Celebrates 40th Anniversary

The following is taken from a /isconsin paper, Oct. 6th.

The Rev. Mr. MacInnis, and Mrs. lacInnis will celebrate their 0th wedding anniversary here ext Thursday, Oct., 13th, when ney will hold open house to their iends from 2 to 5 and from 7.30 10 p. m. in their home at 30 outh Madison Street. No personal ıvitations are being sent, but all re invited.

The Rev. Mr MacInnis, pastor of ne local Methodist church was orn on Prince Edward Island here he lived on a farm with his arents until 12 years of age. He as left an orphan when 13 years ld and at 15 became a lumber-ick working in the New Brunswick oods.

In the spring of that year he be-ame a sailor on an old wind jam-ner and was mate when he was 19 ears of age. At 20 he left the sea nd became engaged in bridge uilding, later being given charge a small bridge crew in Kansas. or a few months he was engaged a detective work, but the lure of ne Golden West called him and fter living a cowboy's life for a hort time, he became a gold and opper miner in Montana. He was men about 23 years old and when he became foreman in the gold edine in which he worked.

The pastor was converted when years old, or rather "reclaimed". e had made a start in the Chris-in life in the McCauley mission New York City while he was a ailor. After attending a mission chool in Portland, Ore., for a few onths, the Rev. Mr. MacInnis be-an to preach. He became ac-uainted with Mrs. MacInnis, for-erly Miss Millie Pauline Lueck, Butte, Mont., and they were arried in Des Moines, Ia., on Oct., , 1892.

The couple continued in evange-stic work for three years and at e age of 30 the pastor entered e Lawrence University academy Appleton, Wis., graduating three ears later. He then entered Law-ence college, Appleton, receiving is B. A. degree four years later. In 903 he became a graduate student Northwestern university and at e Garrett Bibilcal institute in vanston, Ill. He received his Ph. D. egree at Oskaloosa college, Oska-loosa, Ia., 12 years later.

Dr. MacInnis has been a mem-ar of the Wisconsin Conference of e Methodist Episcopal Church nce 1901. During his college days e served as student pastor taking is first Wisconsin pastorate in 895. He joined the Odd Fellows dge shortly after he was convert-d and has since taken all of the egrees in masonry up to and in-luding the 32nd degree.

Mrs. MacInnis was born in Ger-any and came to Wisconsin with er parents when four years of ge, settling on a farm near Mon-e. She started out in evangelistic ission work when but 17 years of ge, and in 1891 conducted a reli-ious meeting in Butte, Mont., at hich the Rev. Mr. MacInnis was convert. While her husband was ursuing his college studies at Ap-leton, Mrs. MacInnis took a ourse in Literature and history ere.

The Rev. and Mrs. MacInnis ave two children, Earl Carlyle acInnis, a graduate student and structor at Yale University, New aven, Conn., and Miss Myra Law-an MacInnis, a teacher in the istory department of the Water-wn high school. Both are gradu-es of Lawrence college and each ave received M. A. degrees at she niversity of Wisconsin.

Forty Years on the Matrimonial Sea

ull forty years upon the stream of time
e rowed our matrimonial bark;
hrough bitter storms, or in sunny clime ill rowed, ours not a drifting ark.

or did we take our ease and mere-ly dream,
wake, we made our dreams come true;
ead winds, high waves, and stormy gales abeam
d not prevent our sailing through.

ur crew augmented by dear child-ren two,
oon made our sun shine brighter still;
pleasing voyage, yet with com-forts few,
e hail'd our tasks with right good will.

ill o'er the stream of life we gaily sail,
smoother now this restless sea;
hile in our wake we leave a pleasant trail
kindly deeds in memory.

... sense approaching even-ing sun,
Regretful that work here soon ends;
In future joys we'll find we've just begun
An active life among our friends.

Till then, welcome the chance for kindly deeds,
Welcome responsibility;
Welcome the heavenly light that leads —Sailing our matrimonial sea.

Tryon and Vicinity

Wonderful weather for the middle of November, giving the farmers ample time to clean up the fall's work. However, it is well to "make hay while the sun shines," as a change may be expected soon.

Mrs. T. Waite, of Summerside, has been on a visit to the home of her sister, Mrs. Lang, of North Tryon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, of Albany, accompanied by Miss Winnie Ross, were visitors to Tryon Sunday evening.

Mrs. John MacQuarrie and little son, of Hampton, have been spending a few days in Tryon West, the guest of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mabey, of New Glasgow, P. E. I., were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mabey, of Tryon, on Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Howatt, of Carleton, has returned home, after spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Chisholm, of North Tryon.

Misses Ethel Leard and Victoria MacLean, accompanied by Messrs. Archibald Thompson and Vance Dixon, of North Tryon, attended the Y. P. S. of Cape Traverse on Friday evening, where Mr. Thompson delivered an interesting talk.

Mrs. Golding Delaney, of Summerside, has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Delaney, of North Tryon. Her many friends are glad to know Mrs. Parker Delaney is improving after her recent serious accident.

Dr. Morgan Genge has accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church in North Tryon and Bradalbane, to the great delight of those who were privileged to enjoy his interesting sermons during the past summer. Dr. Genge is an outstanding preacher and lecturer and North Tryon is indeed fortunate in procuring him. He and Mrs. Genge will make their home for the winter at Westview Lodge.

The Young People's Society met as usual on Friday evening, October 28th, and after a a short programme, an enjoyable Hallowe-en social was held, the young people entering with zest into the spirits and fun of the evening's entertainment. Various games were played and much credit is due the committee in charge. The refreshments consisted of all good things imaginable.

The Sunday evening service of the Tryon United Church was given under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. The service was a song service throughout, giving the story of a young boy who had left home, and of how evil influences slowly but surely overcome him, and of how a young man, strong and pure from his own home town, showed him the light. The music was beautifully and effectively rendered and the congregation thoroughly enjoyed a treat, which one does not often get a chance to enjoy.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place in the United Church parsonage on Wednesday, November 2nd, when Miss Adelaide Pooley, of Tryon, was united in marriage with Mr. John Muttart, of Carleton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Lund, in the presence of a number of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony, the wedding party left by the S. S. Charlottetown, for a short honeymoon trip in New Brunswick. Both the bride and groom were held in high esteem among their many friends, and as they go out to face life together, they carry with them the best wishes of the whole community. Mr. and Mrs. Muttart will reside in Albany, where the groom has purchased a fine farm, one of the best in the community.

Messrs. Morley M. Bell, Brewer Robinson and Henry Noonan, of Summerside, were on a shooting trip to Tryon on Saturday.—D.

Pains Around Her Heart

Tired Out After Doing Housework

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Henry Ranch, Muriel Lake, Alta., writes:—"Last fall I had bad pains around my heart, and each morning, after doing a little housework, I seemed to get dizzy and feel all tired out.

Seeing that Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills were good for these troubles I sent for a box, and after taking the Pills for a few days I felt a whole lot better. Since then I have had no return of the dizzy spells and pains around the heart."
