Still spry and active despite ages totalling 162 years the two veteran curlers pictured above took an active part in the two days curling staged at the Charlottetown Curling Club Thursday and Friday and players from Halifax were guests of the local curlers. Mr. Silver, pictured on the left, is 83 years young and still retains as much enthusiasm for the game as he did when first starting. On the right is Charlottetown's veteran curler, S. C. (Col.) Moore, age 79. Both vets were pitted against each other in matches and showed plainly that they still know the finer points of the game as good as the younger players.

The Horseman and Fair World publishes a list of standard performers of 1940 which contains most of those that secured new records of 2.30 or better trotting, 2.25 or better pacing, also those that reduced their records. Maritime sires in their list with their get are as follows:—

Abbe Worthy 2.05
—George Mac (3) 2.17, Ada Worthy p. (9) 2.23.
Bilimi Scott, 2.09½
—Ethel Bellini, from 2.29 to 2.15.
Hilside Scott (4) from 2.14 to 2.11¾.
Bill L., 2.15½.
—Aaron L., p, from 2.08 to 2.07¼.
Clover Guy, 2.07¼.
—Margaret Jean, p, (3) 2.19¾.
Colonel Aubrey, 2.16½.
—Colonel Upton, p, from 2.19½ to 2.14, Major Bowes, p, from 2.13½ to 2.10¼.
Calumet Budlong, 2.03¼.
—Hilda Budlong, p, (2) 2.20¼.
Colorado L., 2.10½.
—Model T., from 2.15½ to 2.14¾.
Forefather, 2.15½.
—Peter McKinney, from 2.11 to 2.06¼.
Great Britton, 2.02¼.
—Hal Britton, from 2.13 to 2.09¾.
Betty Britton, p, from 2.18 to 2.13½.
Uscita Britton, p, from 2.14½ to 2.12.
Kalmuck, 2.15¼.
—Bonaparte, from 2.06½ to 2.05¾.
Darkey Kalmuck, from 2.20½ to 2.16¼.

Horsemen in this vicinity are all interested in the appearance of Albert E. Grattan, 2.12¼, recently bought by Milton Bell, from Ontario parties. He is expected to arrive here the latter part of next week, and after some rest will be ready for the ice races. He is sired by Grattan the Great, a son of Grattan Royal 2.06½, the great family founder and horse that put Ontario on the map because of the number of fast pacers of the Grattan tribe produced there.

He was foaled in 1935 and is therefore officially six this year. As a three-year-old he took part in six races, won $743 and was marked in 2.13¼. In 1939 as a four-year-old he took part in 16 races, winning four and reduced his record to 2.12¼, and increased his winnings to $1,387.54. Figures are not available for the 1940 races, but we do know that he won several including ice races at Toronto prior to the New Year. A wire was received a couple of days ago stating that owing to the extremely cold weather, it was thought better not to ship him as intended last Saturday. Instead, he was raced in the Free for All and — won, in three straight heats. Now, any horse that can win the Free for All from the bunch at Toronto must be a good one, because all the owners and drivers are keen as mustard to win a bit of change, and no doubt it was a sizzling affair from beginning to end. He is said to be a sound, good mannered, reliable horse, eligible to the 2.18 Pace.

Samuel McCoomb, aged 71, died in Fredericton, Tuesday, January 7. He was caretaker of the City Hall there the last few years. For several years he worked with H. G. Kitchen, well known contractor, and was caretaker of Harry Putnam, 2.04¼, when Tommy Raymond raced him. He accompanied the horse to Kalamazoo, Mich., when he went there to race in the $25,000 Kalamazoo pacing derby. He had long experience with horses and was an excellent caretaker and at times drove horses, being credited with giving Miss Letha 2.14¼, her record.

Charlie Crummer, who raced the Tramp, 2.02¼, at Charlottetown, some years ago, in the Free for All with Tom Gate, 2.00¾, and other horses, is now in the restaurant business at Pomona, California. He has not given up his interest in horses, however, and takes his recreation driving over the speedway there.

The only race summaries appearing in the Horseman and Fair World, Indianapolis, January 8 issue, are from Toronto, Ont., Brackley Point Driving Club, Covehead Bay, P. E. I., and New Glasgow, P. E. I. ice races. Mr. L. McNamara, the owner of Hal Dale, 2.01¼, sire of Nell Cochatodale, winner of the first heat in the Free for All at Brackley Point, lives in Indianapolis and no doubt will note Nell's performance, as will Harry Short, of Columbus, Ohio, who gave her her record of 2.16½ as a three-year-old.

The man that developed Great Britton, 2.02¼, formerly owned by the Nova Scotia government, and sire of Hal Britton, 2.09¾, and others, died at Philadelphia a few weeks ago. His name was Bob Grady and he had reached the ripe old age of 73. He also developed Periscope 2.03½, once a great trotter, and afterwards a great brood mare.

Edwin T. Keller, writing of the 1940 racing season in The Horseman, says: "No previous campaign ever produced as many top ranking juvenile pacers over the half-mile tracks as that of 1940, when 15 youngsters turned in a grand total of 41 miles in 2.10 or better. Fastest of all the year's performances was the 2.05½ second heat at Delaware, Ohio, by Victorious Hal 2.03¼, who failed by just a quarter of a second of joining Cold Cash as the half-mile track champion two-year-old pacer." Victorious Hal is a full brother to Nell Cochatodale (3) 2.16½, owned by Charles Willis, Covehead.

Dusty Hanover, 1.59, owned by Sullivan and Mawhinney, Machias, Maine, was the 100th two-minute star. So far 377 miles in two minutes or better are now in the books —106 for the trotters and 219 for the pacers. Dan Patch, 1.55¼, leads the pacers, with 30 miles in 2.00 or better. Greyhound, 1.55¼, leads the trotters with 25. It looks as though it will be a long time before any horse will displace either of these from their leadership . . . Eleven trainers have marked horses both as two-minute trotters and two-minute pacers . . . Lexington, Kentucky, leads all tracks as regards fast miles with 94 of the two-minute trips—46 by the trotters and 48 by the pacers.

Leo. C. McNarama, inventor of the McNamara Barrier, and owner of Hal Dale, 2.01¼, has nine sons all interested in trotters and pacers.

They are stepping the two-year-old trotters at Longwood, Florida, and one of the best so far on view is The Ambassador, a son of Scotland 1.59¼, and Margaret Arion (3) 2.10½. He trotted a quarter in 35½ seconds a few days ago and appeared to be capable of more speed. Frank Spencer, out of the futurity winner Spencer 1.59¾, and Jane Revere (2) 2.06¾, is another that looks good. One of the best, owned by E. Roland Harriman, is the trotter Pink Cheeks, that has been a quarter in 36 seconds. Longwood is full of visitors, there for their health and for the enjoyment they get out of watching the horses in training.

From down under in New Zealand comes word to Harness Horse that American horses are holding their own with the native breeds from American sires. Bill B., by Single G., 1.58½, is one of the first-rate pacers. A three-year-old pacer by Arion Guy, 1.59½, is the leading trotter for his age in New Zealand. He holds the Australian record also for three-year-olds, a mile and a half in 3.21 3/5.

Abbedale 2.01¼ is represented by two wonderful pacers, Cloverdale and Sandydale. Sandydale is regarded by many leading judges and owners as the finest specimen to enter New Zealand. He is now in the stud and is highly patronized.

Roosevelt Raceway, Long Island, which is a mile track and built mostly for running races, also catered to the horsemen last fall with thirty evenings races under the lights on the dash system. A lot of money is being spent improving the

Zivic Stops Miracle Man Henry Armstrong After 12 Furious Rounds

(By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Jan. 17—(AP)—The miracle man of boxing, little Henry Armstrong, came to the end of the road tonight.

The spirit and the heart of the greatest little fighting man of the present generation were willing, but the machine had run down, and he was stopped in 12 rounds by Fritzie Zivic as he made one last, gallant try to win back his world welterweight championship.

He was stopped with both eyes cut, half blind from slashing left jabs and ripping right uppercuts, but still pouring in, trying to land one last, desperate punch that might produce another of his fistic miracles.

And he was stopped, in what may have been the last competitive appearance of his glorious career, as the biggest crowd in Garden fistic history was on hand to wish him natl and farewell.

Every seat was taken, and the Garden bulged at the seams from the standees in a crowd of 23,190 a figure never before equalled in the 16-year history of the Garden. The gross gate was $78,242.

While each fan was rooting for his choice, it is doubtful if even every Zivic supporter didn't feel a tear in his eye and a lump in his throat as "Lil Perpetual Motion" finally ran down. The only man in ring history ever to hold three championships simultaneously — welterweight, lightweight and featherweight—Henry was the favorite in the betting at 5 to 6. That's how they regarded him despite the fact he was badly beaten last October by the same Pittsburgh "slasher" he fought tonight, that he was spotting Fritzie more than five pounds—140 1-2 to 145 3-4— and that even his sincerest boosters admitted he was on the way toward the end of his career.

And he went out there, tirelessly trying to win for these boosters and for his manager, Eddie Mead, who,

NEW YORK, Jan. 17—(AP)—Henry Armstrong, only fighter in fistic history to hold three championships simultaneously, announced his retirement from the ring tonight after he had been stopped in 12 rounds by Fritzie Zivic.

for the first time in their relations together, was too ill to work in the little buzzsaw's corner.

Armstrong tried to do it tonight differently than ever before. He stood up slightly straighter, and, for probably the first time in his rip-roaring, tear-in-and-flail-away career, he had a thought for defence. But his plan didn't work. He just couldn't get out of the way of Fritzie's straight lefts or those short, cutting rights. He tried a crouch and a bob and a weave, but it didn't help. He tried covering his face with his right arm. Neither did that. He even tried backing off and boxing at long range as amazed fans muttered, "what's Henry doing?"

That was even worse. By the fifth round, both of his eyes, which were punched cruelly shut in his first outing with the Pittsburgher, were cut and bleeding. But that was after he walked out there in the second, backed Fritzie into a neutral corner and really hurt him with two roundhouse right hand "whistlers."

In the sixth, Zivic pulled him in close with his left hand and let go a looping right to the mid-section. Partly from the punch and partly from slipping, Armstrong dropped face downward on the floor, but so strange was the position that he bounced right up again without a count.

Through the ninth it was the same pattern. Armstrong rushed tirelessly in as Fritzie backed off and stabbed him with the left. Each time Henry caught up with him, the youngest of the five Zivic brothers leaned in close and cuffed Armstrong on his cut eyes with cruel uppercuts.

In the 10th Armstrong must have realized the end was in sight. He tore out of his corner, rushed Fritzie back, and shook him with hooks and right swings for a full minute. He did even more in the 11th. Here, he knew definitely there wasn't much farther to go, so he went all out, flailing away with both hands to head and body, and, while Zivic didn't like it even a little bit, he still inflicted damage around Armstrong's eyes.

Then came the 12th. Henry, boxing near Zivic's corner, couldn't stop his momentum as Fritzie sidestepped, and he slipped to one knee. He came rugt up and took up the chase again, but at long range he was helpless gaainst Zivic's slicing shots. At 52 seconds of the round, referee Arthur Donovan stepped in and called a halt, with Zivic the technical knockout winner, and Armstrong's career just about a closed book.

Local Curlers Have Edge Over Halifax

Halifax curlers return to the mainland early today after a series of friendly matches with rinks in Charlottetown. The visitors won 146 points against 176 chalked up by local teams. Of 16 matches played since the Halifax curlers arrived late Thursday night Charlottetown won eight, Halifax four and four matches were tied.

Yesterday afternoon out of eight matches played Charlottetown won three and Halifax four games while one was tied. In last night's play two games were tied and local curlers won the others. In Thursday night's series the visitors tied one game and lost the others.

Winning Halifax skips today included, G. Brister, W. P. Webb and A. S. Mabon. Webb won two matches, the first when he curled a rink to a 10-8 victory over A. V. Spillett and the second when he won 13-8 over C. H. Black.

Veteran curler H. St. C. Silver, who tied the only match not lost by the mainlanders Thursday night, tied his rink again yesterday against a team skipped by Judge C. Gavan Duffy. The score was 14-all.

T. P. Mofatt tied his game 8-all with L. B. MacMillan's rink.

The winning Charlottetown skips today were, H. J. Spillett who won 15-8 from W. N. Winfield of Halifax; A. W. Hyndman who took a 10-3 win from E. N. Fraser; S. C. Moore, another veteran curler, who took his Charlottetown rink to a 16-3 win over the veteran H St. C. Silver; G. G. Hughes who downed the A. S. Mabon skipped rink 16-9; and Dr. Heath McIntyre who won 9-8 over E. N. Fraser.

Many of the visitors played two matches today and tonight they were more tired than some local players who were curling for the first time today.

G. Brister took a Halifax team to a 12-4 victory over W. C. Davies while A. S. Mabon defeated an Island rink skipped by Col G. E. Full.

A. G. Putnam from Charlottetown tied 9-all with S. J. Fullerton from Halifax for the fourth tie game.

Last night the visitors were guests of the local curling club at a dinner at the rink.

Following were the rinks playing yesterday and the results:

Local Intermediates Show Surprising Form In Victory Over Army Team

Sparked by a youngster and a veteran in the persons of young "Buck" Whitlock and Walter Lawlor, Intermediate Abegweits last night surprised their most ardent followers as they sent the highly-regarded P.E.I. Highlanders team of Halifax down to a 10-5 defeat in the opening game of the local hockey season.

Outskating and outplaying the visitors from the opening whistle the locals rang up a 4-0 lead in the first twenty minutes of play, outscored their opponents 4-3 in the middle session after the losers had countered two goals in the space of the opening 56 seconds as the winners played shorthanded and then wound up their evening's work by holding their opponents even in the final canto as both squads came through with a brace of counters.

And the winners deserved their victory fully. One of their goals was of the lucky variety as a Highlander player deflected the disc into his own net but in the second session Abbies had what appeared like a certain score called back as the goal-judge ruled the rubber had not entered the cage. But although winning going away the game produced lots of heavy bumping and clever combination work with sensational goal-tending thrown in. Highlanders, in all justice to them, appeared tired after their long train trip but nevertheless kept plugging away all the time.

Abbies on the other hand skated like demons all night icing two fast forward lines and throwing up a stubborn defence in front of their young goalie Cantwell who last night won his spurs in his opening test outside school games. Casey the visiting netminder was sensational at times and although beaten ten times saved a least that many more goals at one time coming right out to the blue line to clear a loose puck as three Abbie players thundered in on top of him.

Abbies "kid" line of Buck Whitlock, "Hen" Woolridge and Blanchard marched off with the scoring honors of the free scoring game getting nine points between them with Whitlock leading the way with two goals and two assists with Woolridge getting two counters and an assist and Blanchard a goal and an assist. The other trio had five points on three goals and two assists and two defencemen Darragh and McDonald accounting for the remaining two counters.

Deighan with two goals and Mahar, Hogan and Nicholson with one apiece accounted for the Army scoring.

Springing right to the attack from the opening whistle Abbies raced in three abreast in the first few seconds but Casey turned Lawlor's bid aside. Checking closely play raged up and down the ice without any scoring until the kids finally opened the goal-getting Blanchard beating Casey on a beautiful angle shot as he skated in close on Woolridge's pass. For the next nine minutes it was nip and tuck with Abbies pressing determinedly finally being rewarded as "Win" Cudmore on a beautiful solo effort shot his team into a 2-0 lead. Carmichael handed out the first hard check of the game as he dumped Hogan at the blueline as the Army player attempted to barge through and seconds later Cantwell balked the visitor's efforts as he kicked out a blazing drive from the stick of Nicholson. With less than three minutes to go the winners went into a 3-0 lead as Lawlor hammered home Darragh's rebound afer the latter had skated right to the goalmouth from his defence position. One minute and 26 seconds later Buck Whitlock fed Plum McDonald a scoring pass and the rugged Abbie defenceman whistled a hot drive into the draperies to complete the scoring for the period. Three penalties were handed out during the session —incidentally the only ones of the game— with the Highlanders drawing two and Pud Whitlock the lone Abbie penalty. Whitlock was still in the penalty box as the session ended.

With the homesters playing a man short to start the middle frame, Highlanders sprang to the attack and within 56 seconds had cut the Abbie lead in half with goals from the sticks of Nicholson and Deighan, the former shaking himself loose from leech-like checking to bang home Hogan's rebound with Charley Deighan getting the other on a pass from Wes Storey.

Forced back on the defensive the winners got back into their scoring stride at 4.23 of the period Buck Whitlock and Blanchard teaming up like two veterans with the former getting the goal on a pass from his linemate. Less than three minutes later Abbies received a gift goal as Lawlor centering the disc out front saw Storey deflect it into his own net attempting to clear. Lawlor got credit for the counter. Young Whitlock got the third straight Abbie goal 29 seconds later on an individual effort with Woolridge the third member of the "kid" line bagging the fourth straight counter of the game at 14.13 of the period. 41 seconds later Highlanders got their third counter as Reggie Mahar whipped Nicholson's pass into the draperies. Before the period ended Cudmore of the winners appeared to have scored a goal on a beautiful backhand shot from the right boards but the goal-judge ruled it had not entered the cage Although outscored 3-2 in the session Highlanders showed their best efforts of the night and but for three or four sensational saves by Cantwell could easily have cut down the winner's margin.

Both squads were visibly tired from the fast clip of the two opening periods and as a result play lagged somewhat in spots, but this was more than made up for in other moments as the players opened out wide in search of goals. Abbies replied with goals at 8.06 and 14.11 on individual efforts by Deighan and Hogan both counters coming as players milled about the Abbie cage. The winners however had the last say in the scoring, running their count into double figures as Darragh was on the receiving end of a combination play with Lawlor and Cudmore to beat Casey with but a second of time remaining.

Lineups:—

Highlanders: Goal, Casey; defence, Storey, Rankin, Mill; forwards, Nicholson, Hogan, Deighan, Mahar, Kelly, McEachern, McInnis.

N.H.L. Leadership May Change Hands After Weekend Games

(By The Canadian Press)

Detroit Red Wings have a chance to take over leadership in the National Hockey League race this weekend, but nobody in the camp of Toronto Maple Leafs seemed worried about the possibility.

Three points behind the Leafs, Detroit take on Montreal Canadiens in Montreal tonight and then tackle Rangers at home. The Leafs meanwhile will be entertaining Boston tonight and then will move on to New York for a Sunday night fixture with Americans.

On the face of it, it looks as though the Leafs have the best of the bargain. The third-place Bruins are always tough opposition, but the Leafs will have the advantage of home ice where they are always hard to beat, and their Sunday night game will be against the last-place Americans.

Detroit on the other hand, will be meeting Canadiens who might just happen to be off on the winning streak they have several times threatened. The Sunday night affair against Rangers probably won't be an easy one for Detroit either.

In the other weekend game, Chicago Black Hawks will be entertaining Boston Sunday night. Smarting under the 5-1 drubbing given them by Canadiens Thursday night, the Lo Presti gang will be out for a victory that might move them out of their fourth-place deadlock with Rangers.

Vics down Sydney 6-3

SYDNEY, N.S., Jan. 17—(CP)—In their second defeat in as many nights, Sydney Millionaires absorbed a 6-3 licking tonight from North Sydney Victorias, tail end team of the Cape Breton Hockey Vics ran up a 4-0 lead before the game was half over, coasted along until Sydney drew within a goal of them and then rang up a couple more in the last period.

Their win left Millionaires still three points out of first place, held by Glace Bay Miners.

Tic Williams, a Sydney castoff, led the Victorias attack, getting the first and last goals of the game. Frank Clifton, Jommy Russell, Johnny Squarebriggs and Bill Sneider provided the other North Sydney goals.

For Sydney, Steve Latoski set the pace with a pair of goals. Johnny McCreedy came through with the other on a solo effort.

Visiting Curlers Guests of local Club at dinner

Last night the visiting Halifax curlers were guests at a most enjoyable banquet held in the Winchester Banquet Hall at the local Curling Club. Needless to say, the affair was a most enjoyable one from start to finish, with many pleasant memories being recalled and many pleasant friendships renewed.

President J. Hibbert Howatt, of the Charlottetown Club, presided, and gave the opening address in which he heartily welcomed the visitors and stated that their visit would always be remembered. Other speakers heard were Hon. H. H. Cox, Hon. W. J. P. MacMillan, His Worship B. Roy Holman, S. C. Moore, P. W. Turner, all of the local club. Also J. A. Hanway, K.C., E. W. Fraser, 1st vice-president of the Halifax Club, and A. S. Mahon, 2nd vice-president.

In an address long to be remembered by all present, Mr. H. St. C. Silver, Halifax's grand old man of the curling game, addressed the gathering. Mr. Silver has been in the game 55 years, and has the distinction of having toured Europe as skip of a Canadian team. Many pleasant reminiscences were brought out during the address which was listened to with much rapt attention.

The banquet was a genuine success from start to finish, and the visiting curlers all said good-bye, loud in their praise of the Island hospitality.

MINUS TWO TEETH

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Jan. 18—Krikor Hekimian, professional superman and human polar bear, is minus two teeth. Hekimian, who makes a living by swimming through holes in ice and pulling automobiles with his teeth, lost a bet—and the teeth—attempting to lift a 250-pound man.

It is not what you have that matters, but what use you make of the possession.

To deeply feel the joy of your friend, as if it were your own—that is love.
