This resolution will do a great deal to remove the fear we have of losing population or of not getting industry. I think the resolution has been worked out by an excellent body. The resolutions committee and it should be adopted here."

Seconded Resolution P.E.I. Attorney General, F.A. Large followed Manitoba Premier Stuart Garson in seconding the convention resolution affirming the party's stand that the provinces should co-operate with the Dominion Government along the lines of the Federal-Provincial taxation and social security provisions of 1944. Mr. Large made ironic reference to the premises of "co-operation" and "collaboration" made at the 1946 Dominion-Provincial conference by Quebec Premier Maurice Duplessis. "I was thrilled when I first heard those words being used and repeated throughout the conference even up to the time when Mr. Duplessis left. However, I was surprised at what happened during the last Quebec provincial election. I think we can now understand the cooperation and collaboration he had in mind. "As representative for Prince Edward Island, I should like to see that our economy is based largely upon farming, fishing, mining and lumbering. We are producers of raw materials which are needed by the Dominion of Canada. One of the features of the Dominion-Provincial agreement is the periodic review of the agreement and the proposals. Our income depends upon the sale of the primary products. "In the Maritime Provinces, we are looking forward to the implementation of the health agreement and other agreements which will be of great assistance to the provinces. I am glad the Liberal Party has taken a lead in this field and I know that our party will be able to look forward to the future with confidence because of the inspiration we received yesterday from the address of the prime minister."

CELEBRATES 35th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY On the evening of July 22nd, relatives, neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Handrahan, Ascension, to join with them in celebrating their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. After the guests had all been received by the bride and groom of thirty-five years ago, they proceeded to the dining-room where a most delicious and attractively arranged supper prepared by Mrs. Edward Gavin and Miss Mary Handrahan was served to about two hundred guests. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Ralph McInnis and Miss Teresa Shea. The dining-room was decorated with pink and white streamers and white wedding bells. A three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with colors harmonizing with the color scheme used in the room, was the table centre-piece. Cut flowers were in evidence all over the house. While supper was being served, soft organ music was played by Mrs. Wilfred Brennan and daughter, Miss Teresa. At the conclusion of supper all repaired to the living-room where an address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Handrahan and they were presented with many and beautiful gifts, ample proof of the great love and esteem with which the honored couple are held by their countless friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Handrahan expressed their gratitude to all for their kindness and thoughtfulness in remembering them on this, their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. The wedding cake was then cut in the usual manner and then all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows", after which the floor was cleared for dancing which was greatly enjoyed by all present. With the bride and groom of thirty-five summers taking part in the first dance which was a quadrille, and eight members participating. Music for the dancing was furnished by Messrs. Elzear Doucette, Claude and Edgar Gavin. On July 22nd, 1912, Mr. and Mrs. Handrahan were married in the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, by their pastor, Rev. Dougal MacDonald, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Handrahan was before her marriage Miss Laura Gavin, of Sea Cow Pond, and she was attended by a cousin, Mrs. Lena McGehee, to be bridesmaid, and Mr. Charles Gavin, brother of the bride was Mr. Handrahan's best man. Mr. Gavin attended the wedding anniversary but Mrs. McGehee was unable to attend but telegraphed her regrets and good wishes. The many Tignish friends of Mr. and Mrs. Handrahan offer their sincere good wishes for many more years of happily wedded life.

LATE BLIGHT (Continued from page 1) usually give 100% kill. If, however, the number of aphids in the fields is reduced, it is possible that the amount of leafroll and mosaic will be curtailed. Flea Beetles The second brood of potato flea beetles has not appeared yet, but they will likely emerge during the next week. When these flea beetles are present in large numbers they cause serious damage to the potato plants by puncturing small holes in the leaves, thus reducing the yield. In some cases they may weaken the plants so much that they die down before maturity. DDT will also control flea beetles and farmers are advised to spray or dust during the next week before the populations become built up to the point where they cause serious damage. Immediate applications of late blight sprays or dusts with the addition of DDT to control the insects are strongly advised by the officials.
