LETTER OF SYMPATHY

To Sisters Lydia and Pearl Liewellyn. Dear Sisters:—It is with feelings of deep sympathy that we, the Brothers and Sisters of the Maple Leaf Division, Sons of Temperance No. 282, note the fact that you have lost your dearly beloved father, who shall be greatly missed in the home circle, and in the community in which he lived.

Yet while you mourn your loss, you have the happy assurance that he passed away trusting in the One Who can heal all broken hearts and take away all pain.

We can only commend you to the Heavenly Father above, Who has promised to be a Father to the fatherless and Who alone can comfort and console you in your sorrow.

May God watch over you and keep you, and may you look forward to the time when you shall meet him beyond the skies where parting is unknown.

It was hard to part with father dear But God, Who knowest best, Held wide His loving arms and said "Come unto Me and rest."

Time may heal the broken heart, Time may make the wounds less sore, But time can never stop the longing For the loved one gone before.

God grant that he may bring you aid To bear your burdens sore, Until you clasp his hand in love Upon the other Shore.

Signed on behalf of the Division, Vivian Vanderstine, Nettie Davidson, William M. Graham, Committee. Cambridge, P. E. I., June 25, 1935. L-8498-7-3-11

How does Ruth learned to prevent Choked Pores

...to guard against COSMETIC SKIN

"Frankly, I do use quite a lot of cosmetics and I used to think I removed them thoroughly. But of course I don't want to risk getting unattractive Cosmetic Skin. I don't want my pores choked up with stale cosmetics—making my skin coarse and dull, maybe causing little blemishes and even blackheads. So I'm removing cosmetics thoroughly the way 846 out of 857 English and Hollywood Stars do—with Lux Toilet Soap. Every night, and always before I put on fresh make-up during the day, I use this pure, white soap. There's no excuse for Cosmetic Skin now that Lux Toilet Soap is so economical."
