust and the keeping of his soul for him and eternity.

The funeral service took place on Sunday, January 23rd, Rev. R. W. Lindsay officiated. A brief service was held at the late residence and was continued in the Alexandra Baptist Church, of which Mr. Wood was a valuable and faithful member, having been baptised and received into membership by Rev. Charles Baker, in 1888.

A very large number of friends gathered to pay tribute to one whom they highly respected and also to express their sincere sympathy for the sorrowing hearts.

"Pastor Lindsay took for his text Isa. 25th Chapter and 10th verse expressing first his sincere and hearty sympathy for the bereaved family and commending them to the God of all Grace and Comfort. He then endeavoured to show from the text what the Redeeming Love of Christ could do for the travellers to eternity, namely, to understand the peace that passeth all understanding to the believing soul it can impart an abiding trust and confidence in God through
