is found in the many testimonials of those who have tried Shiloh and been cured. Mrs. Archie Taylor, Asaph, Pa., writes:— "I bought a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure and found it very beneficial. I have two children, and they had a terrible cough. I gave them everything I could think of, but they got no better, until one evening my husband bought a bottle of Shiloh. We gave it to the children when they went to bed, and they slept all night. It cured them completely. I shall always keep it in the house."

It was with feelings of deep regret that many learned of the death of Christie, dearly beloved wife of Malcolm McLean, Graham's Road. Surely the family have sustained an irreparable loss in the death of this sweet patient, loving wife and mother. By her kindness of heart and gentleness of manner, she reigned supremely in her home. In her the highest type of a noble unselfish woman might be found. She had been a patient sufferer with rheumatism for many years which she bore with Christian fortitude never making a complaint for herself, always ministering to those about her with a tender loving care. She was in her usual health until Thursday night when she was taken down with pneumonia. All that medical skill and careful nursing could do could not stay that dread disease. With many of her children about her she calmly talked of the approaching end. Her last words were: "The hour of my departure's come I hear the voice that calls me home." "The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want." At Monday noon her spirit took its flight. She was a member of the Christian Church for many years and died as she lived trusting in the merits of a Crucified Redeemer. She leaves to mourn an aged husband, eleven children five sons and six daughters. The sons are Archibald, Cincinnati; James A. Bridgewater; J. R. Sussex; John W. Souris; Malcolm on the homestead. The daughters are Mrs. William Catto, Washington; Mrs. W. D. Whitehead, Clinton; Mrs. A. Glennie, Boston; Mrs. G. N. Cannon, Boston; Mrs. A. Bun-tain, Clinton; Mrs. Ephraim Read, Vancouver B. C. The funeral was largely attended by the relatives and friends Rev. A. Stirling officiating. The body was tenderly carried to its last resting place by her sons. The children who were present at the funeral were Mrs. Whitehead, James R. of Sussex, Mrs. Glennie, Mrs. G. N. Cannon, Mrs. Bunt-in, John W. and Malcolm at home.

A correspondent from Bedeque sends the following: "Friend after friend departs." These words of the poet have an application nowadays, which, perhaps the author never intended. But they are literally true in regard to the family of Isaac Wright, late of Bedeque, who one after another have left and gone to the Canadian West. Yesterday witnessed the departure of the last member in the person of Miss Clarke who goes with her nephew, Fred on his return to Calgary. Henry and Mrs. Rogers (nee Louise Wright) Freetown accompanies them. Mr. Wright who went west some months ago is much improved in health and finds the climate agrees with him. In a few days if nothing happens to prevent he will have his family about him again, a reunited whole. We trust that he and they will enjoy many happy years together and be a blessing in the land of their adoption.
