Further Details Of Budget Presentation

Outstanding Feature Of Tariff Revision Is The Premier's Fulfillment Of His Election Prom- ise To Fight Tariff With Tariff.

OTTAWA, June 2.—Canada's annual budget statement was made yesterday. While men and women crowded the galleries of the Commons chamber, stood along the walls when seating capacity proved insufficient, and were turned away from the doors of the Hon. R. B. Bennett, in his capacity of Finance Minister, presented his review of Canada's business.

It was a striking effort. For two hours and a half the Finance Minister spoke at a high rate of speed. In that period he covered a wide range. He went exhaustively into the financial position of Canada in presenting a comprehensive balance sheet of formidable figures. He discussed the trade and commerce of the Dominion pausing to condemn certain of the trade treaties entered into by the previous administration. He gave to his listeners an estimate of the revenues and expenditures for the present fiscal year, which will end on March 31, 1932, and he wound up with a statement of the "ways and means" which the Government proposes to adopt for raising revenue.

Interest centred more particularly about the last portion of the speech. Here in the "taxation proposals" were gathered those changes which affect directly the pockets of the Canadian people. The budget speech made it clear that Mr. Bennett had gone over the ground thoroughly and that he proposes to derive his revenues from many quarters. Major announcements included an increase of three per cent in the sales tax, fixing that impost at four per cent for the current fiscal year; an advance in the income tax rate on corporations and joint stock companies from eight to 10 per cent; extension of the stamp tax on cheques, making it applicable to those under $10 as well as over that amount; and an increase in the letter rate within Canada of one cent.

Bennett Budget Received With Great Satisfaction By All Classes Of Citizens

New Era Of Advancement For Canada Predicted As Result of Masterly Budget Presented By The Prime Minister.

(Special to the Guardian)

TORONTO, Ont., June 2.—Canadian industry, business and agriculture will gain new impetus as a result of provisions in Premier Bennett's budget, men of commerce and finance in Toronto agree.

In the East, industrialists hail "a new era" and in the west, the farmers are grateful for a "square deal."

Manufacturers foresee increased production and decreased unemployment.

Miners of Canadian coal see in the freight rates subsidy greater chances of selling their coal in Canada, and the western grain growers, still battling with the problem of marketing their 1931 crop, nevertheless gain new hope from the five cent per bushel subsidy announced by the Prime Minister.

Jubilant also are the Canadian manufacturers of motor cars who state that their business will greatly be stimulated and suggest the possibility of the creation in Canada of an industry engaged in the manufacture of automobile parts now largely imported from the United States.

Even announcement of increased taxes prompted no "squeal" from business men. Almost unanimously they admitted the necessity of increased revenue in these times of depression and they declare Premier Bennett has adopted reasonable means of getting it.

Toronto retailers do not think the increased sales tax will have much effect on business and one of them described the sales tax as the logical method of getting revenue.

Many of the increases in tariff will not affect the consumer, the outstanding men in several lines of trade predict. There is however, a certain number who differ and wish to wait for a month or so before saying how retail prices will be affected.

Comment from England has not yet been received, for the news did not reach there until late in the evening. From the West comment is exceedingly favorable.

PROTECTION FOR GRAIN INDUSTRY

WINNIPEG, Man., June 2.—In every branch of industry, finance and merchandising throughout Winnipeg tremendous interest was displayed in the budget details. Newspaper offices were surrounded by business men, especially auto dealers and grain industry representatives awaiting the information. There was generous approval displayed especially in the reference to grain protection. The exclusion of used cars and similar material was commented on favorably. "The increase of the sales tax was less than expected," F. N. Still, president of the Manitoba Division of the Canadian Credit Men's Association, says. "I am of the opinion," he continued, "that it is an equitable form of taxation if there is no discrimination in respect of the classification of products taxable." All branches of business, he thought would accept it in view of the Government's need for additional revenues.

TORONTO, June 2.—When asked last night for his opinion on the raised tariff on beeswax, Hector Inch of Port Hope, representing some 600 members of the Ontario Beekeepers Association, said the new tariff met with their hearty approval, as it would be very advantageous to the beekeepers of the Province. He said however, that he would be unable to say just how it would affect the trade in general until he had studied the budget more carefully.

N. S. COAL INDUSTRY BENEFITED

GLACE BAY, N. S., June 2.—Mayor D. W. Morrison, President of the U. M. W. of A. District 26, expressed himself as being highly gratified with the new tariff schedules covering coal contained in the budget speech of Premier R. B. Bennett delivered at Ottawa yesterday.

President Morrison stated that the assistance afforded the coal industry by increased duties, subventions and subsidies would be of great assistance to miners in Nova Scotia, Alberta and British Columbia, as well as to these communities which depend largely upon the coal industry for an existence. SYDNEY, N. S., June 2.—A considered judgment of officials of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation on the tariff changes announced by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett was not available tonight. The general view in Cape Breton seemed to indicate provision made for higher coal tariffs would greatly benefit industry in Nova Scotia.

Some disappointment has been expressed over the absence of higher tariffs on primary steel products. By others it is stated that the duty placed on automobile parts will aid the steel industry in Nova Scotia.

C. B. McNaught, President, and H. J. Kelley, General Manager of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, both appeared enthusiastic over the tariff announcements tonight, but declined to issue statements before tomorrow morning.

BIG THING FOR ALBERTA COAL

WINNIPEG, June 2.—Extension of the subsidy on Alberta coal shipped to Manitoba and as far east as Fort Frances and Sioux Lookout, Ont., may mean "a big thing" for the local coal industry in Alberta, said W. R. Kell, secretary of the Western Canada Fuel Association, in commenting tonight on Premier R. B. Bennett's budget.

Alberta coal operators last year displaced about 200,000 tons of American bituminous coal in Manitoba. Mr. Kell said, and the new extension will give the foothills province an opportunity to supply pulp and paper plants in northwestern Ontario.

Good Butter And Cheese Business With England

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 2.—Canada will have a good butter and cheese export business with Great Britain this year, according to P. W. McLagan, Montreal butter and cheese exporter, who has just returned from a visit to Great Britain. There was a place for Canadiana butter in England, he declared, and as the market was not overloaded and as long as Canadian prices and quality were light, he thought that there would be steady sales throughout the 1931 season. There was a demand for good cheese such as Canada produced, Mr. McLagan stated. With cheese stocks heavy and large quantities of common food available, he said that only a low price, as compared with former years could be expected.
