

COURNERS BUDGET FOR TUESDAY

MONDAY

RETURNED HOME—Mrs. J. A. MacArthur attended the convocation exercises of the University of Ottawa where her daughter, Hildred, a student, Mrs. MacArthur and Miss Hildred have now returned home.

DOING NICELY—Miss Dorothy Callbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Callbeck, Summerside, is progressing favorably after recent operation in the Prince George Hospital.

VISITING IN SYDNEY—Mrs. A. B. L. Horne of Summerside, accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Parker, in her visit to Sydney, N. S., and will spend some time there. Mrs. Parker has been visiting her parents for the past few days.

MOTORED FROM VANCOUVER—Mrs. D. R. Morrison accompanied by her sister, Mrs. McCutcheon, motored from Vancouver, B. C., to Mrs. Morrison's home in Charlottetown, arriving here last Thursday. Mrs. Morrison has been visiting in the west for some months. Her sister, Mrs. McCutcheon will be her guest for a short time.

RETURNED TO CAMPBELLTON—Mr. Vernon Ramsay, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Ramsay, who was killed in the last week has returned to his home in Campbellton, N. B. While in Summerside he attended the annual meeting of the firm of Sinclair and Stewart, Ltd. of which his late father was president at the time of his death.

FORMER MALPEQUE RESIDENT PASSES—Word has been received of the death in Winnipeg on May 18th of Mrs. W. MacLeod, widow of the late W. MacLeod, former Post Office Inspector at Winnipeg. Mrs. MacLeod was formerly Mary E. Beattie and a sister of the late G. T. Beattie of Malpeque.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED—Mr. G. T. Beattie of Malpeque has received word by telegram of the death of his son, Mr. S. Scott, formerly Connie K. Ramsay, who passed away in Vernon Hospital on Friday, May 19th. Mrs. John MacWilliams, director of the hospital, Mr. G. W. Ramsay of Malpeque is a brother.

CONGRATULATIONS—Mr. John Downing, son of Mrs. Downing of Summerside and the late H. M. Downing is receiving the congratulations of his friends on winning the Canadian Legion Scholarship as fourth year student at Prince of Wales College. Mr. Downing also received an honor diploma. Miss Geraldine Darby daughter of Mr. H. A. Darby, Summerside was awarded the same diploma. Miss Darby is a 4th year student.

Friends in Summerside will be pleased to hear that Mr. Bernard Sisani, son of Mrs. W. B. Sisani, Moncton, N. B., who is now Rev. Canon Sisani former Rector of St. Mary's Church, Summerside, has been appointed as Deputy Director of the Imperial College at Oxford, England. Mr. Sisani is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick and has been in the service of the Bank of Montreal since for some time. Mrs. Sisani and son, Peter, will remain in Fredericton for some time.

IMPORTED FINE HORSE—Mr. Mont. Wright, Montague, recently imported the Cayadale stallion, Dornum Land, 2788, a dark bay horse, well marked, weighing 1600 pounds, three years old. He is grand champion at the Canada Exhibition, Vancouver, B. C., Western Washington Fair and Portland, Oregon, U.S.A.; also grand champion over Alberta and Saskatchewan. Mr. Wright is to be congratulated on bringing such an excellent animal to this province.

FUNERAL OF JOHN LEFUR—The funeral service for John Lefur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lefur, Summerside was held on Sunday, May 21st, from the home of his parents, Mrs. Lefur. Rev. Gates conducted the funeral assisted by Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, of North Bedou, who, in a short address, spoke of the qualities of the deceased and brought words of comfort to the bereaved. The Christian burial was being with sympathetic feelings by Mrs. Jack MacLeod and the choir of the Summerside Baptist Church sang the beautiful hymn "The Sands of Time" and "Safe in the arms of Jesus." Six former school mates acted as pallbearers, James Dodd, Bradford Cairns, Francis MacNeil, Alfred Matheson, Bruce and Roland Crozier. Burial was in the cemetery in the People's Cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended by sympathetic friends.

ANGEL OF DEATH VISITED THE HOME OF Mr. Joseph Gallant, Mayfield, and claimed for his own the beloved wife and mother at the age of 63. Although in failing health for some time, all hope was entertained for her recovery, but God willed it otherwise and despite all medical care and nursing she passed peacefully away on May 4th. She leaves to mourn, a grief-stricken husband, 3 sons and two daughters, who will ever mourn in the loss of a kind loving wife and affectionate mother. The sons are Howard, residing in Summerside, and Alvin, on the homestead. The daughters are Clara, Mrs. Jeremiah L. Gallant, North Rustico, Vinal, at home; also one sister residing in the United States. May her soul rest in peace.

SEVEN STUDENTS OF St. Dunstan's University here will receive their bachelor of arts degrees at the commencement exercises this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Principal speaker will be Rev. J. A. McDermott of Cardigan, P. E. I.

Those receiving B.A. degrees will be: Paul Brunette, Victoriaville, P. Q. (cum laude); Frederick Howat, Roxbury, Mass. (magna cum laude); Leonard Leckie, Cranby, P. Q. Ronald McNeil, Summerside. Charles McQuaid, Charlottetown (cum laude); Vincent North Rustico, John Sullivan, Vernon. Somerled Trainor, Bedford. Ivan Walsh, Charlottetown.

Mr. Somerled Trainor of Bedford was in addition to the presentation of the B.A. degrees, prizes and special awards will be presented.

NOLAN—At New Haven, May 31, 1939, John Nolan aged 77 years, funeral to St. Ann's Church, Lot 85, Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

FROM EMERALD—In the list of nurses to receive diplomas at the Charlottetown Hospital last week the name of Miss Mary Vian Croken should have read from Emerald, not Kinkora as appeared.

TO SAIL FOR MAGDALENS—His Excellency Right Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of the diocese of Charlottetown and Rev. Father Monaghan, D.D., of St. Dunstan's University sail from Souris late today for the Magdalen Islands. While there Bishop O'Sullivan will hold confirmation and is expected to bless the new hospital opened at the Gulf Islands.

ATTENDING GRADUATION—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrington, Mrs. Clara Howat, Mrs. J. W. McDowell and her daughter, Mrs. Maria McDowell of Boston, arrived in the city on Friday having motored from the west. They will attend the graduation of Mrs. Howat's son, Frederick of Mr. Henry J. Fitzgerald and the Misses Emma and Kathleen Fitzgerald of this city.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. John McQuaid took place Saturday morning from his late residence, Upper Queen Street, to the Church of the Holy Redeemer. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wendall McDonald, Harry Toombs, John Hughes, Alvin Macdonald, Fred Mallett, Thomas Macdonald. Services at the church were conducted by Rev. Father Howard, C.S.S.R., and at the grave by Rev. Father Moreau, C.S.S.R.

POULTRY CLUB ORGANIZED—A Boys' and Girls' Poultry Club was organized in Indian River on Wednesday, May 10th. The following officers were elected: President, Justin MacLellan; Vice-President, John McDonald; Secretary, Dolores Gillis; Treasurer, Leslie Ramsay. Mrs. Hubert Gillis and Miss Catherine Gillis, Boys and Girls' Poultry Clubs are sponsored by Rev. Father Howard, Provincial Departments of Agriculture. A bonus of $400 is paid to each club member who purchases 10 baby chicks. The eleven members of the Indian River Club presented their appreciation of this assistance.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP—Miss Mildred Sawdon, daughter of Rev. F. W. and Mrs. Sawdon of Musquodoboit, Harlow, N. S., formerly of P. E. I., has been awarded the regional scholarship for Halifax County by Dalhousie University. Miss Sawdon is the daughter of an Islander who only went to Nova Scotia last summer. In winning this coveted scholarship over entrants from Halifax City schools, the Provincial Departments of Agriculture. A bonus of $400 is paid to each club member who purchases 10 baby chicks. The eleven members of the Indian River Club presented their appreciation of this assistance.

LEGION MEETING—A meeting of the Executive of the Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League was held on Saturday afternoon, when the club was occupied by the Provincial Chairman, Mr. George Macdonald of Montague. The President, Mr. Ernest Roberts, of Summerside was also present, as were also representatives from the Kensington, Eton and City Branches. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. George Macdonald, 218 St. Andrew's St., Charlottetown. The meeting was held on Saturday afternoon, when the club was occupied by the Provincial Chairman, Mr. George Macdonald of Montague. The President, Mr. Ernest Roberts, of Summerside was also present, as were also representatives from the Kensington, Eton and City Branches. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. George Macdonald, 218 St. Andrew's St., Charlottetown.

ISLAND WOMAN KILLED IN N. Y.—Mrs. Frank Jordan, Indian River, was killed in a motor accident near her aunt, Miss Elizabeth McKinnon was fatally injured in an automobile accident while driving from New Rochelle to Red Hook on Saturday afternoon. She died on May 12th. Miss McKinnon was in her sixty sixth year. She was accompanied by her sister Mary McKinnon, who was also injured. The Billy Jordan, who both escaped uninjured. Deceased was born in Indian River and visited her old home in Charlottetown. She leaves to mourn her sister Mary and three brothers, William, in the C. N.R. shops, Moncton, N.B.; Augustus, in Miscouche, and David, in Waltham, Mass.

JEWELLERY STORE OF Angus MacKenzie at O'Leary was burned to the ground on Sunday morning and the building and contents were a total loss. Mr. MacKenzie lost every bit of his stock except a few pieces of jewelry. The loss of his stock was $2,500. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

TUESDAY

1ST. YEAR GRADUATE—The name of Miss June Foster, Charlottetown, should have been listed for a number of years in the Prince of Wales College pass list.

WARSHIP'S COMING—Word was received from the Department of National Defense, Naval Department, Ottawa, that H.M.C.S. Skeena and Venture will pay an informal visit to Charlottetown July 16 to July 20.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Mrs. G. T. Beattie of Malpeque has received word by telegram of the death of her sister, Mrs. S. Scott, formerly Annie K. Ramsay, who passed away in Vernon Hospital on Friday, May 19th. Mrs. John MacWilliams, of Covehead, is also a sister. G. W. Ramsay of Malpeque is a brother.

Mr. Harold Pickard is in receipt of a letter from his son Charles, who is at present in the R.C.M.P. He has had an excellent and unobstructed view of their Majesties the King and Queen while they were in Ottawa.

RECEIVES DEGREE—Elmer Muttart, who received his Bachelor of Science degree at the recent convocation of Acadia University, returned home from college Saturday evening, accompanied by college friend, "Speed" Livingstone who spent the weekend with him and his parents.

Dr. C. H. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson and daughters left for Summerside where they will reside in the future. Before leaving Mrs. Johnson was presented with a new hymnal by the members of the Young People's Society of the United Church.

ISLAND LADY PASSES—Word has been received of the death in Winnipeg on May 18th of Mrs. W. MacLeod, widow of the late W. MacLeod, former Post Office Inspector at Winnipeg. Mrs. MacLeod was formerly Mary E. Beattie and a sister of the late G. T. Beattie of Malpeque.

Dr. Angus MacLeod of the West-End United States arrived in Charlottetown Friday morning on a visit to his brother Mr. Donald MacLeod, Librarian of Eton, and Mr. Malcolm MacLeod of High Bridge. The two brothers have not seen each other for many years since Dr. MacLeod visited the Island no doubt he will see many changes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coady are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl to their home. Mr. and Mrs. Coady have been spending the past winter with the family of Mr. John Coady, Mr. William Coady recently to resume his position in Ontario. Mr. Coady and family will join him at a later date.

ATTENDED ART MEETING—Mrs. P. A. Creelman of Charlottetown represented the Art Society at the annual meeting of the Maritime Art Association which opened at Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

L. O. D. E. MEETING—The closing meeting for the season of the Abegweit Chapter of the L. O. D. E. was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Creelman, on Wednesday evening, May 24th. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Creelman, on Wednesday evening, May 24th. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Creelman, on Wednesday evening, May 24th.

FUNERAL AT TIGNISH—The funeral of the late Mrs. Dalton, widow of the late Mr. Dalton, of Tignish, was held yesterday afternoon from the Church of St. John the Baptist. The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Dalton, on Wednesday afternoon, May 24th.

PASSING OF MRS. MAJOR JONES—Many friends in the Province learned with sincere regret of the death of Mrs. Major Jones, whose death occurred at her home in St. Eleanor's on Monday evening, May 22nd. Mrs. Jones was a devoted wife and mother. She was born in Charlottetown and resided in Summerside for many years. She was a member of the St. Eleanor's Church. Her funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 p.m. from the St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS—Construction was underway yesterday on a modern science building for St. Dunstan's University here. The building will be a three-story structure and is located on the south side of the driveway with its entrance opposite the portion of the building that is being built. The building will have concrete floors with asphalt finish and iron stairways. The basement will be utilized for a class room, the second floor for a physics laboratory and the third floor for a chemistry laboratory. The building will be completed by the end of the year.

There peacefully passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on May 21st, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Emma Ahearn in the 74th year of her age. About a year ago she contracted a serious malady which she never recovered from and despite the fact that she had the best of medical skill and kind nursing she gradually grew weaker until she came to her death on May 21st. She was a devoted wife and mother and was a member of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member. Her funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 p.m. from the St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's.

There peacefully passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on May 21st, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Emma Ahearn in the 74th year of her age. About a year ago she contracted a serious malady which she never recovered from and despite the fact that she had the best of medical skill and kind nursing she gradually grew weaker until she came to her death on May 21st. She was a devoted wife and mother and was a member of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member. Her funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 p.m. from the St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's.

There peacefully passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital on May 21st, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Emma Ahearn in the 74th year of her age. About a year ago she contracted a serious malady which she never recovered from and despite the fact that she had the best of medical skill and kind nursing she gradually grew weaker until she came to her death on May 21st. She was a devoted wife and mother and was a member of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member. Her funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, May 24th, at 2 p.m. from the St. John's Church, St. Eleanor's.

ment exercises of the institution. "The opportunity is yours," he told the eleven graduates who received their bachelor of arts degrees from the hands of His Excellency Right Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Charlottetown and Chancellor of the University. It did not fail to accept an assurance to the responsibility it involves," he continued.

Competition and opposition would be lacking if any of the graduates speaker reminded the graduates. "Beat your opponent in the race if you can, but do it squarely and honestly. Do not resort to any dishonest method to end your assistance." He quoted the well known statement "It to thine own self thou art first" and follows as the night the day thou dost not then be false to any man."

Those receiving bachelor of arts degrees included: Paul-Louis G. Belle (cum laude) Victoriaville, P. Q.; James Ira Higgins, Kensington, P. E. I.; Frederick Fitzgerald Howat (magna cum laude) Roxbury, Mass.; Lawrence William Landrigan, (cum laude) Cardigan, P. E. I.; Leonard Joseph McNeil, Summerside, P. E. I.; Russell McQuaid, (cum laude) Charlottetown; James Wilfred Pineau, North Rustico, P. E. I.; John Raymond Sullivan, Vernon, P. E. I.; Somerled Eugene Trainor, Bedford, P. E. I.; Ivan Vincent Walsh, Charlottetown.

Mr. Somerled Trainor was valedictorian. The program yesterday opened with "Hymns 'O Canada by the Glebe Club of the college. Then came presentation of medals and prizes followed by the annual report of Rector Rev. J. A. Creelman. The Rev. J. A. Creelman presented a selection "Happy Days Are Gliding."

WEDNESDAY

A memorial service was held in the Christian church here on Sunday morning for the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parkin. As many members of the family as possible attended the service. Favorite hymns of the late Mr. and Mrs. Parkin were sung during the service. The Rev. J. A. Creelman officiated. The service was held at the home of Mrs. Parkin, on Wednesday morning, May 24th.

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at night. The session took the form of a play at the Blue Room of the Old Spain. During the session Mrs. P. A. Creelman reported on the meeting of the Maritime Art Society at Sackville. Mrs. Creelman reported that she had accompanied the Maritime Art Society to Sackville on Friday morning. More than 100 members of the Art societies in the three provinces heard encouraging reports of the year's activities and also heard Dr. J. A. Creelman, President of the Maritime Art Association, speak on "The Place of Art in the World Today."

grievous resurrection. May her soul rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and perpetual light shine upon her.

The death occurred at Souris on the morning of Sunday, May 14th, of John McQuaid in his 70th year, leaving the memory of a devoted husband, an affectionate father and a worthy citizen.

ATTENDED ART MEETING—The following members of the P. A. Art Society attended the Maritime Art Association over the week-end in Sackville—Mrs. P. A. Creelman, Mrs. J. A. Fraser, Miss Emma MacLeod, Mrs. Robert Wood, Miss Edith P. Hugh, Miss Jennie W. Turner, Miss Berna Huestis.

RECOUNT IN SECOND QUEEN'S—The necessary affidavits having been made and the $100 deposited according to the statute, His Honour Justice Duffy yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus in the application of R. R. Bell for the Second Electoral District of Queen's to take place on June 3, when the ballot for Mr. Bell and Hon. B. W. LePage will be recounted.

DEATH OF MISS IDA MACARTHUR—The necessary affidavits having been made and the $100 deposited according to the statute, His Honour Justice Duffy yesterday granted a writ of habeas corpus in the application of R. R. Bell for the Second Electoral District of Queen's to take place on June 3, when the ballot for Mr. Bell and Hon. B. W. LePage will be recounted.

HOME ON VISIT—Rev. Father Edward Clinton arrived last night from Amarillo, Texas, and after a short stay in the city will proceed to his home at Souris for a two months' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Clinton.

WEATHER FORECAST—For June 3 to 5, rain; 6 to 11, thunder showers and warm; 12 to 16, unsettled, heavy rain; 17 to 21, fair and warm; 22 to 24, cloudy; 25 to 30, cloudy with some rain.

Miss P. M. Ayers of Sackville has arrived in the city on a few days' visit to her native province. She is accompanied by her sister, Elizabeth McKinnon who was fatally injured in a car accident while driving from New Rochelle to Red Hook on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Ayers was also in the car. Her sister, Miss McKinnon, was 66 years of age and was born at Indian River. Besides her sister, Mrs. Ayers has two other brothers, William, Moncton, N. B.; Augustus, Miscouche, P. E. I.; and David in Charlottetown. Her friends will extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved. Miss McKinnon will be kindly remembered on the Island by many old friends.

FINE SCHOOL RECORD—Last night Miss Pauline MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacDonald, Upper Queen Street, was a member of the "Excelsior" Junior Red Cross Branch, Grade IX, Rochford Square gave an address on "Junior Red Cross." Rochford Square held a meeting of the Junior Red Cross for the past several years.

INTERMENT AT MARSHFIELD—Funeral of the late James A. Ferguson was held from the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook and Rev. Harvey Bishop. Interment was at Marshfield cemetery. Rev. Mr. Haylor conducted services at the grave-site. Mr. Ferguson died at Hazelbrook on Monday. He was 77 years of age.

RETURN FROM SAD MISSION—Mrs. L. U. Lund, of this city, returned home yesterday from a sad mission to Argyle, where she had been called on account of the serious illness and subsequent death of her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Cameron, who was returning home after attending the funeral of her mother. (Moncton Times).

FUNERAL OF MRS. MCINNIS—Funeral of the late Mrs. McInnis was held yesterday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home where services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook, N. B., pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church, Pailbeers were Messrs. W. A. Stewart, John Marshall, James Calder, Murdoch Ross, Dr. Legate conducted services at the grave-site in the People's Cemetery. Mrs. McInnis died in her 97th year.

SEES CHINESE VICTORIOUS—China was becoming stronger and Japan weaker and the former was expected to win the war in the Orient, Rev. Dr. A. J. Brace, Toronto said yesterday in an interview. Dr. Brace, a member of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association is travelling secretary of the world service department. Dr. Brace who is a United Church clergyman, had been a missionary in China for twenty five years in the province of Szechuan, China. There passed away after a long illness at the Vainey on May 27th, Jennie, beloved wife of Mr. W. W. Jennie, at the age of 57 years. She leaves to mourn her husband and an only daughter Nina residing in British Columbia. A short service was held at the home of Mrs. Jennie on Monday afternoon, May 29th, at 2 o'clock. Interment took place at Campbellton, Lot 4, P. E. I. her native home.

A piano recital of unusual interest was given last night by the pupils of Mrs. G. Elliot Full at the Charlottetown Hotel. Every selection was played with perfect timing, reflecting credit on the teaching skill of Mrs. Full.

NEW RECTOR TAKES UP DUTIES—Very Rev. William J. Enright, C.S.S.R., took up his duties here yesterday as rector of the Parish, succeeding Rev. H. I. Fleming who was transferred to Ontario. Father Enright came here from Vancouver where he was pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church for the last three years. Father Enright's arrival yesterday night was in the nature of a home-coming as he was connected with the Holy Redeemer parish some years ago.

TUG GOES AGROUND—The Government Dredge and tug on their way to Tignish put in for minor repairs at Summerside on Wednesday morning. The tug ran aground on Miscouche shoals outside Summerside harbour about three o'clock in the morning, but managed to get afloat at high tide shortly after nine o'clock. The boats are to work on a Government project at Tignish, it is understood.

ILL IN MONCTON—Mr. Alfred Pickard and Mrs. Pickard of this city were in Sackville, last week attending the Convocation of Mount Allison University, of which their daughter, Freda, is a student in the first year. After the Convocation they left for Moncton where Mr. Pickard unfortunately took a severe heart attack while in one of the hotels there. His son, Walter, left Charlottetown following day to see his father, and has returned accompanied by his sister. Mrs. Pickard is remaining in Moncton with her mother, Mrs. Arthur of Ives Point and resided on the homestead with her brother Earle. There are left to mourn two brothers, Earle and Alexander of Ives Point; two sisters, Mrs. W. J. MacArthur of Enmore and Ruby in the United States. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence to Wilmot Cemetery. Rev. J. B. Wilson conducted the service at house and grave.

HOME ON VISIT—Rev. Father Edward Clinton arrived last night from Amarillo, Texas, and after a short stay in the city will proceed to his home at Souris for a two months' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Clinton.

WEATHER FORECAST—For June 3 to 5, rain; 6 to 11, thunder showers and warm; 12 to 16, unsettled, heavy rain; 17 to 21, fair and warm; 22 to 24, cloudy; 25 to 30, cloudy with some rain.

Miss P. M. Ayers of Sackville has arrived in the city on a few days' visit to her native province. She is accompanied by her sister, Elizabeth McKinnon who was fatally injured in a car accident while driving from New Rochelle to Red Hook on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Ayers was also in the car. Her sister, Miss McKinnon, was 66 years of age and was born at Indian River. Besides her sister, Mrs. Ayers has two other brothers, William, Moncton, N. B.; Augustus, Miscouche, P. E. I.; and David in Charlottetown. Her friends will extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved. Miss McKinnon will be kindly remembered on the Island by many old friends.

FINE SCHOOL RECORD—Last night Miss Pauline MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacDonald, Upper Queen Street, was a member of the "Excelsior" Junior Red Cross Branch, Grade IX, Rochford Square gave an address on "Junior Red Cross." Rochford Square held a meeting of the Junior Red Cross for the past several years.

INTERMENT AT MARSHFIELD—Funeral of the late James A. Ferguson was held from the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook and Rev. Harvey Bishop. Interment was at Marshfield cemetery. Rev. Mr. Haylor conducted services at the grave-site. Mr. Ferguson died at Hazelbrook on Monday. He was 77 years of age.

RETURN FROM SAD MISSION—Mrs. L. U. Lund, of this city, returned home yesterday from a sad mission to Argyle, where she had been called on account of the serious illness and subsequent death of her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Cameron, who was returning home after attending the funeral of her mother. (Moncton Times).

FUNERAL OF MRS. MCINNIS—Funeral of the late Mrs. McInnis was held yesterday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home where services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook, N. B., pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church, Pailbeers were Messrs. W. A. Stewart, John Marshall, James Calder, Murdoch Ross, Dr. Legate conducted services at the grave-site in the People's Cemetery. Mrs. McInnis died in her 97th year.

SEES CHINESE VICTORIOUS—China was becoming stronger and Japan weaker and the former was expected to win the war in the Orient, Rev. Dr. A. J. Brace, Toronto said yesterday in an interview. Dr. Brace, a member of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association is travelling secretary of the world service department. Dr. Brace who is a United Church clergyman, had been a missionary in China for twenty five years in the province of Szechuan, China. There passed away after a long illness at the Vainey on May 27th, Jennie, beloved wife of Mr. W. W. Jennie, at the age of 57 years. She leaves to mourn her husband and an only daughter Nina residing in British Columbia. A short service was held at the home of Mrs. Jennie on Monday afternoon, May 29th, at 2 o'clock. Interment took place at Campbellton, Lot 4, P. E. I. her native home.

SLIGHTLY INJURED IN CRASH—A car driven by Miss Mary Beahan crashed into a tree at the corner of Rochford and Euston streets about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Her father, Postmaster Wm. Beahan, who was with his daughter, received a severe shaking-up and was taken to the P. E. Island Hospital where he was kept for a short time. He was able to return to his home. The front of the car was considerably damaged. Cause of the accident was due to a break down in the steering mechanism, it is believed.

The many friends of Mr. A. E. MacLean, M. P., will be pleased to know that he is making satisfactory progress after his recent operation.

Mr. MacLean was taken ill while in Ottawa attending the parliamentary session and the doctors in Ottawa were unable to operate. The operation was quite successful and Mr. MacLean expects to be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

TUG GOES AGROUND—The Government Dredge and tug on their way to Tignish put in for minor repairs at Summerside on Wednesday morning. The tug ran aground on Miscouche shoals outside Summerside harbour about three o'clock in the morning, but managed to get afloat at high tide shortly after nine o'clock. The boats are to work on a Government project at Tignish, it is understood.

ILL IN MONCTON—Mr. Alfred Pickard and Mrs. Pickard of this city were in Sackville, last week attending the Convocation of Mount Allison University, of which their daughter, Freda, is a student in the first year. After the Convocation they left for Moncton where Mr. Pickard unfortunately took a severe heart attack while in one of the hotels there. His son, Walter, left Charlottetown following day to see his father, and has returned accompanied by his sister. Mrs. Pickard is remaining in Moncton with her mother, Mrs. Arthur of Ives Point and resided on the homestead with her brother Earle. There are left to mourn two brothers, Earle and Alexander of Ives Point; two sisters, Mrs. W. J. MacArthur of Enmore and Ruby in the United States. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence to Wilmot Cemetery. Rev. J. B. Wilson conducted the service at house and grave.

HOME ON VISIT—Rev. Father Edward Clinton arrived last night from Amarillo, Texas, and after a short stay in the city will proceed to his home at Souris for a two months' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Clinton.

WEATHER FORECAST—For June 3 to 5, rain; 6 to 11, thunder showers and warm; 12 to 16, unsettled, heavy rain; 17 to 21, fair and warm; 22 to 24, cloudy; 25 to 30, cloudy with some rain.

Miss P. M. Ayers of Sackville has arrived in the city on a few days' visit to her native province. She is accompanied by her sister, Elizabeth McKinnon who was fatally injured in a car accident while driving from New Rochelle to Red Hook on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Ayers was also in the car. Her sister, Miss McKinnon, was 66 years of age and was born at Indian River. Besides her sister, Mrs. Ayers has two other brothers, William, Moncton, N. B.; Augustus, Miscouche, P. E. I.; and David in Charlottetown. Her friends will extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved. Miss McKinnon will be kindly remembered on the Island by many old friends.

FINE SCHOOL RECORD—Last night Miss Pauline MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacDonald, Upper Queen Street, was a member of the "Excelsior" Junior Red Cross Branch, Grade IX, Rochford Square gave an address on "Junior Red Cross." Rochford Square held a meeting of the Junior Red Cross for the past several years.

INTERMENT AT MARSHFIELD—Funeral of the late James A. Ferguson was held from the MacLean Funeral Home yesterday afternoon. Services were conducted by the Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook and Rev. Harvey Bishop. Interment was at Marshfield cemetery. Rev. Mr. Haylor conducted services at the grave-site. Mr. Ferguson died at Hazelbrook on Monday. He was 77 years of age.

RETURN FROM SAD MISSION—Mrs. L. U. Lund, of this city, returned home yesterday from a sad mission to Argyle, where she had been called on account of the serious illness and subsequent death of her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Cameron, who was returning home after attending the funeral of her mother. (Moncton Times).

FUNERAL OF MRS. MCINNIS—Funeral of the late Mrs. McInnis was held yesterday afternoon from the MacLean Funeral Home where services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Haylor of Hazelbrook, N. B., pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church, Pailbeers were Messrs. W. A. Stewart, John Marshall, James Calder, Murdoch Ross, Dr. Legate conducted services at the grave-site in the People's Cemetery. Mrs. McInnis died in her 97th year.

SEES CHINESE VICTORIOUS—China was becoming stronger and Japan weaker and the former was expected to win the war in the Orient, Rev. Dr. A. J. Brace, Toronto said yesterday in an interview. Dr. Brace, a member of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association is travelling secretary of the world service department. Dr. Brace who is a United Church clergyman, had been a missionary in China for twenty five years in the province of Szechuan, China. There passed away after a long illness at the Vainey on May 27th, Jennie, beloved wife of Mr. W. W. Jennie, at the age of 57 years. She leaves to mourn her husband and an only daughter Nina residing in British Columbia. A short service