CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The morning service of worship was conducted by the Rev. John Fraser, D. D. whose sermon was based on the words of Isaiah 27:8. "He stave his rough wind in the day of the east wind."

The clear, crisp, crispness of his vision into words of poetry and beauty, he tells us that our trials and sorrows are laid. There is a time to be born and a time to die, there are times of rejoicing and of mourning, of sunshine and of the time of the storm east wind. We send to judge whole journeys by one mile, whole books by one chapter. If God is in our lives we shall see that our trials are timed in the periods of storm.

Jesus met serenely all his trials, there is an ocean of difference between the wretchedness of the faithless and the happy spirit of Christ, you have heard, does it tell you that your trials are timed by God who stave the rough wind in the day of the east wind. Consider Peter in the morning of his failure in the halls of the high priest, in that time of east wind pressing out his feet, he was saved by the look of the Master. In the east wind of trouble, Jesus said "Come hither" and faith was restored. It is the time of darkness that reveals the brightness of the stars. God wants us to see that there is compensation in life. In our own trust let us face our duties and live our lives and we shall come to the stilling of our hearts and the infinite peace of God.

The morning anthem was "Comfort O Lord (Crotch)". The Church School met for its Bible Study Period at 2.30 P. M.

Evening worship was conducted by Dr. Fraser who also delivered the sermon, Turner's "Sun of My Soul" was the anthem of the evening with the solo taken by Mr. Ivan Robinson.

Mrs. C. Elliott, Full organist and director of choir was in charge of the music of the day.

Sherren-McCormick Wedding

A wedding of much interest at home and abroad took place at St. Peter's Cathedral, Charlottetown, on Sunday, November 26th, when the Rev. Canon E.M. Malone M.A.L.I.N. united in marriage Miss Helen Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Sherren and St. William MacEwan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Alan McCormick of Ottawa.

The bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of white silk lace over white moire, with tight fitting bodice, full skirt and long sleeves, also a finger-tip veil of tulle illusion held in place by a wreath of baby gardenias, stie carried a shower bouquet of peonies and white carnations, her only ornament being a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Hilda Coles as bridesmaid, who wore a floor length gown of heavenly blue triple sheer with a blue feather halo and shoulder length veil to match carrying a large bouquet of bronze nudes. St. John H. Russell R.C.A.P. acted as groomsmen.

The mother of the bride wore a powder blue dress with a silver sequin vestee, and a corsage of Happy Day roses. The groom wore a dress of turquoise blue wool trimmed with black fringe and a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. Douglas Sargent and Capt. Jack Best R.C.A.P. were the ushers.

The reception was held at the Charlottetown where a luncheon was served to about sixty guests. The bride table was decorated with yellow and white mums, silver candelabra holding tall ivory candles, and a beautiful two tier wedding cake. The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Canon Malone and responded to by the groom in a few well chosen words.

Press Comment On Draftee Crisis

WINDSOR STAR—The partial conscription which has now been enacted is plainly a compromise deal worked for the time being, because the French-speaking Minister, Hon. C. G. Foweraker has signed and he is a minister the country cannot well afford to lose.

It will be interesting to learn what the 18,000 of selection will be for the geographical standpoint. The details will probably be closely guarded. It is to be expected that the suspension that Quebec will come off very lightly in the calling of the draftees.

MONTREAL STAR—General McNaughton's statement to parliament yesterday, taken together with the order-in-council permitting the sending overseas of draftees, is a guarantee to the country that reinforcements will be available for the Canadian army when they are needed.

The debate on this issue is not ended. Nevertheless, the matter upon which the House was called together to decide has in fact been decided. It is to be hoped that a prolongation of the debate may not postpone the departure of our troops to the reinforcements so urgently sought.

TORONTO TELEGRAM—The only conclusion can be that the King was less interested in policy than in his personal retention of office. It is to be hoped that the Prime Minister and a conscientious history will be written in the future which will honor the leader of a responsible government.

THE BONAISHAW W. I. The annual meeting of the Bonaishaw W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Boyce, November 24th. The order-in-council was read and the Ode and Creed. Roll Call was responded to with my special time. The minutes of last annual and regular meetings were read and signed. There were no reports from the various work committees.

The Secretary Treasurer gave the financial statement for 1944. The total amount of Red Cross, also 15 quilts, $7.00 to the Kinross and $5.00 to the T. B. League. Officers for the following year were: Mrs. Fred Shaw, Vice President, Mrs. John MacPhail, Secretary, Mrs. G. G. Dickson, Treasurer, Mrs. G. G. Dickson, and Mrs. Neil Salmon, Director of Entertainment.

Mrs. MacPhail, Secretary, Mrs. G. G. Dickson, Treasurer, Mrs. G. G. Dickson, and Mrs. Neil Salmon, Director of Entertainment. Mrs. J. W. Boyce, Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Neil Salmon, November 27th, 1944. An exchange of a 25¢ Xmas gift. Lunch was served by the Hostess after which meeting adjourned.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH The services in Trinity on Sunday, November 26th, were largely attended and the Minister spoke on the subject of "The Power of Materialism" and pointed out that only as we recognize the spiritual nature of man can we hope to establish a true relationship with God. He has made for human life upon the earth can we hope to establish a true relationship with God. He has made for human life upon the earth can we hope to establish a true relationship with God.

QUEBEC CHRONICLE-TELEGRAPH—If the recruiting campaign was a failure yesterday, it may have been equally a failure today. Mr. King was still determined to pin his trust on the voluntary system of recruitment. The Minister's failure of policy, it is not merely individual ministers who should resign, but Mr. King himself, and others, still in the government, for such an action is the obvious though unadmitted truth that Mr. King's policy is a failure.

THE VANCOUVER PROVINCE—It is conscription of a sort—a blend of compulsory service and voluntary enlistment in which, in practice, voluntary enlistment is to be the locomotive and compulsory service the caboose. From this incongruous blend our gallant soldiers overseas will draw something, the decision was for the government both a retreat and a surrender and brings at least a partial victory for public opinion. The man who comes out of this thing with credit unreserved, and perhaps the only man, is Colonel Ralston.

WINNIPEG TRIBUNE—Mr. King is still playing for time. This is Mr. King's device for postponing until next May the application of the principle of conscription for overseas service. The Minister's explanation, how the order-in-council is to be applied makes it perfectly evident that no N. B. M. man will be sent overseas if the minister can possibly avoid it. Mr. King and his partisans were able to save the people of Quebec from the length of ingenuity in sheltering those who disdain sharing responsibility and who have nothing but contempt for the principle of equality of sacrifice.

SACKS TOO SMALL—Wartime sacks which are too small may be partially responsible for the recent epidemic of short weights in potato shipments from P. E. I. This fact was learned from growers' reports that the sacks used provided this year would take the required weight "only with great difficulty." Last year the sacks appeared to be somewhat larger. Only last week a large shipping organization here complained that many sacks were short weight.

REHABILITATION TRAINING—Eight returned men in a commercial course this morning under the provisions of the Rehabilitation Vocational Training plan. The plan is sponsored by the Department of Labour and the provincial Government. Four classrooms will soon be available at Prince of Wales College for other courses for returned men. IN SUPREME COURT—An independent error in the Andrew Perry case was a Crown appeal lately and many people, especially the Canadians, are interested following the reports of Parliament. The full Bench of the Supreme Court on Friday, November 24, was based on the application of the law. The trial judge, Mr. Justice Arsenault, had refused to allow the Crown to appeal. The further ground that he had not charged the jury on a certain other matter.
