Crescents Nosed
Out Dart 4-3

DARTMOUTH, Feb. 15.—Eighty minutes of fast and thrilling hockey was necessary before the Halifax Crescents nosed out the Dartmouth Habitués at the Marks-Cross Arena last night, to capture the Halifax Amateur Senior Hockey League for the second successive season.

With the score standing at three all in the second period of overtime play Gerald "Sham" Hanrahan, outstanding player on the ice, drove a long wing shot through LaFursey's legs for the winning score.

Alan Cobham, premier long distance aviator of the British Empire, on the eve of the noted Italian airman's flight across the Atlantic from Portuguese Guinea for Port Natal, Brazil.

"Every aviator no matter what nationality, will wish Commander De Pinedo and his comrades every success in their undertaking, because an achievement in flying no matter by whom, means a distinct forward step in convincing the public in the practicability of aviation," Sir Allan declared.

Sir Allan, who is on a lecture tour of Canada, was the first airman to fly from England to Australia and back. For this feat he was knighted by King George.

King Alfonso Coming This Year

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—King Alfonso of Spain will come to the United States and possibly Canada within a year. He will make the trip on one of the 30,000-ton ocean liners which the Spanish Royal Mail Line is building.

So Conde de Guella, the wealthiest grandee of Castile, who, by reason of his ancient title of Marquis of Comilla, enjoys the medieval distinction of being able to stand before the King without removing his hat, announced today when he arrived on the luxurious Spanish Royal Mail liner Alfonso XIII.

Mr. Howatt also visited his daughter, Mrs. Gordon MacMillan who was operated on for appendicitis two weeks ago, and whose condition for the last week was causing her relatives and friends much anxiety, but they are pleased to hear her condition has improved.

REPORTS COLD WINTER—Mr. F. C. Monaghan of Dilke, Sask., in writing to the Guardian says: "I have had a cold winter from 40 to 50 degrees below was very common with more snow than I ever saw in the west. Horses generally run out all winter, but this was an exception as the snow was so deep they could not reach the prairie grass. It is no sport looking after twenty or twenty-five head of horses every day. Crops were good in the West in 1926, but there is considerable of it standing in the stock yet as it rained all most every day last fall."

LAI D TO REST—The funeral of the late Mrs. Chas. E. McKenzie was held Monday afternoon from her late residence, Milton, where a short service was held, thence to Milton Episcopal Church, where the regular service was conducted. Rev. Mr. Johnston officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Raymond. The pallbearers were: H. H. Horne, J. O. Hyndman, J. V. Moore, G. W. Darke, J. I. Stewart and H. W. McKenzie. Interment in Milton Cemetery.

OPERATORS AND MINERS CONFERENCE ON WAGE SCALE

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 16.—A cross fire of proposals and opinion offered by coal miners and operators today in explanation of their views toward the drafting of a new wage agreement in the central competitive bituminous fields served definitely to reveal the gap that must be bridged before common ground is found.

Led by their spokesman, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, the miners laid their convention instructions before the operators. Those instructions call for the best possible contract based on "no reduction" of wages.

The operators met the miners' request with a proposal that a continuous wage scale be negotiated on a basis of competition with non-union mines in West Virginia and Kentucky. Continuous negotiations would then be held under control of a board composed of mediators, operators and miners. The proposal was read to the conference.

An American's Generosity Enriches Prague Art

PRAGUE, Feb. 16.—The City of Prague has just received from the well known Czechoslovak painter, Alfred Mucha, three pictures of a Slavonic Epic, a cycle of twenty pictures which he is painting depicting the life of the ancient Slavs. The Anglo-Saxon public will be interested to learn that it was Mr. Crane, the former U. S. Ambassador to Russia, who was particularly interested in presenting the works of the City of Prague on the condition that they are to be appropriately exhibited. The question of exactly where they are to be placed is now being discussed by the City Council.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. C. E. MacKenzie and sons, Frank and Robert, Milton, wish to thank their many friends for their sympathy, floral tributes, kind messages and words spoken during their recent sad bereavement.

Mt. Stewart Notes

A number of citizens are still busily employed in hauling lumber to the different mills, hauling home firewood, etc. Some others have finished and are having it sawn by power.

Reports of very good catches of smelts at Cranberry Wharf, but the season closes, Tuesday the 15th inst, so it remains now for the commission merchants to do their part.

Our night school is still booming and the number gradually increasing and Mr. Hughes merits credit for the capable way in which it is being run.

Mr. William Ross, Stanhope, recently purchased a lobster boat from Mr. Bruce McCormick, on Friday last. Mr. Ross with one of his neighbors, Mr. Arthur Shaw, came up and hauled her home. Mr. Ross has received good quotations from the firm he fishes for, so intend running two boats next summer.

Among those who attended the Young Peoples Rally held in Zion Church, Friday night last were, Messrs Ira and Geddie Douglas, and the Misses Marion McKenzie and Edie Douglas. All stayed over night and returned the following evening.

We are pleased to see Mr. Thos. Atkins one of our old and respected citizens enjoying excellent health this winter. Mr. Atkins always greets you with a smile and is the champion auctioneer-forty-five player here or hereabouts.

We learn with pleasure that Mrs. H.D. Coffin has recovered from illness which confined her to her home and is now in her usual good health.

The doctors here are kept very busy these days, not so much in the village as in its vicinity. Thursday last Dr. A. B. Martin covered sixty-five miles, and all of that, excepting ten miles, with his own horses.

Some Rand of N. S. is spending some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harold Hall.

Mrs. Kimble Coffin is spending some time at the home of her brother, Mr. S. C. Clark, Brighton.

The regular meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. was held Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Douglas, Head of Hillsboro at the usual hour. Nice readings and nicely chosen hymns and psalm selections were sung which all went to make a very interesting and instructive meeting.

The regular services of the United Church were held at the usual hours of 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Conducted by Rev. M. K. Charnan.

A number of families here enjoyed the sermon "Religion and Radio" broadcast from the W. C. T. U. of which the late Mrs. Jones had been a strong supporter, and all matters pertaining to the public welfare. He was one of the pioneers in the dairying industry in this section of the Province and was for some years a director of the Tignish and Palmer Road Dairying Association. In politics he was ever a staunch and consistent adherent of the Conservative party and in religion a devout and earnest Roman Catholic, and although ever steadfast and true to the causes he espoused yet his broad cultured and unbiased vision was ever open to recognize the virtue of any cause, irrespective of the tenets of class or creed. He was in the truest interpretation of the terms, a Christian gentleman and his heart and home were the synonyms of generous hospitality.

During his last illness he was visited frequently by his parish priest, Rev. Dr. Gauthier and also by Rev. Fr. Johnston, who attended to his spiritual needs and prepared his soul for its return to the heavenly abode of its Creator. The funeral procession, headed by the members of the A. O. H. of which society the deceased was an esteemed member of long standing was one of the largest ever seen in Palmer Road parish, many people from the neighbouring parishes of Tignish and Alberton being present to swell the concourse and pay their last tribute to a worthy and respected citizen. The pallbearers, were William Handrahan, George Knox, James Foley, Joseph Poirier, Arcaide Doucette and John A. Arsenault. The Funeral Mass was sung by Rev. Dr. Gauthier, assisted by

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. OLIVER JONES

A large number of leading citizens attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Oliver Jones, which was held Monday afternoon from her late home 87 John Street, the service being at 2.30 o'clock, and the cortege leaving for Elmwood cemetery at three. On account of the illness of Rev. Harold Tomkinson, pastor of Wesley Memorial United Church, the funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. A. Ramsay, Minister of St. John's United Church, who was assisted by Rev. V. J. Kirby, and Rev. W. Penna. Rev. Mr. Ramsay, read the hymn, "Abide With Me," and Rev. Mr. Kirby read appropriate passages of Scripture, while Rev. W. Penna made the prayer in which he expressedly referred to the beautiful and Christian life of the late Mrs. Jones, emphasizing her high Christian attributes, her charitable deeds, her many times womanly through his industry, foresight and qualities and her great influence for good on the lives of those with whom she came in contact. During the very impressive service a quartette composed of Mrs. Burpee, Mrs. Morton, Mr. Lorne McKendrick, and Mr. Tai Cummings, with Prof. Geo. Ross at the piano, sang very sympathetically "Nearer My God to Thee."

Among the beautiful floral tributes were wreaths from the W. C. T. U. of which the late Mrs. Jones had been a strong supporter, and all matters pertaining to the public welfare. He was one of the pioneers in the dairying industry in this section of the Province and was for some years a director of the Tignish and Palmer Road Dairying Association. In politics he was ever a staunch and consistent adherent of the Conservative party and in religion a devout and earnest Roman Catholic, and although ever steadfast and true to the causes he espoused yet his broad cultured and unbiased vision was ever open to recognize the virtue of any cause, irrespective of the tenets of class or creed. He was in the truest interpretation of the terms, a Christian gentleman and his heart and home were the synonyms of generous hospitality.

The pallbearers were all members of the family, two sons, Middleton E. and Andrew H. Jones; a son-in-law, C. W. Redmond; two grandsons, Vernon M., and Stanley S. Jones, and a nephew, Byron N. Jones.

The remains were laid to rest in the family vault in Elmwood cemetery.

(The above is taken from the daily Times of Moncton, N. B., of February 8th. The late Mrs. Oliver Jones was a sister of Mr. F. H. Beer, and an aunt of Mrs. (Judge) Stewart of this city.

In the death of John Clark, which took place after a brief illness on the 8th inst., Palmer Road suffered the loss of one of its oldest, most honored and most enterprising citizens.

The deceased was born at Kinross, and in early life removed to Nall Pond where he engaged in a milling business and where he remained for some years. He afterwards moved to Palmer Road, where he bought a farm and where, through his industry, foresight and qualities and her great influence for good on the lives of those with
