Some of the Legislative Councillor Candidates in the local contest have been in doubt as to the qualification required of them. Strange as it may appear while a council voter requires a property qualification of $325 of a freehold or leasehold nature and six months ownership previous to the test of the writ of election, the candidate he votes for need not onw a cent's worthof property or have had any term of residence priortothe test of said writ. This is what some people term an anomaly. It is the law however. Dura lex sed lex.

This grand work merits a grand audience. One of our musical enthusiasts was heard to remark; "leaving out one third of our population under the head of nonage or of an age that prohibits attendance, we have left seven thousand, nine hundred and ninety five lovers of music in the city" The management will be glad to welcome ten per cent of these but no more on Tuesday week.

IN the death of Mrs. David Lowther which occurred yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Trueman, Searletown, another of the older residents of the Island has passed away. Mrs Lowther was 86 years of age, and although her health began to fail of late, she previously was a more than ordinarily smart and bright lady. She was a devoted Christian, beloved and respected by her many friends who will meet with an irreparable loss in her demise. There are left to mourn nine sons and daughters as follows: D. T. and Cornelius Lowther, North Carleton; Isaac Lowther, Kensington; Wm. Lowther, Cornwall; Mrs John Lea and Mrs. Angus Brien, Victoria; Mrs. Neil McFadyen, Augustine Cove; Mrs. Louis Trueman, Searletown and Mrs David Walker, New Annan. To the bereaved The Guardian tenders its sincere sympathy.

James Lightizer has taken a position at Dodd & Rogers'. He was on the Minto all summer.

THE death occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Goldsmith, 86 Bloomfield Street, of Miss Lizzie Gillis. The deceased was twenty-five years of age, and a native of Prince Edward Island. The deceased was at the Victoria General Hospital for some time suffering from consumption. She was without friends in this City, and after leaving that institution was given a home and kindly cared for by Mrs. Goldsmith.—Halifax Chronicle.

Her trip was a very enjoyable one, the beautiful weather experienced adding much to the pleasure.

OBITUARY.—At his home Princetown Road on November 2nd, 1904, Theophilus Abbott, aged 69 years, departed this life. Because of his many excellent qualities our deceased brother's removal by death has caused a vacancy in the community that will be most difficult to fill. The very high esteem in which he was held was strongly in evidence by the very large number present at his funeral. Services at the house and the grave were conducted by Revs I. Frizzle, W. W. Lodge, and Wm Harrison. Our departed brother was naturally religiously inclined being born of deeply pious parents, his father being a very acceptable local preacher for many years. Almost a half a century ago, during a series of special services held in the house of Thomas Ayers at Union Road, Queens Co., P. E. I. by Revs. Smith and Milligan, he professed conversion. Since the confession of his faith in Christ he had been a consistent member of the Methodist Church. Nowhere, outside of his own home will he be more missed than in the services of the Church. As a layman he had very acceptably filled all the offices of the church in the circuit where he resided. His clear understanding of and familiarity with the Holy Scriptures made him a most valuable Sabbath School teacher and prayer leader. His home was always open to ministers of all denominations. One of his greatest delights was the discussion of Christian topics. Early in life he was united in wedlock with Miss Alice Balderston of North Wiltshire, P. E. Island who passed to her eternal reward after a married life of ten years. Later he was married to Miss Mary Jane Howard of Cornwall, P. E. Island. His family numbered fifteen, thirteen of whom, and also a beloved wife, survive him to mourn the loss of a tender-hearted and affectionate father and husband. May they all be graciously sustained by the abundant grace of God —Com.

ON Wednesday evening the 16th, inst. the people of Found's Mills and North Granville assembled at the residence of Wm. and Mrs. Coiley, "Found's Mills" to do them honor and say "au revoir" before their removal to Kensington where they intend to reside in the future. After spending an hour in social intercourse, supper was announced to which call every individual to the number of sixty or more responded most promptly, and manifested a keen appreciation of the good things provided. The Rev. Mr. Sellar was then appointed chairman and the following programme taken up. G. F. Found came forward and read the following address. To Wm. and Mrs. Coiley and family.—Dear and respected friends:—It is with feelings of deepest regret that we learn of your intended departure from our community, in which you have been almost life-long residents. We feel that words are inadequate to express the loss that we know we are thus substaining by your leaving us. As good citizens we will miss you. In our every day dealings you were ever courteous and obliging in the extreme. We always found you ever ready to lend, not being prompted by the selfish spirit of the man who expects as much in return. In our social circle we will keenly feel the loss of your presence but in no place will your removal cause such an irreparable loss as in the Sabbath School, prayer meeting and church, where by your wise counsel and consistent, practical Christian life you have exerted a most helpful influence. We feel that we cannot allow you to depart without putting our feelings in some tangible form. Kindly accept of this parlor lamp and silver butter-dish as small tokens of our appreciation of your worth. Wishing you all many years of unalloyed happiness in your new home, and if we are not privileged to meet here again, we hope and trust to meet you where death and sorrow cannot enter, and partings are unknown. Mr. Coiley responded in a few well chosen remarks, after which the following toasts were called:—

Our Host, responded to by Rev. Mr. Sellar.

The Ladies, responded to by A J Corbett.

Music, Blest be the tie that binds.

Our Canada, responded to by Jas Taper.
