

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

TUESDAY
FLOWERS RECEIVED - Mrs. Alfred Higgins of Kensington received on Christmas Eve a beautiful bouquet with Christmas greetings from her husband, who is overseas.

FIREMEN CALLED - The firemen were called to the ruins of Frank Clarke's warehouse yesterday morning at two o'clock to extinguish a stubborn blaze in some bails of bags that had been smouldering ever since the warehouse was destroyed last Thursday night.

REPORTED WOUNDED - Mrs. George Arsenault of Village Green received word from the Minister of National Defence that her son, Tpr. John Henry Dunn, was wounded in Italy. Tpr. Dunn went overseas in 1941. He has a brother, Maurice in Belgium.

33 TODAY - Mr. C. Edward Strong, merchant of Summerside celebrates his ninety-third birthday today, January second. On the last business day of 1944 he attended to his duties waiting on customers at Stratton's C. Ltd. as usual. He is probably the oldest active resident of Summerside.

FUNERAL AT MILTON - The funeral of the late Mrs. George C. Younker was held yesterday afternoon from St. John's Anglican Church, Milton. Service at the church and graves was conducted by the Rev. S. J. Davies. The pallbearers were: Ambrose Rodd, Roy Colles, John Poole, Gerald Hooper, Robert Hooper, and Harry Moore. Interment was in adjoining church cemetery.

FIRE AT THEATRE - Serious loss was narrowly averted at the Capital theatre, Summerside, yesterday when fire broke out in a discrier in the foyer about one P.M. when there was no one in the building. Fortunately the sprinkler system functioned and set off alarm. The only damage was to the chandelier. The fire was in the foyer from the sprinkler system. There might also be some smoke damage. There was no interference with the regular program of pictures for the day.

PRESENTATION - Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bryenton of Kensington, who recently moved into their new residence on Malpeque Road, were pleased to receive a Christmas Eve when their neighbors called on them to present their friends with a beautiful chair and several smaller gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Bryenton are highly esteemed in the community and their friends wish them a happy Christmas in their new home. That they may spend many happy years in it is the wish of their many friends of Malpeque Road.

4TH ANNIVERSARY - Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Ramsay of Summerside celebrated their 4th wedding anniversary yesterday. This worthy couple, formerly of Kensington, moved to Summerside a short time ago. Mrs. Ramsay, former Miss Funnis McDougall of Malpeque, became the bride of Mr. Ramsay over half a century ago. Since that time they have lived a happy industrious life and have been most favorably known throughout this portion of the County. Three sons and one daughter were born to this union. They have the best wishes of their many friends for continued years of happiness.

FORMER RESIDENT HERE - Many friends in Charlottetown were delighted to see the name of Warrant Officer Harry R. Cotton amongst those Canadians serving with the 8th Army Air Corps. They were honored just before Christmas with membership in the Order of the British Empire. Harry, whose home is in St. Peter's, Nova Scotia, enlisted as a gunner in Montreal in the early days of the war. He was shot down in the commercial college at Prince of Wales College here. While studying in Charlottetown he was with grandmother, the late Mrs. W. L. Cotton.

GUESTS OF ORGANIST - On Sunday evening the members of St. Paul's Ladies Choir, Summerside, were the guests of their organist at a Christmas supper in their home. The dining room was tastefully decorated for the occasion and as each guest was escorted to her place at the table she found a gift in her chair from Mrs. Blackford in appreciation of her part in forming the choir and conveying sincere Christmas greetings from the choir to the organist. The room was illuminated by candlelight which also seemed to express the warm and tender regard in which each member was held by the chair leader. A beautiful and appropriate gift was presented by the members of Mrs. Blackford which was much appreciated by the recipient. Later in the evening the choir gave a repeat program of Christmas carols over Station CHGS-S.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS - Guests for the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. James E. O'Connell, of Hunter River, P. E. I., Chester, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie who make their home with their daughter, Mrs. James L. LePage, celebrated Christmas with his parents for the first time in 20 years. A beautiful goose dinner was enjoyed after which gifts were exchanged. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie also celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Dec. 27th. They received gifts of money, etc.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - On December 26th, 1944, Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacPhee celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LePage in Leed, Lyndale, where they are residing for the winter months. Relatives and friends called to congratulate them and spent a very pleasant evening recalling good old times. They were showered with many beautiful cards of congratulations, also many gifts from friends and relatives far and near. They have two daughters, Mrs. MacPhee and Mrs. Frank in the U.S.A. and one son John of Upper Montague, P. E. I. and three grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The aged couple are still young at heart and through their radio follow with keen interest current events. Their

WEDNESDAY
SAFE OVERSEAS - Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McInnis, Paris, have received word from their son, Arthur McInnis, who now safe in England.

RECEIVED FLOWERS - Mrs. Douglas McEwen, Morell, received flowers for Christmas from her husband in Holland.

SEVERELY WOUNDED - Official word has been received by Cpl. Clifford Arthur Orford has been severely wounded in action overseas.

RECEIVES PROMOTION - The friends of Lieutenant William R. Cannon, R.C.N.V.R., are glad to learn that he has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant. He has been appointed as "Senior Equipment and Trials Officer (T) East Coast Cannon in the Royal Canadian Cannon in Summerside, and the late Mrs. Cannon. He enlisted shortly after the outbreak of war and received his commission from the lower deck. He spent two years in the Aleutian Islands and is at present stationed at H. M. C. S. Dock Yards, Halifax, N. S.

MR. DANIEL J. CARMICHAEL - On Sunday, November 26th, there passed away at his home in Fairville, in his 74th year. For some months previous to his death he had been in poor health and he was up and about his home every day. He was taken suddenly on the day of his death. He was attended by his physician, Dr. J. H. MacNeil, who saw that the end was near. His last moments were peaceful and he passed away peacefully. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was a devoted member of the community. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Daniel J. Carmichael, and several children.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE - The New Year's Eve dance at the Charlottetown was one of the more important local social events which ushered in the New Year. The C. Grove Training Centre furnished the music and scores of pleasure-seeking couples eager to forget even a brief smattering of the early hours of Monday morning.

SCOTT-MACNEVIN - A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Dec. 29th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard in marriage Doris Mae MacNevin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard, and Harold Brenton Scott, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Scott, Cornwall. The winsome bride looked lovely in her dress of pink sheer with long-sleeved sleeves and fitted bodice trimmed with white tulle. Her accessories were of black. Miss Norma Paul acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Harold Godfrey as groomsmen. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard. The happy young couple goes best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Among the recent retirements at the end of 1944, after a long period of service with the Canadian National Railways, were three members of the Prince Edward Island Division, who have long and successful service, and retire with the sincere good wishes from their fellow employees and the public in general. All three men have been residents of this province for many years and are well and favorably known. Mr. Cornelius Corrigan from the car shop, Parker Moore from the machine shop, and George S. Ryan, the yardmaster at Charlottetown. Mr. Arthur J. Hickey, Charlottetown, is acting yardmaster in Mr. Ryan's place. Mr. Corrigan has been in the service for thirty-nine years, most of which was spent in the division for many years. He was a member of the wrecking crew usually made up of which was in the division for many years. He is now retired in good health and looks forward to many years of enjoyment of his well earned leisure. He is an enthusiastic gardener and well versed in the art, and the residents of Greenfield Ave. are already magnificently gardened.

Mr. Parker Moore has been in the service for four years, and served most of that time in the machine and erecting shops. He also enjoys good health, and is a well known and popular member of the community. He is now retired in good health and looks forward to many years of enjoyment of his well earned leisure. He is an enthusiastic gardener and well versed in the art, and the residents of Greenfield Ave. are already magnificently gardened.

RETURN TO HOSPITAL - Lieut. Jacques Gallant, who is a returning officer of Cpl. and Mr. Edmond D. Gallant, who had her elbow badly smashed in an electric winch, returned to the hospital for treatment after spending Christmas with her parents in North Rustico.

HOME ON LEAVE - Lt. Harry S. Weston, R.C.A.F., who is at present stationed in St. John's, Nfld., is spending a three week tour of duty at home with his wife, Mrs. Laura Mair, and his mother, Mrs. Harry Weston, resident in Georgetown, P. E. I.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS - Guests for the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. James E. O'Connell, of Hunter River, P. E. I., Chester, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie who make their home with their daughter, Mrs. James L. LePage, celebrated Christmas with his parents for the first time in 20 years. A beautiful goose dinner was enjoyed after which gifts were exchanged. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie also celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Dec. 27th. They received gifts of money, etc.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - On December 26th, 1944, Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacPhee celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LePage in Leed, Lyndale, where they are residing for the winter months. Relatives and friends called to congratulate them and spent a very pleasant evening recalling good old times. They were showered with many beautiful cards of congratulations, also many gifts from friends and relatives far and near. They have two daughters, Mrs. MacPhee and Mrs. Frank in the U.S.A. and one son John of Upper Montague, P. E. I. and three grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The aged couple are still young at heart and through their radio follow with keen interest current events. Their many friends wish them continued good health and happiness in the remainder of their years together.

HAD TELEPHONE CALL - Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd Spears, Summerside, had the pleasure on New Year's Day of a telephone call from their son, Heath, who is in England. He called up to wish his parents the compliments of the season, and the call came through perfectly.

RECEIVES PROMOTION - The friends of Lieutenant William R. Cannon, R.C.N.V.R., are glad to learn that he has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant. He has been appointed as "Senior Equipment and Trials Officer (T) East Coast Cannon in the Royal Canadian Cannon in Summerside, and the late Mrs. Cannon. He enlisted shortly after the outbreak of war and received his commission from the lower deck. He spent two years in the Aleutian Islands and is at present stationed at H. M. C. S. Dock Yards, Halifax, N. S.

MR. DANIEL J. CARMICHAEL - On Sunday, November 26th, there passed away at his home in Fairville, in his 74th year. For some months previous to his death he had been in poor health and he was up and about his home every day. He was taken suddenly on the day of his death. He was attended by his physician, Dr. J. H. MacNeil, who saw that the end was near. His last moments were peaceful and he passed away peacefully. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was a devoted member of the community. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Daniel J. Carmichael, and several children.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE - The New Year's Eve dance at the Charlottetown was one of the more important local social events which ushered in the New Year. The C. Grove Training Centre furnished the music and scores of pleasure-seeking couples eager to forget even a brief smattering of the early hours of Monday morning.

SCOTT-MACNEVIN - A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Dec. 29th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard in marriage Doris Mae MacNevin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard, and Harold Brenton Scott, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Scott, Cornwall. The winsome bride looked lovely in her dress of pink sheer with long-sleeved sleeves and fitted bodice trimmed with white tulle. Her accessories were of black. Miss Norma Paul acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Harold Godfrey as groomsmen. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skinnard. The happy young couple goes best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Among the recent retirements at the end of 1944, after a long period of service with the Canadian National Railways, were three members of the Prince Edward Island Division, who have long and successful service, and retire with the sincere good wishes from their fellow employees and the public in general. All three men have been residents of this province for many years and are well and favorably known. Mr. Cornelius Corrigan from the car shop, Parker Moore from the machine shop, and George S. Ryan, the yardmaster at Charlottetown. Mr. Arthur J. Hickey, Charlottetown, is acting yardmaster in Mr. Ryan's place. Mr. Corrigan has been in the service for thirty-nine years, most of which was spent in the division for many years. He was a member of the wrecking crew usually made up of which was in the division for many years. He is now retired in good health and looks forward to many years of enjoyment of his well earned leisure. He is an enthusiastic gardener and well versed in the art, and the residents of Greenfield Ave. are already magnificently gardened.

Mr. Parker Moore has been in the service for four years, and served most of that time in the machine and erecting shops. He also enjoys good health, and is a well known and popular member of the community. He is now retired in good health and looks forward to many years of enjoyment of his well earned leisure. He is an enthusiastic gardener and well versed in the art, and the residents of Greenfield Ave. are already magnificently gardened.

RETURN TO HOSPITAL - Lieut. Jacques Gallant, who is a returning officer of Cpl. and Mr. Edmond D. Gallant, who had her elbow badly smashed in an electric winch, returned to the hospital for treatment after spending Christmas with her parents in North Rustico.

HOME ON LEAVE - Lt. Harry S. Weston, R.C.A.F., who is at present stationed in St. John's, Nfld., is spending a three week tour of duty at home with his wife, Mrs. Laura Mair, and his mother, Mrs. Harry Weston, resident in Georgetown, P. E. I.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS - Guests for the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. James E. O'Connell, of Hunter River, P. E. I., Chester, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie who make their home with their daughter, Mrs. James L. LePage, celebrated Christmas with his parents for the first time in 20 years. A beautiful goose dinner was enjoyed after which gifts were exchanged. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. MacKenzie also celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary on Dec. 27th. They received gifts of money, etc.

50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY - On December 26th, 1944, Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacPhee celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LePage in Leed, Lyndale, where they are residing for the winter months. Relatives and friends called to congratulate them and spent a very pleasant evening recalling good old times. They were showered with many beautiful cards of congratulations, also many gifts from friends and relatives far and near. They have two daughters, Mrs. MacPhee and Mrs. Frank in the U.S.A. and one son John of Upper Montague, P. E. I. and three grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The aged couple are still young at heart and through their radio follow with keen interest current events. Their WEDDING BELLS - St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when the Rev. G. G. Harrison officiated in marriage Marion Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barclay, St. Eleanor's, and John H. Dawson of Albany. The bride looking charming in a black sequin gown with red accessories, entered the church on the arm of her father to strains of "The Wedding March". The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Roy Sien also in black sequin gown with red accessories. The groom was attended by his brother Clifford. During the signing of the register the choir sang "The Wedding March". Following the ceremony the happy couple left on a short wedding trip to points of interest in the San Juan Islands, and the best wishes of a host of friends and relatives. Previous to the wedding the bride and groom were given a miscellaneous shower given by her many friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tanton where she received many beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass, linen and many other useful articles. On their return to the bride and groom neighbours assembled to do honor to the newly married couple.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

THE DEATH YESTERDAY at Souris, of Mr. W. J. Cheverie has revealed to those who up to three years ago, when he retired from business, was a prominent figure in business circles throughout the Province. He was also widely known in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick where he served at various times as a S. L. Cheverie was born in Souris, P. E. I., and was a veteran of the last war and was previously enlisted for overseas service in the Canadian Army. He had passed examinations as a master plumber. He went to England in 1914 and served in the Canadian Army and unit, and while there was promoted Captain.

LAI TO REST - The funeral of Mrs. Francis McCarron was held yesterday morning from her late residence 85 Fitzroy Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Louis Dougan who also conducted service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. D. J. Riley, James Baglole, F. V. Robin, Harry Murphy, A. Farmer and William M. Flynn.

FURTHER PARTICULARS - Mrs. Ada Matheson of Clyde River has received the following information from Ottawa. The Minister of Defence wishes to inform you that P.6067 Pte. Franklin Miller Matheson, previously reported wounded in action, now reported shell fragment wound, compound fracture right radius. If any information becomes available it will be forwarded as soon as received.

FUNERAL SERVICES - The funeral of Mrs. James Fraser was held yesterday morning from Frank Hennessey's Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. R. V. McKenzie, rector of St. Dunstan's University. The pallbearers were Messrs. Donald N. McKenna, J. J. Duffy, Eugene Kelly, D. J. Noonan, Robert Bradley and William Fraser. The service was conducted by Rev. K. McMillan.

THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. Alex K. MacKenzie, Melville was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, November, twenty-second at six o'clock when their daughter Margaret Grace was united in marriage to James Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald N. McKenna of Point Prim. The bride, wearing a floor length dress of white printed shear and shoulder length veil and carrying a bouquet of red roses, entered the living room in the arm of her father, to the strains of "The Wedding March" played by Mrs. John MacEchtern.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg was removed one of its ablest teachers in Summerside on the excellent staff of the Prince of Wales College. Miss Hugg was born at Murray Harbour 46 years ago, and was educated at the P.E.I. Hospital and at the P.E.I. College. She was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff and was a member of the P.E.I. Hospital staff.

THE DEATH OF THE P.E.I. Hospital yesterday of Miss Edith Hugg