MISSED WALLET FOUND

HALIFAX, Jan. 2 — (CP) — When Thomas Rideout, Halifax stevedore, lost his wallet while loading a ship in port here last September, he thought that would be the end of it. But crewmen—unloading the vessel in the United Kingdom—came across the lost article and placed it in the hands of the ship's officers. Rideout received the wallet by mail yesterday from a United States' where the ship docked on its return Atlantic voyage.

Intact were $110 and Rideout's wallet and passport.

Church at St. Andrews, just west of Bristol, beyond repair and stoves will be used to heat the large church for this winter.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HENRY T. BURGOYNE

There passed peacefully away at North Granville on December 28th Mrs. Henry T. Burgoyne in her 77th year, after a short period of ill health followed by a paralytic stroke from which she did not recover.

She was the daughter of the late George Mallett and is survived by her husband, three sons—Clavin at home, Milton and George of Waterbury, Conn., and one daughter Mrs. Wallace L. Coles, South Milton; also six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The family were at her bedside when she passed away; Milton and George having arrived by plane. The late Mrs. Burgoyne had resided at Granville for the past thirty-four years and was highly esteemed for her genial personality and kindly disposition. She was everybody's friend and her passing will be keenly felt throughout the community.

The funeral was held on Thursday 30th from her late home to the North Granville United Church; service conducted by Rev. D. J. Morrison, interment in the Church cemetery. Pallbearers: Ira Mallett, Cecil Mallett, James Taper, Edward Graham, Everett Taylor, Fred Taylor.

MR. THOMAS CLAIR

The death occurred at Monticello on December 23, 1943 of Thomas Clair in his 46th year. The deceased was in failing health some years ago as a result of wounds received in the Great War at the battle of Vimy Ridge and had spent several years in the 103th Battalion.

He spent the past seven years with his sister Mrs. Jean Collings following the death of his mother Mrs. Catherine Clair. His father John Clair predeceased him some years ago. During his illness he was frequently visited by his pastor Rev. Owen Kiggins.

He leaves to mourn four sisters, Mrs. James Collings, Monticello, Mass.; Mrs. Jas. Leonard and Mrs. R. Robertson, Mass.; also three sons, John MacHugh of Monticello, Fred Clair, Malden, Mass., and Michael Clair, Cambridge, Mass.

The funeral was held from the home of his sister Mrs. James Collings to St. Mary's Church on Sunday, December 27th, at 10 o'clock. The grave was conducted by Rev. Owen Kiggins.

Pallbearers were: A. F. Campbell, Russel MacGregor, Wallace Collings, Howard MacCarroll, James Stewart, and Denis Collings, Jr.

MR. JAMES COLLINS

The community of Alliston and vicinity was greatly saddened by the passing of James Collins in the Montague Hospital on November 26th. The late Mr. Collins was born at Harberville, N. S., 80 years ago, the son of Geo. and Mary Ann Collins. He came to Alliston as a young man where he has made his home ever since, and where he was in very successful farmer. Mr. Collins always had a very active interest in any cause for the betterment of the community and the enrichment of human life. His own stirring character was an inspiration to all who knew him. His kind and generous and thoughtful ways of others, the friend of little children wherever he met them. He was an Elder of the United Church at Murray River. In this capacity he was a loyal and devoted churchman, always willing to do his part, and more.

Over fifty years ago the late Mr. Collins married Janet Nicholson of Alliston, who survives him. Their happy home, through all these years, and in spite of the fact that four of their five children have died, was a bright spot in the entire community. Their love for each other, and their devotion to each other were often spoken of by their neighbours and friends. He leaves to mourn, besides his wife, one son.

Quite a number of loads of potatoes, when shipped from here on Saturday, were damaged by frost. The potatoes to Mr. McEwen's warehouse here and the large transfer of Dixwell and Rossiter moved them to Morrell for loading into refrigerator cars.—B.

Mrs. John Lapierre has returned from a short visit from the Magdalen Islands.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sinnott on the arrival of a baby girl at the Charlottetown Hospital.

Mrs. P. R. Sinnott and Miss Mabel O'Brien were recent visitors to the city.

An effort is being made here by the management of the Morrell Credit Union to have study clubs again meet weekly this winter to study the credit union and co-operative movement.
