The Seattle Post-Intelligencer of March 9 says:—A movement recently started by A. McKay Jordan for the organization in Seattle of a Canadian Club began to take form yesterday at a luncheon in the Arctic Club. Besides Mr. Jordan, whose home originally was in Kentville, (N.S.), a number of Canadians who are active in Seattle's business and professional life, were present, including John A. McKinnon, Charlottetown, (P.E. I.) After the luncheon Prof. Kincaid acted as chairman and several brief talks were made. A committee, consisting of Messrs Douglas, Kincaid, Hughes, McKinnon, Jordan, and Fenwick, was named to prepare by-laws for the organization. These will be presented at another luncheon to be given next week. The object of forming a club is to cultivate good fellowship and fraternity among the natives of Canada residing in this vicinity, the entertainment of distinguished Canadians visiting Seattle and when occasion arises the discussion of problems and current questions of special interest to the United States and Canada. Besides those at the meeting yesterday the following have expressed approval of the proposed club and signified their intention of becoming members:—M. F. Kincaid, L. O. Fiset, J. C. F. Kane, G. V. Holt, R. M. Boyd, Dan. J. Gorman, George P. Cave, L. F. Macklern, John J. Gorman, Arthur G. Bond, W. R. Phillips, W. Roy Phillips, J. H. McGregor, John W. Johnson, Thomas A. Parish, G. E. Hibbard, John L. Hyland, George E. Thompson, George W. Evans, T. K. Sydney, J. J. Thompson, D. H. McCaskell, A. B. McKay, G. E. Bennett, H. Brock and A. B. Stewart.

The champion Orioles added another victory to their already long list by defeating the speedy Victorias last night at the South End rink. The game was fast and clean and few penalties were handed out. The Victorias have sprung several surprises this season and many thought that the Vics would pull one over on the champions, but the Orioles were guarding against such surprises and were the aggressors from the start. The Orioles peculiar style of defence have puzzled their opponents many times, and the forward line, do not hesitate to block and chase the opposing players when relieved of the puck. The Orioles defence played last night as one, with Goddard and McCullough working splendidly together and Boudreau's timely rushes relieved the goal many times. Hanlon at rover played his position in good style, being all over the ice, and his interference was a feature of the game. Whitaway and Vaughan held the wings down and with Cooper at centre the trio played excellent combination. The game started very fast with the ice in fair condition. The Orioles quickly scored and two minutes later Cooper tallied number two. Whitaway scored in one minute, and a few seconds later Hanlon tallied. Vaughan poked in another from the face off, and until the end of the game it was a procession towards the Vics' net. The second half was rather slow and the Vics scored one goal. The game ended with the Orioles 12 and the Vics 1. The Orioles play the Pirates Thursday night, the last game of the season. T. Martin refereed.—Halifax Exc. (The Orioles are well known in Charlotteto, having played in the Arena some time ago.)
