Prince Edward Island Hospital To the Collectors

On behalf of the Trustees I wish to thank you for taking up this work. It means hard work and much sacrifice. However, it is work someone must do if the efficiency of the Hospital is to be maintained.

You will find it much better to commence not later than November 4th and to complete the work as quickly as possible and so get the benefit of the advertising campaign now being carried on.

We want you to ask the people for increased subscriptions in proportion to the increased cost of food, fuel and medicines as they were before the war and are now. We cannot use less food, medicine or fuel per patient than we ever did and we cannot raise our patient's fees enough to cover ten per cent of the increased cost of running the Hospital.

If this is carefully explained to the people you will find them ready and willing to meet you with largely increased subscriptions. Wishing you splendid success.

TO MAKE YOUR TREASURE BAG

Simple Instructions for Making the Ever Handy Convenience Needed in Every Home.

A piece of blue and white flowered ribbon, half a yard in length and six inches wide, a bit of the same ribbon three and a half inches square, a bit of white satin ribbon of the same dimensions, a piece of white satin ribbon half a yard in length and two inches wide, a yard and a half of white silk cord, some white embroidery silk and a cardboard circle three inches in diameter, are all that are required for the manufacture of the bag itself.

The cardboard circle is covered on one side with the small piece of blue and white ribbon, and on the other with the white ribbon, the whole whipped neatly together with white sewing silk. This forms the bottom of the bag, with the blue and white ribbon on the outside and the white on the inside. To it is fastened the half-yard length of blue and white flowered ribbon. At the top a half-inch heading is turned down and featherstitched along the outside of the bag, with the white silk. Through this is drawn the white silk cord. The ends are cut and knotted and the outside of the bag is then finished. The white satin ribbon is hemmed neatly together and whipped along its lower edge to the inside of the bag, just above the cardboard bottom. Featherstitching of the white silk, on the outside of the bag, divides the white satin ribbon into 10 neat little compartments, each with its pocket top left open.

QUILTING IS EVER POPULAR

Style of Trimming is Smart and Serves in Various Capacities to Add Beauty to Garments.

No manner of trimming is smarter than quilting this season, and beautiful quilting is quite as difficult to do as beautiful embroidery. The stitches must be tiny and perfectly even, and the lines of the pattern must be perfectly spaced, so that the design will show up effectively.

A very handsome frock of midnight blue taffeta, seen the other day, had a tunic bordered with 8 inches of quilting, and the pattern was repeated on the sleeves and on panels at back and front of the bodice.

To make quilting of this sort the material is underlaid with very thin sheet wadding, and the quilting stitches are set through the outer material and wadding. Then the quilted portion is faced with thin silk or with the material of the frock, if it is not too heavy. Quilted angora is especially smart just now. Vests of quilted angora show in the open fronts of new cape coats, and there are waistcoats of quilted angora for wear with street suits.

Such a waistcoat accompanies a taupe cheviot suit, the waistcoat being in lighter taupe shade, and the quilting is done with still lighter taupe silk. A blue cloth cape is lined with scarlet satin and has a blue angora vest quilted elaborately with red silk.

Renovates Silk Embroidery. Silk embroidery may be cleaned with a camel-hair brush dipped in spirits of wine and rubbed over the embroidery. The brush should be frequently rinsed in some spare spirit to remove the dirt. The embroidery need not be removed from the garment it trims.

Girdle Variety. Girdles are allowed to take all sorts of liberties by the designers of smart costumes, and one never can tell how or where they may be found.

Liberia. Liberia may be one of the smallest and humblest of the nations, but it is one of the most faithful and earnest of those allied against Prussianism. The Consul-General of the Republic, speaking before the "Altar of Liberty" in New York the other day, in behalf of the Government of his country, "consecrated her man-power and her resources to the final extinction of German autocracy and justice." There is something bordering upon the marvelous in the capacity Germany has shown for winning the abhorrence of the smaller, as well as of the greater, nations.

Nero's Palace. The golden house was the palace of Nero in ancient Rome, which occupied the valley between the Palatine and Esquiline, and connected the palaces of the Caesars with the gardens of Maecenas. It was built after the great fire of 64 A.D., and was so large that it contained no less than 2,800 feet long and inclosed a lake where the colosseum now stands. The forecourt contained a colossus of Nero 120 feet high.
