—MISSIONARY GROUP MEETS The opening meeting of the Bromfield Church was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Lloyd Corroll on Tuesday afternoon. The devotions were conducted by Mary Mountain. Ruth Cahill read the scripture and Rhoda Baker led in prayer. The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Hancock. Mrs. Corroll told a story from the study book "Around the World With the Bible". Mrs. Fred Moose was at the piano.

—CHURCH OF CHRIST — The Young People's Society of the Church of Christ met in the East Room of the church on Tuesday evening. The worship period was conducted by Fay Ennart. The hymns sung were "Whosoever Will" and "Thy Sweet Trust in Jesus". Psalm 82 was the Scripture reading. Garth Linkletter was in charge of the business session. The meeting was given over to writing letters to four of the young people who are removed from the society. By this means they keep in touch with those of the young folk who have left Summerside. The meeting closed with the Missal Benediction.

—COMMUNITY CONCERT — The first concert of the 1948-49 series under auspices of the Community Concert Association of Summerside was given Thursday night in the Summerside High School auditorium, the gifted performers being Marina Svedlova, prima ballerina of the Metropolitan Opera, Robert Roland, male dancer, Trina Romero, Spanish dance interpreter and Valentin Pavlovsky, concert pianist. The Association president, Rev. Chas. Carnegie, expressed his gratitude to members of the executive for the time spent in preparing the stage and paid high tribute to Messrs. Wright and Bell for installing the lighting. At the conclusion of the concert, a reception was held for the artists at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison McLean, Summer Street. Mrs. J. F. Arnett and Miss Wanda Wyatt poured tea and were assisted by Mrs. Harold Schurman, Mrs. Clarence Mercer, Mrs. Garth Toombs, Mrs. C. H. Stewart, Miss Dorothy Wyatt and Mrs. Senator McArthur. Present at the reception also were Mr. and Mrs. Hartman, Miss Schurman, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Paris and now residing in New York. Rev. Mr. Carnegie on behalf of the Community Concert Association extended thanks to the fine concert artists for their appreciation to the vice president Mrs. McArthur and the executive committee also to Mr. and Mrs. Allison McLean for the use of their beautiful home for the use during the reception.

—RETURN TO CHARLOTTE-TOWN—Nineteen prisoners returned to the Queen's County Jail in Charlottetown yesterday morning after having spent two days in the Prince County institution at Summerside. The reason for the short vacation in Truro was that it was found necessary to have the Queen's County jail fumigated.

—Y. P. U. MEETING—The Baptist Junior Y. P. U. met on Tuesday evening with the president, Donald Leturgey in the chair. Helen Gay conducted the devotional exercises. The study was "A Bible Quiz on the Book of Revelation". Recreational period consisted of a game of volleyball.

—TRINITY AFTERNOON AUXILIARY held its Thanksgiving meeting on Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance of members and visitors. With the president, Mrs. W. A. Allen in the chair, and Mrs. B. R. Sharp at the piano, the meeting opened by singing "O Come Let Us Sing to the Lord." The treasurer reported a goodly increase in funds for the third quarter. The devotional period, conducted by Mrs. Hammond Johnson, followed the Thanksgiving theme and included readings by Mrs. Walter Lidstone and Mrs. Harry Simmons and a solo, "We Give Thee Thanks, O God" by Mrs. Fred Anderson. The thanksgiving was dedicated in song by the collectors, Mrs. George Shear and Mrs. T. H. E. Inman. Mrs. Johnson presented the second chapter of the study book, "West of the Gorges" and was assisted by Mrs. Harold Nicholson and Mrs. G. N. Somers. Mrs. Nicholson, impersonating Miss Helen Pen, the first Chinese woman ever to be ordained, told how difficult it was for a girl to get an education in China. With the help of posters Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Somers portrayed the role of women in China and of the great change in their status in the past fifty years under the influence of Christianity. Prayer followed by the hymn "Thou Art the Way." The profusion of gladioli, mums, asters and roses so plentifully arranged was the contribution of Mrs. Lidstone and Mrs. May Morris and the close of the meeting a social hour was spent.

Thanksgiving Meeting Of W.M.S. Of United Church

The annual Thanksgiving meeting of the W.M.S. of United Church was held in Epworth Hall on Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance. The president, Mrs. W. A. Allen presided at the business session.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Sheen reported that four cartons of warm clothing including bedding and other necessities had been packed and forwarded to Labrador. A letter from Mrs. McAusland regarding Missionary slides which are now available was read and discussed. It was suggested that an evening meeting be held in conjunction with the Evening Auxiliary where these slides could be used. The treasurer reported an increase in funds over last year for the three-quarter year period.

The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Hammond Johnson, with "Thanksgiving" as the theme. Suitable hymns and prayers were used. Readings were given by Mrs. Walter C. Lidstone and Mrs. Harry Simmons; a solo by Mrs. Anderson was very much appreciated.

The thank-offering was received and dedicated and amounted to over $200.00.

The Study Book program was in charge of Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Somers and Mrs. Harold Nicholson, the latter representing Rev. Helen Penn of China, taken from "West of the Gorges." This part of the program was particularly interesting and instructive.

The meeting closed with singing the hymn "Thou Art The Way," followed with prayer by Mrs. L.R. Allen.

A social half-hour was then enjoyed over cups of tea and dainty refreshments.

Prisoner Has Short Term Of Freedom At S'ide

Acting quickly on a tip Cts. Linkletter and Doyle of the Summerside Police Force picked up a prisoner on Wednesday night about midnight that had escaped from Prince County jail less than an hour before. He was Edward Gallant of Tignish, who was serving a six months sentence for breaking and entering. As a result of the overcrowded conditions of the jail caused by twenty prisoners from Charlottetown being temporarily housed there, Gallant was sleeping near the coal chute and made his escape that way. Police learned that he was trying to hire taxi stands and found him at one of them. He claims that he intended to return before morning thinking that his absence should not be discovered in the meantime.—S.

In Memoriam

PETER S. MACINTYRE The hearts of a wide circle of friends were saddened on Sept. 11th by the death in the Prince County Hospital of Peter S. MacIntyre at the advanced age of 84 years.

He was about his daily duties up to the time he entered the hospital six weeks previously, and although hopes were entertained for his early recovery, God willed otherwise, and he passed peacefully to meet his Maker, fortified by all the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, of which he was a faithful member.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacIntyre of New Annan, at which place he spent most of his life, until he retired eleven years ago and moved to Kensington.

Fifty years ago last July 19th he married Clementine Driscoll
