Mrs. Peter Murray, 82-year-old Charlottetown resident who died unexpectedly Sunday will be buried at Tyrone in her former parish tomorrow morning it was announced last night. Mrs. Murray became suddenly ill on Bayfield Street Sunday morning while returning to her Elm Avenue home from the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where she attended service. She died in an ambulance en route to hospital from a house where she was carried following her collapse.

Mrs. Murray was the widow of Peter Murray, former resident whose death occurred about a year ago. Before her marriage she was Mary Ellen Connolly of Lot 65. Surviving are four sons, Gerard and Patrick in Charlottetown, Leo in Augusta, Maine, and Peter in Detroit.

Both sons are expected to arrive tonight for the money funeral which will be held tomorrow morning from the residence of her son Gerard, 290 Grafton Street, at 8:30 to St. Ann's Church, Tyrone, where service will be held at 9:30.

—NEWLYWEDS SHOWERED—About sixty friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Drummond, South Freetown, on Thursday evening, Sept. 30th to tender a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Wadman, Kensington, who were married recently. Mr. Wadman formerly lived in Freetown. As the wedding march was played by Mrs. Edison Dammalier, the bride and groom were seated under a beautiful pink and white arch. The gifts were opened by Mrs. Alfred Reeves and Miss Addie Drummond and the accompanying verses were read by Miss Alice Drummond, while Miss Winnie Leard arranged them on the table, after which Mr. Wadman on behalf of the bride and groom, thanked everyone for their lovely gifts. All joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was then served by Mrs. Drummond, assisted by Mrs. E. Dammalier, Mrs. A. E. Stetson, Mrs. Wm. Rogers, and Miss Alice Drummond. The remainder of the evening was spent in social chat.

The County Court, first circuit, Alberton, was in session last Friday, it being the adjourned October term.

In the absence of Judge Inman, Judge C. Gavin Duffy of Charlottetown presided. There was a very large docket, and after the debt and garnishee cases had been disposed of, the Court remained in session until nine o'clock that evening in order to clean up the docket. The most important cases were that of Alfred Perry vs. Joseph J. Perry, an action for money lent and for wages, the claim being $500.00, a claim for wages by a son against the father, without a contract being made, the son residing with the father. In this case the plaintiff was not suited. The case of George D. Warren vs. Emerson Matthews was an action for $75.00 for the killing of a registered Holstein cow by the plaintiff's truck in July last, evidence disclosed that the cow had got out of the pasture during the night.

Much interest was taken in this case which occupied some time. Judgment was given for the plaintiff for $75.00 and costs.

In the case of Lawrence Gavin vs. Fanny Dawson and another, action of debt disputed, judgment was given for the plaintiff for $36.25 and costs.

An action for wages was partly tried and adjourned until March for further evidence.

There was also a case tried of a teacher against the trustees of a nearby district school, for failing to pay their supplement and deficiency owing to shortage in average attendance in which judgment was given for the plaintiff.

Quite a number of former friends and neighbours as well as the immediate relatives gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to one who had many friends in this province and whom to know was to incur a loss. The services were mourned by a large circle of friends who always referred to her as Aunt Jessie on account of her kindly manner and loving disposition. The pallbearers were her two grandsons, Alex. and Tupper Strang, of New Brunswick, and her two granddaughters, Mrs. E. L. Wainwright, Linkletter, Northam, James G. MacLean, Lot 16 and Mr. Willard Leard and Mr. Eldon Campbell of Borden. P. E. I.—Boston papers please copy.—S.

The funeral of the late Rev. Ever MacDougall, B.D., Minister of the Church of Scotland in Prince Edward Island, was held on Saturday last and was one of the largest ever seen in this province. The funeral services were under the direction of the Elders and were conducted by the Rev. Richard Westaway of the Church of Scotland at Cambridge, Mass. A private service was held at his late home, Upper Hillsboro Street, at which Rev. Hugh Miller, president of the Ministerial Association and Rev. H. D. Raymond of St. Paul's Church assisted.

The funeral cortege left the MacLean Funeral Home at noon for De-Sable and included over fifty autos, while at the church as many more from other parts of the province were parked. The church was crowded to overflowing, and many mourners failed to gain admission. An impressive funeral service was carried through, opening with the reading of scripture by the Rev. Hugh Miller. The 23rd and 121st Psalms were sung led by elder Silas A. Murley, and the assembly was led in prayer by elders George MacDougall of the Cambridge congregation and Capt. F. J. G. MacDougall of Belle River.

Rev. Mr. Westaway delivered an address of comfort and consolation to the bereaved family, relatives, and congregations. The benedictory prayer was pronounced by the Rev. H. D. Raymond. The ceremony at the grave was conducted by the members of The Brothers Lodge A. F. & A. M. and the pall bearers were Fred Robertson and Joshua Ballem of Birch Hill; John A. MacDougall and Albert MacDougall of Arsyde Shore; Edward MacDougall, Augustine Cove; and James Cairns of Summerside.

Some thirty elders from the various congregations were the honorary pallbearers. A profusion of floral tributes from all parts of this province and from abroad testified to the love and sympathy accorded the large number of bereaved.

BRANT LOCATES MOTOR BOAT—The C. G. S. Brant left Charlottetown early Monday morning in response to a call telling of a motor adrift somewhere in the Northumberland Strait between Wood Islands and Pictou. Last night advice from Pictou said the Brant found the boat, the Elizabeth Mac from Highbank P. E. I. hauled up on the shore at Louden's Beach, five miles from Pictou undergoing repairs.

Prince Edward Islanders spent Thanksgiving Day in-doors yesterday as a 30-mile-an-hour gale brought more than one inch of rainfall to the Province. An eight-mile breeze from the north-east in the early morning increased to a gale during the day and shifted to the north towards evening. Mr. Warren Burns, meteorologist at the Charlottetown Experimental Station said last night. Temperature was constant all day at 44 degrees.

The storm caused postponement of an opening Maritime playdowns softball game and the opening of No damage was reported last night.
