In the window of Hughes' Drug Store, is a specimen of barley over five feet in length, grown on his farm at Inkerman. It is one of the finest specimens ever seen at this early date. It speaks well for Mr. Hughes' success as an agriculturist. Since Mr. Hughes has obtained possession of the Inkerman property he has improved it in many respects, making it one of the handsomest spots in the Province. He has over twenty acres under cultivation, growing all kinds of farm produce, besides having quite an extensive strawberry patch. The attractiveness of the place as a summer resort and its nearness to the city accounts for the large number of people now summering there.

Cricket Return Match, Phoenix vs. Tribune.

Fair weather again greeted the cricketers, and notwithstanding the tremendous thrashing received at the hands of the Flagship Crescent on Saturday, our local players rose to the occasion and gave a nice exhibition of Cricket, beating their opponents yesterday, by an innings and forty-eight runs. The features of the day were the fielding of the home team, the double figures of Messrs. Benham Williams, and Chas. McQuillan and the neat catches made by Biggwithers in the first and Sullivan in the second innings. The scores are as follows:—

The members of the Phoenix C. C. look for a return match with the Flagship next summer when if they put up their usual game a more evenly contested match may be expected.

Mr. S. A. McDonald of this city was taken by surprise on Saturday night when a gentleman introducing himself as Edward Ryan from Three Rivers, Quebec, called at his establishment. Mr. Ryan is a stranger to many in this city. But when it became known that it was he who wrote that excellent parody on Kipling's Bobs which won the prize offered by S. A. McDonald in his recent competition he will be better known. Mr. Ryan is a B.A. and a former student of St. Dunstan's College and is now pursuing his studies in Quebec. He is a native of this Island. Although Mr. Ryan did not make his name known in connection with the writing of this poem till now, yet he stated that he received no less than 20 letters of congratulations from former friends on the Island who supposed it was he who wrote the poem of which the following is a part:

If you want a suit of clothes,
Call on Sam.
'Tis where everybody goes,
Into Sam's.
They are there of every shape,
He can fit a blasted ape,
Cause he is a master of the tape
Artist Sam.

OBITUARY.—A gloom has been cast over Marie and vicinity by the death of one of its choicest young men, Mr. Hudson A. Ferguson, son of Mr. John Ferguson, Section Foreman, which occurred on June 2nd. He had spent the last two years in the United States, where he made many warm friends. Failing health caused him to return to his home in April last, and notwithstanding eminent medical aid and a loving mother's tender care, he gradually sank, and on June 22nd, at the early age of 20 years that fell disease consumption claimed its victim. Hudson was a young man of exemplary habits with a kind and obliging disposition, which endeared him to his neighbors, friends and all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He was resigned to his lot, well aware that the end was nigh, and died trusting in his Redeemer. A few moments previous to his death, he said, "Mother, when I am going, hold my hand." She said, "Still trusting dear?" And although he could no longer speak he bowed his assent and calmly expired. He was followed to his last resting place by a large concourse of people and many sympathizing friends. To his sorrow-stricken parents we tender our sincere sympathy.

One more flower has drooped and faded,
One poor brother's voice has fled,
One fair brow the grave has shaded,
One obedient son is dead.
