25TH ANNIVERSARY—The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Profit was the occasion of a delightful party on Friday, January 24th, when upwards of seventy friends and relatives assembled at their home at Burlington. The Reverend D. E. Noel was chosen to be master of ceremonies and filled most happily. With brief but humorous remarks, he spoke of the purpose of the gathering and called upon Mr. William J. Profit, who read an address of congratulation to the guests. The bride and groom were presented with an Aladdin lamp by Mr. William B. Douglas and a well-filled purse by Mr. Heath MacLeod on behalf of friends and neighbors; a combination set table and magazine rack was presented by Mr. Morris Casley on behalf of the Casley family. Margaret and Leighton Stewart and Leighton Profit also remembered their parents with gifts. Ellis and Lilly each replied briefly, expressing heartfelt appreciation for the gifts and the kindness of their friends in planning the affair unknown to them until the previous day. Other gifts and greetings were received by mail. The evening closed with the playing of records and the presentation of a gift of money on behalf of these present by Mr. Leigh Paynter. Although taken completely by surprise, Mrs. Profit expressed her appreciation in terms which left no doubt of her appreciation. The remainder of the evening passed pleasantly in conversation, table games and music. Organists were Mrs. William J. Profit and Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod. A delicious lunch was served. Among those assisting were Mrs. N. W. Payne, Mrs. Keith Warren, Mrs. Archie Payne, Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mrs. W. B. Dougherty, Mrs. Linus Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Hal-royd, Mrs. Keith Adams and Mrs. Leighton Paynter. (The Island Farmer).

Section "B" of the South Shore semi-finals got underway at Bedouque Rink on last Monday night, when the Summerside Crystals took the Borden Mayflowers into camp to the tune of 17-7.

Although the manpower shortage has eased somewhat throughout the country, it is still the bug-bear of the Mayflowers team, as for the second consecutive night, they had only eight men in uniform. For two periods the game was a hummer but the last session turned into a rout as the Crystals skated rings around the tired Borden crew. "Mooney" Gallant led the Crystals to victory by scoring eight goals, many of which climaxed brilliant solo rushes. "Toey" Richard and Frankie Oatway, of last year's Maritime juvenile championships, carried the Borden attack and their clever plays were a treat to watch.

Jackie Schurman was the official in charge.
