Canon Cody Preaches In Westminster Abbey

Toronto Divine is Given Wonderful Hearing as He Pleads for Unity of Peoples as Well as Unity of Nations.

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, July 18.—"How are you Britons individually and collectively using your strength," was the challenge which rang out Sunday night in ancient Westminster Abbey, when Canon Cody of Toronto, preached a stirring sermon to a packed congregation. The honor of preaching in the Abbey is a much coveted one and in addition to a large gathering of Canadians there was such a crowd of worshippers at the evening service, anxious to hear the famous Toronto preacher, that many were obliged to stand in the aisles throughout the service. Those who Lenine Dead Again Murdered This Time?

(Special to The Guardian.)
COPENHAGEN, July 18.—Nicholas Lenine Russian Premier, was a Russian watering place, to a Caucasian watering place, according to a dispatch received today from the Riga correspondent of the Svenska Dagbladet. The report which lacked confirmation said that poison was administered to Lenine on the train by Moscow radicals and that his body was hurled into the River Don while the train was crossing a bridge near Rostovo. It was reported from Riga that one of the accomplices in Lenine's murder was an executive in the Third Internationale who is now impersonating Lenine at the Caucasian bathing resort.

LONDON, July 18.—The Russian Trade Delegation today discredited the reports reaching Copenhagen from Riga that Lenine had been murdered.

Startling Rumors Re The Steamer Egypt

LONDON, July 18.—Startling revelations are expected next week when the Board of Inquiry ordered by the British Government into the sinking of the liner Egypt is opened. The Egypt foundered off Cape Ushant with the loss of ninety five lives and ever since that date there have been rumors of panic and serious allegations of cowardice against the alien seamen in the crew. The disgraceful scenes that occurred at the time were at first alluded to in whispers, but now they are the subject of general discussion.

Big Crowds Attend World's Standard Shows

Spring Park Crowded Last Night by Citizens and Visitors. A Clean Popular Entertainment for Young and Old.

The World's Standard shows which opened Monday night at Spring Park, had another successful night last evening, the grounds being thronged with men women and children. Some thirty or more concessions are on the midway and the entertainment throughout is clean and good. Joseph H. Hughes, manager of the World's Standard Shows, who had an extended experience in the amusement business, is determined to put on shows that will please the most exacting critic.

He says: "If there is one objectionable feature in connection with this outfit in the opinion of the people of this beautiful city I want to know it. Everything must be on the level. We have no girl shows of the type 'for men only.' No gambling is allowed on the lot, nor do we carry so called athletic shows. Any clergymen will find this show as clean as a church picnic."

Duke of Leinster Joins Free State Army

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, July 18.—The Duke of Leinster has left for Dublin to enlist in the Irish Free State army. "I'm doing nothing extraordinary," the Duke said just before leaving London Monday night. "I'm merely going to join my fellow Irishmen to fight in whatever capacity I am required."

The Duke of Leinster, who comes first on the list of the best known Irish homes with a long lineage behind him, fought in the world war as a member of the Irish Guards.

Royal Commission On Pensions Appointed

OTTAWA, July 18.—A nurse's profession is one of the highest held by women, and that is one of the reasons that I think girls who are preparing themselves for this noble calling should dress in a fitting manner and not imitate the woman of the street," said Rev. Sister Felix De Valois, superior of the Ottawa General Hospital when interviewed as to her reason for issuing on July 6th an order re nurses' dress.

Dress Rule For Student Nurses

This order reads: "After August 6, all nurses in training will be strictly required to wear, when they are not on duty, dresses with sleeves covering at least three quarters of the arms length, not décolleté, and no shorter than nine inches above the ground. All those who do not care to comply with this order are requested to advise me at once, so that I may give admission to others who want to come and follow the courses here."

REV. WM. V. MACDONALD, D.D.
Secretary of the Celebration Committee.
