Mr. McDonald before removing to Canada was Senior Sergt. in the Maine Coast Artillery, U. S. volunteers, and took part in the Cuban war.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT—The ladies of Hunter River and vicinity decided to hold a concert and supper in the Hall on Thanksgiving evening, the proceeds to go towards aiding to the comfort of our boys now fighting in the trenches. Though the evening proved very unfavorable, quite a number gathered, and the entertainment was given. It was decided, however, to repeat it on the following evening. This time the hall was well filled, and everyone present was delighted with the proceedings. The following program was rendered: 1. chorus by Twelve Girls; 2. solo, Master Tommy Coleman; 3. reading, Miss Edna Gordon; 4. Flag Drill, by Ten Girls; 5. dance, Master Tommy Coleman; 6. reading, Miss Coleman; 7. solo, Mr. Gillies; 8. reading, Miss Gordon; 9. duet, Misses Helen and Ruth Rodgerston. Every number of this program was well received, but the audience appeared to be particularly delighted with Master Tommy Coleman, Miss Gordon and Miss Coleman. These three young people deserve the special thanks of the committee for coming from Charlottetown on both evenings, responding to encores, and doing all they could towards making the entertainment successful. The sum of $91 was realized.

"Newspaper Display Week"

All over Canada this week there is being observed "Newspaper Display Week". That is to say—the stores are showing in their windows the lines that are advertised from day to day in the daily press.

And for several reasons—one is to show you that the advertised lines are good lines—nobody is going to waste money advertising a poor thing. Another is to show you that the good lines that are well known can be found in big assortment in your own store—this store.

And another great reason—that in our own case we want to demonstrate how excellent are some lines MADE IN CANADA. Our fur windows this week will show goods MADE IN CANADA—advertised in Canada—sold in Canada—worn in Canada.
