WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral at an early hour yesterday morning when Miss Jennie Loneragan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Loneragan, was united in marriage to Mr. Albert E. Wilson, city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Maurice McDonald. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mollie Loneragan and Mr. Julian Keoughan supported the groom. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a wedding trip to Boston and New York. Their many friends join with The Guardian in hearty congratulations.

NORRIS-MCKINSTRY WEDDING.—Dodsland was the scene of a very pretty and quiet wedding on Wednesday, April 16, when Lena Pearl, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McKinstry, Dodsland, Sask., was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Henry Norris, of Broadacres. They were attended by Miss Alice Jones and Mr. William McClurg, both of Kelfield. The Rev. Mr. Challis officiated. After the ceremony they motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding supper was served, the closest relatives and friends of the bride and groom being present. Miss McKinstry was formerly of Mayfield, P. E. I. Mr. Norris being of Brantford, Ont. The happy couple will reside in their new home near Kelfield.

A PLEASING EVENT.—On the evening of June the 4th a most interesting event took place in the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil W. McLeod, Orwell. The occasion was the marriage of the daughter of the home, Miss Evelyn to John Otis McLeod, of Uigg. The home was well filled with an interested group of the friends of the contracting parties. At sharp 8 o'clock while Miss Ada McLeod, of Montague, a cousin of the bride played a wedding march, the groom led by the pastor of the bride Dr. Ewen, entered the parlor and stood under an arch beautifully festooned with apple blossoms. A moment later the bride led by her father took her place by the side of the groom and the vows were exchanged which made them husband and wife. The double ring ceremony being used. The bride tall and stately was most magnificently gowned in white chiffon over white satin wearing an elaborate veil of old lace, and carrying a bouquet of American beauty roses and ferns. The occasion lent a dignity to her bearing and an added beauty to her appearance which always wears the flush of modesty. Mr. McLeod wore the conventional color and looked his best. Both young people have grown from childhood in the community and are worthily popular. The presents to the bride were beautiful and valuable, among
