Blood Test In Paternity Case

(British United Press) BERLIN Jan. 28.—A court of justice for the first time in Germany, has delivered a sentence based on the blood test, which has excited great interest in legal and medical circles.

A woman was accused of perjury for having described as the father of her illegitimate child a man who denied paternity, and who, together with the woman and the child, submitted to the blood test.

Doctors reported the result of their investigations before the court to the effect that both the man and the woman belonged to the "second blood class" (a), whereas the child belonged to the "fourth blood class" (a and b). Blood characteristics (a and b) did not exist in the mother or in the alleged father, the child must have acquired this characteristic from another person.

The definite conclusion, therefore, was that the man was not the father of the child.

The court decided, after hearing the evidence of other medical experts, that there was no doubt that the blood test was a reliable scientific method of establishing paternity, and that in the case before the court proof had been given clearly that the man was not the father of the child, as the mother alleged.

The woman was found guilty of perjury, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

CHURCH SERVICES

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH.

Earnest and impressive discourses were delivered at Trinity United Church yesterday. In the morning the attendance was somewhat affected by the stormy weather, but the evening congregation was very little below the average. Rev. Dr. Ramsay's subject in the morning was "And the brook dried up" based on the account of the Prophet Elijah in the book of Kings.

Rev. Hammond Johnson preached at the evening service on "an expectant creation." "The earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God" or as Dr. Moffatt renders the passage "Every creature waiteth with eager longing for the sons of God to be revealed."

Shortly after the commencement of the sermon, the electric light wire, which supplies current to the church, parted and as it was found impossible to effect repairs, the remaining exercises were performed in the hall.

Unfavourable conditions. Familiar hymns were sung, until oil lamps could be procured, by the light of which the regular services were proceeded with to their conclusion, and the Sacred Recital following was carried out.

The special music at the morning service consisted of Bowles' anthem, "Just as I am." In the evening the choir rendered Sullivan's "I will sing thy power." The solo part was sung by Mr. Percy D. Williams, who kindly substituted at short notice for Mr. Harvey McPherson, the latter being prevented by a severe cold from taking part.

In the close of the regular service a delightful musical recital was given by the choir, with the assistance of Miss Bernice Stultz, Violinist, and Mr. Raoul Raymond, Baritone. The following numbers were rendered:

Organ Solo—"Overture to 'I Trained'—Rossini.—(Prof. W. E. Fletcher)

Anthem—"Gloria in Excelsis" (12th Mass)—Mozart.—(Trinity Choir)

Vocal Solo—Isis—Mozart.—Mr. Raoul Raymond

Violin Solo—(a) "Andante from 5th Symphony"—Tschafkowsky. (b) "The Rosary"—Nevin

Organ Solo—"Water Scene"—Nevin

Vocal Solo—"Les Rameaux"—Faure.—Mr. Raoul Raymond

Violin Solos—(a) "Adoration Borowski"; (b) "On Wings of Song"—Mendelssohn—Miss Bernice Stultz

Anthem—"Dear Lord and Father"—Fletcher

Offering for Musical Services of the Church

Benediction

The morning and evening services broadcast

In the anthem, "Dear Lord and Father", by the organist, Prof. Fletcher, Mr. Fletcher sang the soprano solo, and Mrs. Fletcher and Miss McKenzie the Soprano and contralto duet. In the semi-darkness the choir were at a great disadvantage, and are to be congratulated for the manner in which they rendered the two anthems under Miss Stultz's violin selections were rendered with fine expression and excellence of technique, and Mr. Raymond's splendid baritone solos were a delight. It is greatly regretted that these artists were obliged to perform under the accidental disadvantages above referred to, though their rendition of their several selections left nothing to be desired.

At the close of the recital, Rev. Hammond Johnson conveyed the thanks of the congregation to those who had taken part.

Last Monday, after their regular group meetings, the girls of the Intermediate C. G. I. T. groups commenced making very charming rosette flower baskets. The work was in charge of Miss Pearl Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Teed, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Fraser and Miss J. White. A very pleasing feature of this meeting was the presentation of a pair of silver candle sticks to one of the leaders, Mrs. W. M. Rowe.

The choir, on the day the tenth anniversary of her marriage, Miss Anna Bennett read the address and also made the presentation.

At the Senior C. G. I. T. on Tuesday evening there was an interesting and instructive debate on the subject "Resolved that Mary Slessor was a greater missionary than James Chalmers." Following were the speakers:

Pro. Con. Marion Whitehead Betty Newson Edna Burke Catherine Rogers Alice Bryerton Doris Higgins Edith Douss Ruth Stewart The Judges, Mr. George Tweedy, Miss Mildred Toombs and Miss
