TWENTY-FIVE DUCKS TO BE THE LIMIT.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—A number of amendments to the hunting laws in the Province of Quebec will be suggested to the Hon. C. R. Delvin, Minister of Mines, Colonization and Fisheries. The two fish and game societies will ask that the shooting of insectivorous birds be prohibited at all times, and 25 ducks will be the limit for each hunter per day.

The most radical change, however, and one which the Sportmen's Fish and Game Protective Association for the Province of Quebec believe it will be almost impossible to introduce, is the licensing of all men who desire to carry a gun.

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The S. S. Northumberland arrived in Charlottetown at 7.20 last evening.

ANOTHER BIG ONE.—Without doubt the largest turnip grown this season has been raised by Mr. John A. Moreside, North River. It weighs 27 lbs. He has also three others, which with this one tipped the scales at 99 1/2 lbs.

GOOD BASEBALL.—There will be two good games of indoor baseball tonight at 8 o'clock sharp in the Arena Rink. Vics vs. Abbies and Bankers vs. Y. M. C. A. Intermediate. Admission, 20 cents, ladies 10 cents. 2675.

UNUSUAL.—An unusual scene was witnessed in the Charlottetown Harbour on Wednesday afternoon, when twelve schooners, all laden with Island produce, sailed out almost as a fleet, the spectacle being both animated and striking.

POST OFFICE HOURS.—The main doors leading to the Post Office Corridor will in future only be open to the public on Sundays between the hours of 10.00 a. m. and 1.00 p. m. Box-holders must arrange accordingly.

FARMERS INSTITUTE.—On Saturday evening a meeting of the Farmers' Institute will be held in the Hall at Cornwall at 7.30. It will be addressed by W. J. Reid, B. S. A., Instructor in Animal Husbandry. Every one interested, whether a member or not, is invited to be present.

MARSHFIELD INSTITUTE.—Mr. Robert Robertson of the Provincial Department of Agriculture will address a meeting of Marshfield Institute in the hall at Marshfield on Saturday evening, November 15th, at 7.08 p. m. Everyone interested, whether a member of the Institute or not, is invited to be present.

A PLEASANT SOCIAL.—The young ladies comprising the Mission Circle of Grace Methodist Church deserve great credit for the success of their bean social and tea in the Y. M. C. A. Hall last evening. There was a large attendance, the tables were daintily supplied with good things and most pleasingly waited on by the young ladies who proved themselves capable and admirable hostesses. This was the Mission Circle's first venture in this form of entertainment and its success, socially and financially, raises the hope that it will be followed by others. The Mission Circle has been in existence about four years and, since its organization, has paid continuously, for the tuition of a Japanese student in college. The proceeds of last evening's social will also be devoted to this worthy object.

WORTH EXTENDING.—There is a prestige that comes to a city, town or country through some distinctive achievement on the part of an individual and such prestige is a valuable asset. Such prestige has come to Prince Edward Island through the fact that it has produced an engine which, in the short space of three or four years, has proved itself not only the superior, at least the equal of any engine manufactured anywhere in the world. This is the Imperial, manufactured by Messrs Bruce Stewart & Co., Limited. It is worth a good deal to the province to have this name and it will pay to perpetuate it. With the object of extending the business that has produced this engine and has won a name for itself in other lines of manufacture an issue of 350 shares of stock was offered to the public some days ago. It is gratifying to know that this stock is selling rapidly thus showing the confidence of the public in a concern that has won the confidence and that promises to make generous returns both in actual dividends to the stockholders and in indirect benefit to the whole province. There is much in a name; the name of the Imperial is now a household word wherever gasoline engines are used, and it is indissolubly associated with the name of Prince Edward Island. It is well worth extending the usefulness and the capacity of such a concern as this. 2673.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—Willey Lodge, No. 27, I.O.O.F., meets this evening at 8 o'clock. The Grand Representative will submit a report of the session of Sovereign Grand Lodge held at Minneapolis. All Odd-Fellows are cordially invited to attend.

MARITIME ASSOCIATION FOR THE BLIND.—Mr. G. W. Theakston, General Agent of the Maritime Association for the Blind is at present in the City soliciting subscriptions. He has been exceedingly successful so far having collected already over $700. Mr. Theakston leaves for Halifax on Saturday but will return on Wednesday to resume his canvass.

TRACADIE FAIR.—The annual autumn exhibition at Tracadie was held Wednesday. There was a good attendance and much interest was shown by the assembled farmers and their wives. The exhibits were pretty well up to the average of those of former years. Miss James, Prof. Davidson of Prince of Wales College, and Mr. J. A. Clarke, Superintendent of the Experimental Farm Station were the capable judges.

WORK DELAYED.—Owing to the failure of the contractors to deliver the iron work to form the superstructure of several of the new steel bridges which the Government are erecting this year in different parts of the Island, a delay has been caused in the construction of these works, which otherwise in all probability would have been completed already. Now, with the winter fast approaching, unless the material is here shortly, it is probable that the weather will prevent the completion of the bridges before next year. In fact, the weather has caused the finishing of the bridge across the Cardigan river to be postponed until the Spring. Both the substructure and superstructure of this bridge have been completed, but the concrete bridge-way which it is intended to lay down in place of the usual plank-work will not be taken in hand before next year, as it is not advisable to do such work at the present time of the year.

THE ARTILLERY DANCE.—Perhaps the most successful and the best attended of the dances which have been given this season by the Entertainment Committee of the Fourth Regiment was that which was held in the Armouries last night. The atmospheric conditions were ideal and there were about a hundred persons present; the scene in the dance room, attractively decorated in itself with the galaxy of beautiful gowns that there was, being a pretty and animated one. Mrs. Col. Davidson and Mrs. Col. Jenkins were the chaperons and were indefatigable in their efforts to make everyone have an enjoyable time, in which they well succeeded. A great many new and beautiful gowns were worn, embracing the latest Parisian ideas, such as the Minaret dress, the draped Turkish style, as well as several hand some copies of the new evening dress with the side-slit skirt. An excellent program of music was delightfully rendered by Miss Blanchard.

LEADERS IN NEW YORK CHAUFFEURS STRIKE ARRESTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The recent strike of chauffeurs employed on mail trucks here, and the ensuing brief tie-up of the service, resulted this afternoon in the arrest of the President of the Chauffeurs Union, a former President, and five other officers and members. In addition, warrants were sworn out for five others who, it is alleged, had a hand in the strike. All were charged with conspiracy to obstruct and retard the operation and movement of the mails, an offense punishable with a maximum prison term of two years and $10,000 fine.

Louis Terry, former President of the Union, and Patrick Johnson, said their companions were held in $5,000 to be the Union's present head, were among the first arrested. They and bail for examination on Monday.

There will be a number of other speeches on the subject later on, including one by Speaker Clark.

INTERESTING LIFE STORY OF MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS

The Honorable Robert Rogers, who for the past year has occupied the position of Minister of Public Works in the Borden Cabinet, is one of the most widely known men in public life in Canada today, having been prominently before the public for the last fifteen years. A native of the Province of Quebec, having been born in the County of Argensteuil in 1844, he went west when a young man, with the intention of locating at Brandon, Manitoba. On arriving at the place he decided, however, to engage in business at Clearwater, the southern part of the province, and for several years he was a resident Clearwater. It was while living at Clearwater that he first entered politics, and every citizen—either Provincial or Dominion—found him taking an active part in the interests of the Conservative party.

A STIRRING CAMPAIGN

He was at one time a candidate for the Dominion House, and on another occasion he opposed the late Hon. Mr. Thomas Greenway for the local House. At that time Mr. Greenway was at the height of his power in the Province of Manitoba and occupied the position of Premier. It is related that, when informed that "Bob" Rogers was to oppose him Mr. Greenway became very indignant and boasted that, if he did not "beat that boy" (for Mr. Rogers was considerably under thirty years of age at the time) by three hundred or four hundred of a majority, he would not take his seat. The campaign was of the whirlwind variety, such as the new Minister of Public Works delights in, and when the ballots were counted it was found that Mr. Greenway had succeeded by the narrow majority of thirteen.

A few years later, when a change took place in the Cabinet of Sir Rodmond Roblin, at Winnipeg, Mr. Rogers was selected to fill the portfolio of public works, and in this capacity he remained until October, 1911, when, after the general elections, he was invited by Mr. Borden to come to Ottawa as Minister of the Interior. A year on the portfolio of public works becoming vacant by the resignation of the Honorable F. D. Monk, Mr. Rogers was chosen by the Prime Minister for the position—a position which he has filled with the same degree of success as that which attended his ten or twelve years as Minister of Public Works in Manitoba and also the year in which he presided over the Interior Department at Ottawa.

THE MAN WHO DOES THINGS

Mr. Rogers has a reputation for sound judgment, tact, and all-round ability. "He does things." He showed his mettle directly after being sworn in as Minister of the Interior. After that ceremony was performed he immediately proceeded to Lethbridge, Alberta, as a strike, involving seven thousand coal miners and practically every mine in the western mining section had been in progress for a considerable length of time. At Lethbridge he met the operators and representatives of the coal miners separately and together, and on the afternoon following his arrival on the scene he was able to start for the east with the satisfaction of knowing that he had brought about a settlement entirely satisfactory to both sides, who up to that time had been so widely separated that there appeared no possible chance of reconciling them. It was a splendid stroke for the parties involved, and for the then Minister of the Interior. It was just another evidence of how he was able to accomplish anything which he undertook. He went further by having the tax on western coal, which had been re-imposed by the Laurier government, re-imposed on November 26th of the same year.

BIG RECEPTION IN WINNIPEG

On his return to Winnipeg from Lethbridge he was tendered a reception by the citizens of that place; from the railway station he was accompanied to the City Hall, where an official address was presented to him expressing the gratification felt by the citizens generally at his being chosen as one of the ministers in the Borden cabinet. Later, together with Dr. Roche (then Secretary of State), he was tendered a banquet at Winnipeg, which went on record as being the largest ever given to a public man in Western Canada.

HIS MOTTO "BREVITY."

In Ottawa there is no disparagement in the statement "If you want things done promptly, go to Mr. Rogers." His motto is "Brevity." He sees more callers than any other cabinet minister, and seems to please most of them. Down east, he is not so well known personally, but nevertheless his name is well appreciated. Born a leader, he rules by the might of fair play to all. He laughs at abuse, and has received more than any other minister. The vilification by his enemies and opponents which is invariably his—only tends to make him stronger with the people. A glance at his picture shows the strength of the man in the broad, well-shaped head, the constant rance and dignity. Pleasing in appearance he possesses the power to be severe, if necessary. Tact, poise, and wisdom are his outstanding characteristics. His eyes shine brightly from under heavy bushy eyebrows and the firm formed mouth, surmounted by a neatly formed mustache, gives him a decidedly pleasing appearance.

A SILENT MAN

Mr. Rogers does not deny that he knows how to win elections. He just goes ahead and wins them. Organization and hard work are his methods.

He generally confounds and silences his critics by ignoring them altogether. When you hear him called "The Western freebooter" or "Political autocrat of Manitoba," or "Bob with the carpet bag," beware of the one who says it, for he has more likely measured swords with Mr. Rogers and been slain politically.

If he has one fond more pronounced than another, it is his silence. Words of self-appreciation have never come from Mr. Rogers, but on the platform or in committee his utterances mean something every time they are heard.

His pose, personal charm and magnetism, as well as his wide knowledge of men and affairs, will undoubtedly appeal to people of the East.

Mr. Rogers is to pay a visit to the Maritime Provinces during the week beginning Monday, 10th of November and will then have occasion to meet the people of the east, and also to inspect the various important works which are in progress under the direction of his department at the present time.

AIGRETTE CONTROVERSY.

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Does the new United States tariff prohibit the wearing of aigrettes as hat ornaments by Canadian women entering the United States for the purpose of visiting. This question has been under consideration by customs officials and so far there seems to be no ray of hope for the Canadian women seeking to cross the border with hats decorated with aigrettes, egret plumes, so-called osprey plumes, and the feathers, quills, heads, wings, tails, skins or parts of skins of wild birds, either raw or manufactured. Aigrettes under the new law must not be imported, except for educational or scientific purposes, and the latest ruling by the Washington Treasury Department gives the customs collectors along the Canadian border no option. "I have to advise you," said this ruling, "that the department construes this prohibition to apply to such plumage when brought in passengers' baggage, even though used as a trimming of hats or other articles of wearing apparel." The customs officials are further instructed to courteously confiscate all such plumage.

There is one ray of hope for the aigrette lady. Some years ago when the United States prohibited the importation of seal skins, including jackets, Canadian lady visitors were permitted to take their jackets into the United States on certificates declaring that they were only visiting. It was then held that coats of seal skin under such circumstances were not importations. The aigrette situation is regarded here as being on all fours with the seal skin trouble, but no test has yet been made.

SHOT MAN AND ESCAPED.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—Another shooting outrage in broad daylight is reported this afternoon. A Mr. John Hughes, walking along Boyer street east was fired at three times by an unknown man who escaped, although the police expect an arrest some time during the day. Mr. Hughes was hit in the right arm, the bones being smashed and two other shots entered his body. He lies in a serious condition at the General Hospital.
