ON CLUB EXECUTIVE—Among the executive committee members of the Canadian Club of Boston is Mr. George W. Brown who was born at Northam, P. E. I., and is now a wool merchant in the eastern state metropolis. A brochure issued by the club gives the distinguished list of officers and executive of the Club. The Club was founded in 1906 and its purpose is briefly set down in these words: "Cultivate good fellowship and fraternity among the natives of Canada residing in this vicinity; the entertainment of distinguished Canadians in Boston; the discussion of problems of special interest to the United States and Canada; and the dissemination of data bearing upon the economic and cultural development of Canada."

On the morning of May 11th, 1948, many friends were saddened to hear of the sudden passing of William A. Chandler at Haselbrook, in his ninety-second year. He was sick only three days and during his long life had enjoyed excellent health, never needing the services of a doctor until a few days previous to his death.

He will be sadly missed in the home by his wife and daughter Helen, also a son, W. Edmund of Amherst, N.S. who was home at the time of his father's death. Another son Samuel E. was killed at the battle of Passchendaele, Nov., 1917. He is also survived by two brothers, James H. of West Newton, Mass., who came home for the funeral, and Charles A. of Sydney, N.S.

There passed away peacefully at the P. E. I. Hospital after a lingering illness, Mr. C. C. MacEwen on April 13th, in his fifty-fifth year. He was a life long resident of St. Peter's Bay, where he was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. For over twenty-five years he was the superintendent of the United Church Sunday School. As an elder, manager and representative to Presbytery and Conference he made a worthy contribution to the Church's activities. Always faithful in his endeavors he will be sadly missed. But especially in the home will his absence be felt. He leaves to mourn besides his widow, two sons and three daughters: Ray, medical student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S.; Keith at home; Dorothy, Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown; Marion and Shirley at home. There are also left to mourn two brothers and one sister, Harvey, St. Peter's Bay; Robert, Boston, Mass.; Rita (Mrs. E. E. Parkman), Charlottetown.

—BARRETT-DOIRON—The Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, P.E.I., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, May 26th at 8:30 when Miss Reta Eileen Barrett, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Doiron of Cape Beaulieu, N.B. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W.E. Monaghan who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Joseph Barrett played the wedding music while the girls' choir sang beautiful hymns during the service. An appropriate hymn was respectfully rendered by Mr. Raymond Ahearn. The bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of ivory satin with a rayon tulle full-length veil held in place by tiny blue bows of ribbon, and she carried a bouquet of roses. The bride's sister, Mrs. Ronald McKinnon, who was bridesmaid, wore a floor length dress of pink rayon taffeta with shoulder length veil, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Ronald MacKinnon. A delicious wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett, to relatives and immediate friends. A beautiful wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom adorned the centre of the table. Mr. and Mrs. Doiron left on a motor trip through the Maritimes. On their return they will reside in Cape Beaulieu, N.B. where the groom holds a responsible position.—Aiber.
