Acute Alcoholism Brings Death

SAINT JOHN, Nov. 6.—Following an autopsy at the General Hospital, acute alcoholism was given Thursday night as the cause of death of Mrs. Olive Sidney, Summersworth, N. H., whose partially clad body was discovered by a maid in a bedroom of a local rooming establishment shortly before noon Thursday. Dr. C. L. Emerson, coroner, made the announcement and stated that no inquest would be necessary. The autopsy was performed by Dr. R. A. H. Mackeen, provincial pathologist.

The woman about 55 years of age and of plump build, had reached the city Wednesday on the Boston train, bound from New Hampshire to Elmsdale, P.E.I., via Summerside. Her body was discovered yesterday in a bedroom of the Nova House, conducted at 57 Mill Street by Mrs. L. K. Hamilton.

She spent the previous afternoon about the city and Wednesday afternoon had talked cheerfully with other persons in the house. She gave instructions to be aroused in time Thursday to catch the 7 o'clock train for the Island. Called by a house maid at 6 o'clock, Mrs. Sidney complained of being indisposed and went to sleep. About 9:30 her condition was such that she had to be assisted by the maid from a bathroom to her bedroom.

Anxious about the woman, the maid called at her room between 11:30 and noon and was horrified to see the lifeless form stretched across the bed.

The police were communicated with immediately and they, in turn notified Coroner Emerson. The physician, accompanied by Detective-Inspector Biddiscombe and Detective Stubbs viewed the body in the bedroom, immediately to the right of the top of a two-storey stairway.

After holding an inquiry into the circumstance of the death, the coroner directed that the remains be taken to the morgue of the General Hospital.

Information gathered by the detectives showed that the unfortunate woman had a daughter, Miss Sadie Burke, nurse in a Dover, N. H. hospital and a wife was sent by Chief Guptill Thursday afternoon to the chief of police of Dover asking him to inform Miss Burke of the sudden death of her mother here, and to forward instructions as to funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Sidney, it was said Thursday by a member of the rooming house, was on her way to join a son, Theodore Burke, at Elmsdale. She had been married twice.

Fascist Women Hail Il Duce

ROME, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Italy's Fascist women have promised Premier Mussolini they will "make every house a fortress for the power of the Empire and the triumph of the revolution."

They constitute a female army which in some future war may be a tremendous force behind the lines, even though they will not carry rifles as do Spain's amazons who are fighting on the side of Madrid.

The Fascist women, in their annual meeting at which 1,339,335 women and girls were represented, swore themselves to a program of assistance to their Fascist menfolk in charity and social aid and in many types of education, farm development and price control.

No New Taxes For British Columbia

VICTORIA, Nov. 6.—(CP)—Finance Minister John H. Brown in his budget speech in the British Columbia legislature today said there would be no new taxes.

The Government would relieve municipalities of $691,000 social service costs after March 31 next, it would re-assure the total cost of mothers' pensions and would complete restoration of civil service salary cuts.

Relief to the municipalities would not only restore them to the position they held in 1932 when the social service costs were put on them, but would also relieve them from contributing for their patients in Tranquille Sanitarium at Kamloops, Mr. Hart said.

Third Reich Has No Sense Of Humor

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Unhappy is the humorist who makes the wrong people laugh in the Third Reich.

Editors of two German magazines made the wrong people laugh, so their magazines were suppressed "until further notice."

One of the periodicals printed an article on Frederick the Great which the Propaganda Ministry alleged held the great statesman up to ridicule. The other, the well-known monthly "Querschnitt" printed a "dictionary of foreign words" in which the following definitions occur:

Absurd—When one hopes for a better future.
Character—An obstacle to one's career.
Hoku pokus—See politics.
Journalism—Tight-rope dance between the lines.
Optimist—An incurable.

News Briefs From P.W.C.

The Song Service for Sunday last was held in St. James' Presbyterian Church, the speaker for the evening being Mr. Niall Barnett. These services are under the joint control of the S. C. M., the ministers, and the Y. M. C. A. and they will be continued throughout the winter.

We are very pleased to learn that Mr. Claude Wood is almost fully recovered from his broken arm.

Choir practice is held quite frequently at the Y. M. C. A. The choir is under the capable direction of Mrs. Frances Holl Trainor and all students of P. W. C. are invited to those practices to aid in this part of the Song Service work.

The students of this College did not hold their regular serenade this year because some of the more learned minds saw that it would be much better to have a social instead. The reason for this of course was that on account of it being Saturday night it was believed that some one would be injured. The majority of students attended Halloween parties while a few gathered on the College Campus and celebrated Halloween also.

It occurred to some of the students that it was too bad to let one year go without the regular serenade so a large number of the students held it on Monday night—having of course got permission from the authorities. The students were treated to apples by Lieut. Governor DeBois, and Mayor Turner.

The parade marched to the theatre and were promised by Mr. Cooper that a theater party would be held for them in a couple of weeks. After this the student marched to the Forum and were all given a free pass.

The Christmas edition of The College Times will be printed about November 15th so if any of the students have not written or contributed something to it they had better get to work right away. The following are special reporters: Mr. George Burnett, Sylvia Block, Prentiss Andrew, Mary Nicholson, Ethel Dawn, Allan Nicholson, Wesley MacLeod, Edith Dingwell, Orva Gill, Alastair MacDonald, Jack MacLennan and Kenneth MacRae. Your co-operation is needed to make this magazine a success.

In Flanders Fields

By LIEUT. COL. JOHN McCRAE

(Who died while on duty in Flanders)

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks still bravely singing fly, Scarce heard amid the guns below. We are the dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and now we lie In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe To you, from falling hands, we throw The torch. Be yours to hold it high; If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow In Flanders fields.

A CANADIAN RESPONSE

Heroes, sleep on! in that long row Of graves, where Flanders poppies grow; The larks, with hearts undaunted, sing, And rich in hope, their music fling Where guns have scattered death below.

Men call you dead; ye are not so, For you the Unsetting Sun will glow; Your deeds will kindred souls inspire And fill with patriotic fire; Grief on your graves her tribute lays,

And Gratitude her homage pays, And Love, with proud yet wistful eye, Keeps vigil, where ye sleeping lie In Flanders fields.

Still more now is your fight our own, The torch that from your hand was thrown Shall not be quenched, but held on high, The faith ye teach us shall not die. Then take your rest in slumber deep, Doubt not that we the trust will keep, Nor dream that ye in vain have died,

FREEDOM shall not be crucified; Through summer shine and winter snow Sleep where the drowsy poppies grow In Flanders fields.

James Ferres in "Montreal Star"

AMERICA'S ANSWER

By R. W. LILLIARD

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead, The fight that ye so bravely led We've taken up. And we will keep True faith with you who lie asleep, With each a cross to mark his bed, And poppies blowing overhead, Where once his own life blood ran red.

So let your rest be sweet and deep In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught, The torch ye threw to us we caught, Ten million hands will hold it high, And Freedom's light shall never die; We've learned the lesson that ye taught In Flanders fields.

Ten million hands will hold it high, And Freedom's light shall never die; We've learned the lesson that ye taught In Flanders fields.

Ten million hands will hold it high, And Freedom's light shall never die; We've learned the lesson that ye taught In Flanders fields.

Ten million hands will hold it high, And Freedom's light shall never die; We've learned the lesson that ye taught In Flanders fields.

Adjourn Hearing On Millar Will

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—(CP)—The Millar will bambino sweepstakes, with no photo finish to simplify things, was taken into court today for a judicial decision on who should get the $50,000 purse.

After a score or more of lawyers had presented arguments and stated the interests of their clients the hearing was adjourned until Monday, Nov. 16.

Sober-visaged King's counsel in black gowns dominated the scene in Mr. Justice W. E. Middleton's small courtroom.

Lawyers entered claims for 17 mothers. Most of the mothers report having had nine or 10 children in the decade since Charles Vance Millar, rich Toronto lawyer, died and left his necessarily uncommon and capricious will. Mrs. Kenny claims she has had 11 children, of which nine were registered.

Those belonging to the basketball committee are listed below: B. Johnson, A. Larter and A. Hennessey

DISTRICT MEETING OF LODGES HELD

Large Attendance At Semi-Annual Meeting of I. O. O. F. District No. 12.

The semi-annual district meeting of I. O. O. F. district No. 12 was held last night in the Charlottetown lodge rooms. About 100 Oddfellows attended the meeting which was presided over by the District Deputy Grand Master, R. H. Carruthers of Montague. Mr. A. O. F. Gill of Charlottetown, Grand Warden was present in an official capacity representing the Grand Master for the Maritime Provinces, Mr. A. H. Wood, of Fredericton, N. B.

The following officers were elected: Mr. Herbert Thornton of Charlottetown, District secretary; Mr. J. P. Campbell, Charlottetown, District Warden; and Mr. G. E. Clark of Summerside elected District Guardian.

Preliminary plans were made for a District field day and picnic next summer. The place and time will be decided at a later meeting. Reports were received from the various lodges indicating continued progress. All the reports were full of optimism.

Following the business meeting an oyster supper and entertainment was held. Music was furnished by the Imperial Orchestra.

The lodges represented at the meeting were: Hillcrest Lodge, Montague; Prince Edward Lodge, Summerside; and the two Charlottetown Lodges, Wiley and St. Lawrence. About two by member of the Summerside lodge were in attendance. Delegates from the other lodges did not attend owing probably to the condition of the roads. Four members of the Montague Lodge braved the mud roads. They were Messrs. Milton Mellish, Joe McGregor, Harry McGregor and Bruce McPhee.

Labor Party For Nova Scotia Mooted

TRURO, N.S., Nov. 6.—(CP)—Delegates to the bi-annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America, District No. 26, today unanimously endorsed establishment of a labor party in Nova Scotia.

A resolution instructing the district officers to "do all in their power" to bring about the formation of the new party was passed without a contrary vote.

The move came on the heels of a lengthy discussion on Workmen's Compensation Act matters. Delegates complained it was sometimes impossible for Union members to receive remuneration for what they said were "just" reports of injuries.

Intimation of the party might also seek election of its members to Ottawa came from President D. W. Morrison of Glace Bay who sat in the provincial legislature from 1920-25 as a Labor representative.

EXPANSION IN EXPORT TRADE

OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—(CP)—Canada's export trade is running at levels unequalled since 1929 and steadily increasing according to the latest figures compiled by the Department of National Revenue.

For the first six months of the present fiscal year, April 1 to Sept. 30, exports of Canadian produce totalled $485,777,313, the highest figure recorded for the same period since 1929 and not far short of double the volume of exports in the same period of 1932, the low mark of the depression.

On the heels of this tabulation comes an unofficial estimate of exports for the month of October at $111,000,000. If they continue at this rate for the balance of the fiscal year and imports run in proportion, as figures indicate, Canada's total trade for the present fiscal year will top the $2,000,000,000 mark for the first time since the year 1929-30. That year was also the last time Canada's exports exceeded $1,000,000,000 and all indications point to a total in excess of that for this year.

At $111,000,000 the total exports for October were higher than for any month since Nov. 1929.

Small Fire In Montague School

Fire in the stairway at the eastern end of the Montague Memorial School caused a small amount of damage last Tuesday evening. A meeting of the Women's Institute and a rehearsal by the cast of a play were in progress at the time the fire was discovered by Mr. Haddon MacLean as he was about to leave the school building. A crowd gathered quickly and members of the local fire department assisted by volunteers soon had the blaze under control. It was necessary to cut through the steps and a portion of the corridor floor in order to reach the blaze. Some movables including a number of desks and seats were removed by the western entrance but replaced when it was found that there was no further danger of the fire spreading.

It is thought that the fire must have originated from the dropping of a cigarette butt.

School work was resumed in the morning as usual.

The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Lady Liners on Last Trip to Montreal

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—The last "Lady Liners of the Canadian National steamships to reach the local port this season will be the "Lady" Somers which will arrive at 6 p. m. Sunday evening returning from a 25-day voyage to Bermuda, the Bahamas Islands and Jamaica, bringing back several Canadian cruise passengers. When the "Lady Somers" sails again next Wednesday evening for a voyage over the same route, these yacht-like ships will be seen no more in the local port this season for during the winter and early spring both the "Lady Somers" and the "Lady Rodney" will use the port of Halifax for departure and arrival over their route in the Jamaica service calling at Boston both southbound and northbound. The "Lady Somers" also brings up a good cargo consisting of bananas, citrus fruits, coffee, rum, spices, cocoa beans and coconuts from Jamaica and a quantity of sponges from the Bahama Islands.

And finally and most important the Church stands in the life of the community, the nation and the world for the preaching of the greatest message the world ever heard, the gospel of the grace of God and the message of immortality as revealed in the teaching of Jesus who said, "Because I have lived ye shall live also."

The service was under the direction of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island and was presided over by Rev. Andrew Weir of Vernon, Chairman of Presbytery. He was assisted by Rev. W. D. Aitken of St. Peter's, secretary of Presbytery and Rev. Mr. Boyce of Mt. Stewart.

Rev. Dr. Bryce who was making his first visit to the Province as Moderator was welcomed by Rev. Mr. Weir. Dr. Bryce arrived in Charlottetown last night and leaves this morning for Halifax.

Co-operation Striking Trend In Church Life

Inspiring Address Delivered by Rev. Dr. Bryce, United Church Moderator.

"There are four present day trends in the life of the church and the most outstanding in the past three years in this country has been the trend towards closer co-operation between the religious bodies of all denominations," Rev. Peter Bryce, D.D., Moderator of the United Church in Canada said last night. He was speaking before a large congregation at Trinity United Church. Evidence of the closer co-operation between the different churches was to be found in the work of the recently formed national emergency committee on which are representatives of the Roman Catholic, Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist and United Churches, working together for the alleviation of suffering in the drought stricken west.

The second trend is in the note of advance evident in the life of the Church. "Too long we have been trying to hold what we had. Now the spirit of defeatism is leaving us and the spirit of courage and faith is taking its place," the Moderator said. In the history of the Church it will be found that the greatest advance comes not in the periods of prosperity but during times of adversity.

Another trend, which all who travel may notice, is a consciousness of hunger on the part of the people for a closer relationship to Jesus Christ. The trend towards deepening the spiritual life of the people after righteousness.

The fourth trend is a growing appreciation of the mission, life and purpose of the Church. "For a long time we have talked of the failure of the Church but now there is a new and growing appreciation of, and a growing confidence in, the Church," Rev. Dr. Bryce said.

"What does the Church represent in the life of the community?" the speaker asked. In each case churches were built by people who felt that places set apart for the public worship of God was necessary. Those who built the church had in mind that it was a place set apart for Christian fellowship.

The Church stands in the life of the community for an ideal in human life, the ideal of the life of Jesus. It is against the exploitation of the people for selfish ends. It stands for service and is the greatest single factor in the life of the country. In western Canada in the drought areas during the past few years when picture shows and beer parlors were closed the churches without exception kept open.

The Church is not national. It cannot be when it represents the gospel of Christ and the love of God. The Church stands as an international brotherhood for good will to all.

And finally and most important the Church stands in the life of the community, the nation and the world for the preaching of the greatest message the world ever heard, the gospel of the grace of God and the message of immortality as revealed in the teaching of Jesus who said, "Because I have lived ye shall live also."
