HIS TROUBLE ENDED

Toronto Man Happy Through the aid of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

William Carveth, of 179 George Street, Toronto, is a happy man. He is a healthy man which is but another way of saying the same thing

On a man with a perfect digestion and enough to eat, trouble sits lightly. His appetite is good, he relishes his food, and the pure, bounding blood of well digested nourishment that feeds his muscles and nerves, keep him in a natural state of buoyancy and good spirit. Happy is the man with a good digestion.

On the other hand miserable indeed is the lot of sufferers from Dyspepsia. He looks at everything with smoked-glasses. Life is dark, gloomy, unhappy. Not only is he actually in wretched health but his mind is affected. He becomes morbid, nervous, sour irritable, unable to find pleasure in anything, a dissatisfaction to himself and his friends.

To such people this advice is earnestly tendered—use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Dodd's Dysyepsia Tablets do away with all troubles of digestion. They attend to the duty of digesting the food themselves thus saving the stomach which is thus enabled to rest and get well. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have proved successful wherever introduced and they are now known all over the world. He in ·lette from Toronto, the place where Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets were first put on the market, and where they have for years been almost universally used.

"I have been troubled for a year," writes William Carveth, 179 George Street, Toronto, "with Dyspepsia and Headache. I could get nothing to help me. I was told of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets by a friend who persuaded me to try them. I have since used two boxes and I am now cured of this miserable disease. I can eat any kind of food and never feel anything of the disease coming back."

BREACH OF MANNERS.

When the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall left Christ Church Cathedral last Sunday morning after service the congregation lined up on either side of the exit. As the Duke entered his carriage the crowd broke into a hearty cheers led by one of the prominent church officials. A moment later they looked into eaeh other's faces somewhat con sciene ce stricken at their ill-timed enthusiasm. The next moment they had satisfied their conscience with the honesty of their demonstration.—Ottawa Ex.

PRINCE CHING'S SARCASM.

Cleveland Pain Dealer: Probably there is a layer of Oriental sarcasm in the remarks of Prince Ching when he says that he is truly grateful because the wood work of the interior of the imperial palaces was not carted off with the rest of the loot, if the walls had disappeared with the bric-abrac and the books and jewels, there is no doubt the Prince would have found occasion for thanking the Chiistian powers for leaving the hole that was once the cellar.

BENUMBED LIMBS.

A Trouble Resembling Paralysis in its Effects.

The Victim Loses Strength in His Limbs and is Usually to do Any Work—The Story of a Former Suffer r, Showing How This Numbness Can be Overcome.

From "The Whig." Kinston, Ont.

There are few men in the city of Kingston better known than Mr. H. S. Johnson, the genial proprietor of the "Bon Ton" barber parlor, on Brock street. For several years he had been in failing health, being obliged to give over the entire work of his busy shop to his assistants. But this spring his health is so wonderfully improved that his many friends have been congratulating him on his restoration of the Whig recently, Mr. Johnson had the following to say cerning his illness and cure:—"For many months I was practically paralyzed. Numbness took possession of my limbs, especially of my hands. From my hips down my body was without strength, and despite all that I could do. I am unable to keep my hands and feet from becoming icy cold. My appetite left me, and soon I had to give up work. My general health was of course failing, and I lost flesh. As you know, I am sixty-five years of age, and when a man loses strength at that age, it is a bard thing to build him up again. I tried several kinds of medicines, but they all failed to benefit me. The doctors whom I consulted were also unable to help me. I was growing discouraged when some of my old customers advised me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. At first I refused for I did not believe any medicine on earth could help me, but at last friendly persuasion has its effect, and I bought a supply of the pills and began taking them. I soon found that they were benefitting me, and so continued their use until Dr. Williams Pink Pills have made me a new man, to feel stronger and better day by day; I am able to attend to my old customers without the least trouble. I consider the pills my best friend, and would not be without them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the friend of the weak and ailing. They surpass all other medicine in their tonic, strengthening qualities, and make weak and despondent people bright, active and healthy. These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or can be had by mail, postpaid at 50 cents per box, or six boxes $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
