SAFE OVERSEAS—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McInnis, Morell, have received word from their son, Arthur McInnis, who is now safe in England.

RECEIVED FLOWERS — Mrs. Douglas McEwen, Morell, received flowers for Christmas from her husband in Holland.

FLOWERS FROM SON—Mrs. Andrew Paton, Rollo Bay West, has received a bouquet of beautiful roses with Christmas greetings from her son, Corp. John Paton, R.C.A.F., now serving in Holland.

MENTIONED IN DISPATCHES—In the New Year's honors list Acting Lieutenant Commander John Harding, Captain of H.M.C.S. Charlottetown, the frigate named after this city, received Mention in Dispatches.

FUNERAL AT NINE MILE CREEK—The funeral of the late Mr. James W. Taylor was held Friday, Dec. 29th. A short service was held at his late residence, followed by service in New Dominion Church, which was conducted by Rev. J. R. Skinner. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wesley MacDougall, William Smith, Seymour Murphy, S. T. Currie, Wellington Murphy and James Smith. Interment was in adjoining cemetery.

GOES TO SUMMERSIDE—Corporal Del Williams, R.C.A.F., was over from Summerside, P. E. I., spending his Christmas leave with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams, MacNeil St. Mrs. Williams had been in the Women's Division of the Air Force and she got her release about three weeks ago and came on to visit her parents-in-law. She accompanied her husband back to Summerside after his five days' leave.—(New Glasgow News).

BIRTHDAY PARTY — Audrey Todd, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Todd, Bradalbane, had a delightful birthday party at her home when she celebrated her 10th birthday last Saturday. Ten of her little chums were guests and they played games and had a jolly time before toothsome refreshments were served. The guests were Juretta and Eleanor Murray, Alice and Lulu Toombs, Christie Ann and Roberta Todd, Freda Hickox, Dorothy Matheson, Margaret Kennedy and Wendy Johnson.

GIVEN CORDIAL WELCOME—On Wednesday evening, December 27, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Charles Cameron, Albany in honor of her son, Bannerman, who recently returned to his home after an absence of almost twenty-five years. Mr. Cameron has travelled through all the provinces of Canada also Alaska and the Yukon districts. Following a sumptuous dinner the meeting was called to order and Mrs. Horace Cameron, Charlottetown read and address of welcome to the guest of honor, while Mr. Waldron Cameron presented him with a genuine leather bill fold which contained a neat sum of money. Although visibly moved Mr. Cameron thanked his friends for remembering him so kindly.

TRINITY MEETING. — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of Trinity United Church, met in the east parlor at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon with the President in the chair. A short devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Long and Mrs. Carruthers and after singing the hymn "Joy to the World," the members repeated the Lord's prayer in unison. At the conclusion of the business meeting Mr. McLennan was invited to take the chair, when a new slate of officers was brought in by a committee appointed for this purpose. The following members were elected as officers for the ensuing year:—President, Mrs. Wm. Teed, 1st Vice President, Mrs. A. J. Coffin 2nd Vice President, Mrs. D. McAusland. Treasurer, Mrs. John Dickie. Recording Secretary, Mrs. John Garnhum. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. Alley. Flower Committee, Mrs. Arthur Godkin. Buying Committee, Mrs. Jasper Pickard and Mrs. Ruby Houle. Pianist, Mrs. Sydney Craswell. Press Correspondent, Mrs. Ruby Houle. There being no further business the meeting adjourned. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Pickard and Mrs. Long.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage took place at the Roman Catholic Padres' Chapel, No. 8 R.D. Winnipeg, Dec. 22nd, 1944, of Sgt. Josephine Leightizer, daughter of the late Major James J. Leightizer and Mrs. Annie Leightizer, Charlottetown, to Flight Sgt. Thomas Nearing, son of John W. Nearing and the late Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Nearing of Port Morien, N.S. It was a pretty military wedding with intimate friends attending, the ceremony being performed by the R.C.A.F. chaplain, at St. Jacques. The bride was attended by L.A.W. Bolleau of Winnipeg, Man., and the groom by Sgt. J. Carr of Smiths Falls, Ont. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Sergeants' Mess and the usual toasts were given along with best wishes from the commanding officer. The honeymoon was spent at the Royal Alexandria Hotel in Winnipeg. The bride and groom are both stationed at No. 8 Repair Depot, Winnipeg. Happiest congratulations are extended from their home relatives and friends.

Next time indigestion strikes—get Carter's Pills at any drugstore—only 25 cents. Take them as directed. You'll get the kind of relief from sluggish indigestion that will make you feel good again all over!

SCOTT - MacNEVIN — A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Dec. 20th at the groom's home in Cornwall, when Rev. J. R. Skinner united in marriage Doris Mae MacNevin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick MacNevin, Canoe Cove, and Harold Brenton Scott, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Scott, Cornwall. The winsome bride looked lovely in her dress of pink sheer with leg-o-mutton sleeves and fitted bodice trimmed with golden sequins. Her accessories were of black. Miss Norma Paul acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Harold Godfrey as groomsman. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at Canoe Cove and given a gift from the Lodge. With this happy young couple goes best wishes for a happy wedded life.

IN MEMORIAM

1938 DAWSON STEVENSON 1945

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your pleasant smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

Lovingly Remembered by Widow and Son Orland.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear father, James MacFadyen, Victoria West, Lot 13, P. E. I., who departed this life January 2, 1927.

Memories are treasures no one can steal
Death is a heartache no one can heal
Some may forget you now you are gone
But I'll still remember no matter how long.

Ever Loving Remembered by His Daughter, Mrs. Albert Ward, Tignish, P. E. I.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Neil Marks who died, January 3rd, 1943.

To part with him, we loved so dear
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
So quick, so quiet was the call
His sudden death surprised us all.
Two years have passed, our hearts are sore,
As time goes on we miss him more.

Ever Remembered and Sadly Missed by His Wife, Mary.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Pte. George William MacKenzie.

MY PAL

Away in France so far away
My friend a grave does fill
His picture hangs up in my room
I know it always will.

I never can forget him
And neither would I try
I'll miss him more each day
Until the day I die.

Hitler and your gang
I curse you night and day
You killed one of the finest lads
That ever walked the clay.

I may meet with other friends
That will fill my heart with joy
But they can never take your place
My faithful soldier boy.

There's an empty place down in my heart
None but your voice can fill
I never could forget you
God knows I never will.

You have been my faithful friend
At times when skies were grey
I can't forget our handshake
That night you went away.

Your sisters and your brothers
I know that they will fret
And your old lonely father
He never can forget.

But your mother is not here to grieve
For the boy we dearly love
For God had called her years before
To that bright Home above.

George William MacKenzie was the name
Of that soldier brave and kind
In a better Home he smiles at us
The ones he left behind.

Now my poem is finished
And all that I have said
Will never be forgotten
No not after I am dead.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond but loving memory of Sgt. George Alfred Dunn of Emerald who gave his life for country, just one year ago today.

Sgt. Dunn was the son of the late Joseph L. Dunn and the late Mary E. Jones of Emerald.

Now in the grave so sweetly sleeping
Lies the one we loved so dear
And your friends at home are weeping, all
Because you are not here.

For all you sleep beyond the wave,
We know you fill a hero's grave
And many miles of world divides us
At home your memory lingers still.
For you're the one we loved the dearest
Always did and always will.

Remembered by His Sister and Uncle William Dunn.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN EDWARD MONAGHAN

There passed away quietly at his home in Hazelbrook on December 17th, John Edward Monaghan, aged seventy-four years.

Although not having enjoyed the best of health for some months he was never known to murmur or complain, but bore his illness with uncomplaining Christian fortitude. He became decidedly worse and despite all that medical skill and tender nursing could do he passed peacefully away on the above mentioned date. Prior to his departure he was administered the last rites of his church of which he faithfully attended. And he always tried to live a good Christian life. In the year 1910 he married the former Annie Gallant of Ructico. To them was born one son Roland.

The late Mr. Monaghan was a farmer all his life and loved the outdoor life and all things that surrounds a farm. Being unable to work the past two years he had the comfort of knowing his son was following in his footsteps.

He was ever willing to lend a helping hand to those who were in need of help.

He leaves to mourn besides his grief stricken wife and son, two brothers and one sister to whom sincere sympathy is extended namely: James, who lives on adjoining farm; Joseph of Winnipeg; Mrs. William Coady of Alexandra.

The funeral which was largely attended was held on the 19th, thence to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was sung at 9.45 The Rev. Father MacMillan officiating. The pallbearers were: Messrs. William Coady, Jack McMillan, Russell Driscoll, Aubrey Myers, Percy Pippy, James Wood

The following are the Mass Cards received.

MRS. RICHARD McCARVILLE

Seldom, if ever has The Angel of Death spread such an infinity gloom of sorrow over the community of Maple Plains, as it did on the morning of Dec. 13, 1944, when it entered the home of Mr. Richard McCarville and carried to the haven of of bliss above, the soul of his beloved wife, Josephine. Although in failing health for the past few years, she was able to be around and attend to her daily tasks, her sudden death came as a great shock to her family and numerous friends.

She will be kindly remembered and sadly missed in the community being of a loving and cheerful disposition, ever ready to assoist any who might be in trouble of any kind. She was a woman of rare Christian principles, and lived an exemplory Christian life, always attentive to her religious duties.

She leaves to mourn besides her heart-broken husband the following sons and daughters namely: Joseph, Aeneas, Peter with the Canadian Army in Holland, Ambrose in the Canadian forces now stationed in Halifax; Ina, Mrs. Albert Duffy, Maple Plains, and Marion at home.

She is also survived by the following sisters: Mrs. J. D. Mooney, Ottawa, Ont., Mrs. Marion Kennedy, Boston, Mass., also one brother James Condon at Georgetown.

Her funeral took place on Friday the 15th to St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, who also officiated at the grave, where all that was mortal of a kind and loving mother, and an obliging and generous neighbour was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, there to await the glorious resurrection.

The large number of Mass Cards and messages of sympathy testified the love and esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

The pallbearers were: James P. Callaghan, Russell Deighan, Fred McCarville, Alva Walsh, George Mayhew and Leonard Murphy.

"Gone but not forgotten, one less on earth, one more in Heaven."

Requiem aeternum dona eis domine.
