NEW GLASGOW W.M.S.
 The August meeting of the New Glasgow United Church W.M.S. held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Laird.

Mrs. Melvin MacLeod was devotional leader and opened the meeting with prayer, "For the Beauty of the Earth."

Mrs. R. W. Stevenson then read the Indian translation of the 23rd psalm, after which the 23rd psalm was repeated in unison.

Missionary prayer by Mrs. W. B. Bulman and hymn, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" closed the devotional period.

The business period opened with the president in the chair. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Eight members and four visitors answered roll call by reading a verse of Scripture or "work." Correspondence consisted of a letter from the Church and Rehabilitation, and a sympathy card acknowledged.

The treasurer gave her report and Miss Stevenson reported on the progress of the Mission Band. Community Friendship secretary reported four sick calls; temperance secretary gave a reading. A Yank's prayer stops a party."

Mrs. MacLeod, herald, gave an interesting reading. Secretary was asked to try and get a special speaker for a Sunday night service.

New committees: Devotional leader, Mrs. W. J. MacLeod; Helper, Miss Elsie Laird; Mrs. Foster Sellar; refreshments, Mrs. B. Andrew; Mrs. Gordon Laird; organist, Mrs. Foster Sellar; missionary prayer, Mrs. W. B. Bulman; Mission Band assistant, Mrs. Gordon Laird.

Roll call, "Harvest" Collection amounted to $240. "Work For the Night Is Coming," the Lord's Prayer and the Mizpah Benediction brought the meeting to a close.

It and love it.

Rooney, as Mi Taylor, an ex-jockey, provides a different characterization from his usual one—this one is comparable to his work in "The Human Comedy." As a distinguished cowboy who finally finds a home with a family in a small English town, he becomes the trainer of a horse won in a raffle by the 12-year-old Velvet Brown, whose passion is horses to the exclusion of everything else.

Address And Presentation At Rice Point

On Saturday evening, May 19, a goodly number of the congregation of New Dominion United Church, together with a few neighbors and friends, assembled at the home of Mrs. Guilford Lowther and sons Robert and Thomas, to tender them a farewell address and to present them with tokens of appreciation before they leave Rice Point to take up their residence in Charlottetown. Due to the inclemency of the weather a few of these invited were unable to attend.

Mr. Walter Shaw acted as chairman for the evening. In a few well-chosen remarks he expressed the purpose of the gathering, then called on Mrs. Allison MacMillan, who read an appropriately worded address, while Mr. D. N. Taylor presented Mrs. Lowther with a beautiful satin dress, gown and slippers, and Miss Katherine MacNeil presented Robert and Thomas with a pair of gloves, and a billfold respectively.

Mr. Lowther responded to the address in her usual gracious way, thanking one and all sincerely and extended a cordial invitation to one and all to visit them in their new home.

After the reading of the address and Mrs. Lowther's reply, Mr. Shaw called on Mr. D. N. Taylor, a lifelong neighbor of the Lowther family and also on Mrs. Norman MacDonald, both of whom spoke highly of the esteem in which the members of the Lowther family have always been held by everyone, and expressing regret that they are leaving Rice Point.

At the conclusion of the remarks and joined in singing "Blessed Be The One That Binds," after which a delicious lunch was served to all.

A few evenings previous Mrs. Lowther had been presented with lovely Bibbie by a few intimate friends. Following is the address: May 19th, 1948

Mrs. Olivia Lowther, Messrs. Thomas and Robert Lowther—

Dear Friends: This gathering tonight has been arranged by your many friends connected with the New Dominion Church.

It is needless to say that we all feel a measure of sadness and regret when on this occasion we are obliged to come to a full realization that your early departure from our midst is to become a reality.

It would be indeed a grave error on our part if, remembering our past associations we would permit you to depart from our community and Church without expressing however simply, our deep appreciation of your many sterling qualities which you have shown during the years you have been residents of the West River District.

In addressing you, Mrs. Lowther may we say at this time that you came to this section of the Province as a bride, and doubtless as a centre of social activity, through the years you, together with your late lamented husband took your full share in Church and community life, through industry an intelligence advanced materially and added to manhood and womanhood a fine family who are carrying into their lives those principles of honesty and Christian citizenship of which you both were worthy models.

We are fully appreciative of the fact that the home has always been a centre of social activity, and we have always been assured of the warmest welcome and unbounded hospitality when we came to your door. In short, we can truly say that in your life you have exemplified the finest ideals of Christian citizenship.

Although regretting that circumstances necessitate your departure from us, we are pleased to know that you anticipate taking up residence in the city of Charlottetown where it will be possible for you to have the companionship of the other members of your family and where the comforts and conveniences of life are perhaps greater than in our rural areas.

To you Thomas and Robert may we assure you that we will miss you very much as young men in the community you have always been helpful and generous. We bespeak for both of you good health and success in the days that lie ahead.

And now dear friends permit us to present these gifts as a slight evidence of our esteem and as a token of our past happy associations together. May the Good Shepherd Himself spare you and yours for many years and may God's richest blessings rest upon you.

Signed on behalf of members and friends of New Dominion United Church.
 (Sgt.) DANIEL N. TAYLOR, W. E. SHAW, H. P. CURRIE.

Following is an address read to Mrs. Lowther by Mrs. D. F. O'Holman while a presentation of a dainty silver flower holder was made by Mrs. Charles MacEachern. This took place at a gathering of all the members of Rice Point W.I. at Mrs. Lowther's home on July 11 Mrs. Lowther thanked the members for the gift and assured one and all of a cordial welcome at her home at any time.

Dear Mrs. Lowther: We, the members of Rice Point Women's Institute have gathered here tonight to see a social hour with you and to convey to you our deep regret at your departure from our community.

Language is inadequate to express emotions upon the loss of a tried neighbour and friend, but as a remembrance. We cannot say good-bye to you as we hope frequently to renew our associations during the years to come. "Adieu," such is the word for you. 'Tis more than word—'tis presence. We do not part—who do part thus. For God is everywhere. Signed on behalf of members of Rice Point Women's Institute. MRS. R. MACLEOD, CATHERINE MACNEILL, 8-23-48
