In Memoriam

MRS. PHILIP FLYNN

There passed away at her home on St. Peters Road, Cardigan on December 10th Sarah Flynn, widow of the late Philip Flynn at the age of 55 years. Deceased has been in failing health for the past eight weeks but no one expected the end was so near. The late Mrs. Flynn was a woman of kind and generous disposition, her memory will long be cherished by her family. There are left to mourn beside her four sisters and two brothers five sons and four daughters, John in East Weymouth, Mass.; Martin in Newbury, port, Mass.; Mrs. Ermon Gillan, William and James residing in Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Edd Kelly, Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. J. J. Fogarty, Glenfanning, P. E. I.; Joseph and Catherine at home. All her family excepting Martin were present at her funeral. Her funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at All Saints Church, Cardigan. The services were performed by her pastor Rev. P. Gillis who also visited her in her illness. The pallbearers were Jas Quinn, Pius MacMillan, Patk. Fogarty, Sigsworth Donald McPherson and Daniel Docherty. May her soul rest in peace.

MISS KATHERINE MacKENZIE

There passed away peacefully at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Thursday, December 11th Miss Katherine MacKenzie of Flat River, at the age of 76 years. Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Hector MacKenzie, and was for many years a successful nurse in the Western States. For the last few years she had lived with her brother, Capt. H. K. MacKenzie of Flat River. She was a woman of unusually deep christian character, devoted to her church and to the service of her Master. She leaves to mourn two brothers, Capt. R. K. MacKenzie, and Mr. Finlay MacKenzie, both of Flat River, and two sisters, Mrs. Edward MacRae of Pihette and Mrs. D. A. MacLeod of Eldon. The funeral service was held on Saturday, December 13th in the Belfast Presbyterian Church of which the deceased was for many years a devoted member, and interment took place in the beautiful cemetery nearby.

MRS. MARY ANN MacDONALD

The death took place at Glen Marlin on November 20th of Mrs. Mary Ann Macdonald, Mrs. Macdonald whose maiden name was Mary Ann MacLeod, was born in Dundee, seventy three years ago. She first married Mr. Murdoch Gillis who died thirty six years ago. Her second husband was John Macdonald who predeceased her eleven years. She took ill last April, and was confined to her bed from that time. She bore her sickness patiently, always saying, if it were the Lord's will to call her home, she was resigned to His Will. Mrs. Macdonald had a happy frame of mind, always looking at the bright side of life. She left no enemies, her nature was to be the friend of all who did the right. She left to mourn one daughter, Mrs. Jack MacLennan, and one son, Murdoch Gillis, both of Quinn, Mass.; also six grand children and one sister, Mrs. Gillis, Flat River and five brothers. In the absence of her pastor the funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. W. H. Sweet, Murray River. She was a member of the Caledonia congregation and buried in that cemetery. (Patriot please copy.)

MRS. JAMES REID

On Saturday morning, Dec. 13th the soul of Mrs. James Reid, of Hope River, departed to its eternal reward after being fortified in the Holy Rites of the Catholic Church by her loving pastor, Father Gaudet, who attended and comforted her many times during her illness. She had been crippled with rheumatism for many years and had always borne her sufferings with calm fortitude and resignation to the will of God. She had never been heard to complain but had a smile and comforting word for all. Indeed to be in her company was to forget all one's trials, troubles and to marvel at her wonderful light-heartedness. Although a cripple she still was deeply interested in all things pertaining to church matters and community affairs. She had been confined to her bed, constantly for the last few months but secured the same as usual till a few days before her death when she took the turn and gradually sank until she breathed her last surrounded by her sorrowing husband and children.

On Monday morning the funeral procession, followed by a large concourse of friends who came to pay their last rites to the dead, wended its way to St. Anne's Church where the funeral Mass and services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Father Gaudet, and all that remained of a loving wife and mother was laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pall bearers were: Thomas Hughes, John T. Trainor, Thomas Boiger, Harry Hughes, Joseph Reid and Clau Reid. There are left to mourn her husband three sons, Leo, living on a homestead nearby, Walter and James at home; six daughters: Mrs. Harry Hughes, of Norboro; Teresa, Laura, Agnes, Katherine, at home, and Marion, teacher of St. Patrick's Road School, and also her father, Felix Hughes, Mrs. Thomas Hughes, and Mrs. Melinda Murphy, of Emerald, and Mrs. Michael Reid, of Ovondale to whom we extend our sincere sympathy. May her soul rest in peace.
