HARLAND MAY RUN.—There is a possibility says the Halifax Mail, of William McClure putting the steamer Harland on the Charlottetown-Pictou route this coming summer. It is understood the Charlottetown Board of Trade has approached him with a Dominion subsidy and the Nova Scotia government is presumed to be favorably disposed also. Mr. McClure has been very successful in operating a teamship service between Pictou and the Magdalen Islands and the merchants of Pictou and Charlottetown are hoping to see him put the Harland on the route as indicated.

SILVER WEDDING.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lowther, Rice Point, was the scene of a most interesting and enjoyable affair on Friday evening, March 7th, when about thirty-five invited guests assembled to celebrate with Mr. and Mrs. Lowther their silver wedding. The time, spent in playing various games, together with music both instrumental and vocal passed very quickly, until the gentlemen were told to find their partners, or supper. The table, beautifully decorated was laden with such a variety of good things, that one's inner man could not fail to be satisfied, and it is needless to say that all without exception did ample justice to the repast.

As Mrs. Lowther and her daughters are well-known, to be connoisseurs in the military art. After supper the guests repaired to the parlor, and Mr. W. S. McNeill, acting as chairman, called upon Mr. A. K. McPhee to read an address to the host and hostess, to which Mr. Lowther fittingly replied, giving also an amusing account of his own troubles twenty-five years ago when he essayed to embark on the matrimonial sea of life. Speeches were made by several others, some good old songs were sung, and then the party dispersed, all feeling that this was one of the few pleasant events which will long hold a place in memory. Many beautiful and useful articles of silver were received, as a token of the high esteem in which this genial couple is held. Following is the address:

To Mr. and Mrs. Guildford Lowther
We, your friends and neighbors deem it a great pleasure and privilege to meet here this evening to extend to you our heartiest congratulations on this, the twenty-fifth anniversary of your marriage. Kind providence has been pleased to endow you both in large measure with health, happiness, and prosperity. Many of us have enjoyed your hospitality in the past, and be assured that tonight all present will carry away pleasant memories of this celebration of your silver wedding. It is our earnest hope that you and yours may be spared to meet together twenty-five years hence on the occasion of your fiftieth anniversary the golden wedding. Signed on behalf of those present, A. K. McPhee, W. S. McNeill, D. T. McEwen.

SWAIZEMA CURES ECZEMA

MR. SWAISLAND—Dear Sir, I take great pleasure in praising your Swaizema. About 8 months ago I had an operation performed which resulted in blood-poisoning, and my whole body from head to foot was covered with a terrible rash. I consulted several doctors and used all kinds of salves being advertised, without any relief. I could not walk nor sleep, for the burning itching almost drove me out of my mind, so one day I sent my daughter to the drug store and she was advised to try a bottle of Swaizema which she brought home. When I had taken a half bottle, I began to feel a great change; my appetite came back; the bitterness of my mouth left me; I felt myself on the way to recovery, so I decided to keep on taking it until I would see the last of this terrible torturing disease of Eczema leave my body. I have now taken six bottles, and am still taking it, as my case was so bad, not only with the Eczema, but also over one hundred boils covered my body. My friends were afraid to come near me, as I was a terrible sight; on my head I had the Weeping Eczema, and it was raining all matter; for weeks I could not comb my hair; my ears running matter, and face and neck all full of the rash. I never thought of once getting well again, but thanks to Swaizema, I am now able to do all my work, and my skin is almost all my body, with the exception of two spots which I think will soon be healed up. I can strongly recommend Swaizema as the best remedy for skin disease and boils.

Do not suffer the torture and disfigurement of Eczema, Swaizema will cure you. In over four years every case of Eczema has been cured in which Swaizema had been used, no matter how long standing the case had been.

Swaizema is sold and guaranteed by all good druggists, that if you do not get satisfactory results your money will be refunded.
